SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—(AP)—A timely rally in the second inning gave the Seals three runs off four hits and they showed cross two more in the 8th to defeat Portland today 5 to 3.

Prothro, third baseman, accounted for two of the visiting team's runs when he hit a home run in the second frame.

Earl Kuntz pitched the entire game for the San Francisco club, making two hits and scoring one run.

Score— R. H. E.
 Portland 3 9 1
 San Francisco 5 9 2
 Yerkes, Kinney, Tomlin and Zelle; Kuntz and Rego.

SACRAMENTO, July 28.—(AP)—Hollywood took a 3 to 1 lead in the long series against Sacramento by winning today's game 4 to 2. Feath's double in the 8th inning after Fredericks was purposely passed, decided the issue.

Score— R. H. E.
 Hollywood 4 9 0
 Sacramento 2 8 1
 Mulechay and Cook; Keating and Severid.

OAKLAND, July 28.—(AP)—Oakland and the San Francisco Missions split a doubleheader here today, the Oaks winning the first game 4-2 when Lefty Sparks held the visitors to six hits. He was assisted by brilliant fielding on the part of Reese, second baseman and Larry, shortstop. Reese took part in five double plays.

Larry drove in two runs with a single and triple.

Ed. Rose, outfielder, was the hero of the second game which the Missions won 3 to 2. His team was trailing 2-0 in the 6th when he hit a home run over the right field fence with two men on bases.

AIR RACES SEEN AS GREAT EVENT

SPOKANE, July 28.—(AP)—The National Air races to be held here Sept. 23 and 24 at the close of the national air derbies from New York and San Francisco is the "greatest aviation program ever staged in the United States," Hlanford MacNider, assistant secretary of war, declared here today.

"Aviation is before the people of the world," he added, "and especially of the United States, in a manner never witnessed before. Our American pilots have accomplished things thought unbelievable in the last few months. America is aroused as to the real necessity of developing aviation."

The air races here, Secretary MacNider said, will go a long way in crystallizing this sentiment behind a constructive aeronautic program.

PROS, AMATEURS SING OF PEACE

NEW YORK, July 28.—(AP)—The first few notes in a song of peace by amateur and professional tennis interests were discerned today in the announcement that Charles C. Pyle, versatile promoter, was negotiating for the use of the West Side club's stadium at Forest Hills, famous amateur stronghold, for a world's professional tennis championship tournament late in September.

Pyle also disclosed plans of a new but nebulous character for an "open" tennis tournament to which amateurs and "pros" alike would be invited. This, he said, would be handled by Vincent Richards, former Davis cup star persuaded to join Pyle's traveling professional troupe last winter. It probably would be staged, Pyle said, at the Crescent athletic club, Brooklyn, where the Metropolitan amateur tournament now is being held.

ERRORS SPELL LOSS FOR MILL WORKERS

Errors—costly ones—spelled defeat for Hansen-Liljequist players last night in the first of a two-game series to determine the title bearer in the Industrial League. The post office men, capitalizing the fumbles, gained the long end of the final score, 8 to 6, after the count had been tied twice during the play.

The Post Office now will face the PEP company next Tuesday night in the game which will decide the championship.

A timely home run by K. Thompson in the first inning after the bases had been filled gave the Post Office a four run lead. This was evened by the lumbermen in the second when Sipola and Smith scored on Follrich's hit to right field, and Follrich and McNulty came in on Frame's grounder to left field.

The score was tied again in the fourth inning, 6 all. In the fifth, Ryder and Taylor got on base through errors and Price brought them home with a clean hit to center field. In attempting to slide home on O'Neill's hit, Price was thrown out. The mill workers made 6 bobbles during the game.

Score— R. H. E.
 Post Office 8 8 1
 Hansen-Liljequist 6 9 5

WOODMEN COMING FOR GAME SUNDAY

One thing can be said for these WOW No. 77 ballplayers, they stay with it, and eventually they are bound to bring home the bacon. The blue-uniformed lodgemen took fifth place in the first half of the league race, but they are still on the job, with a strengthened team as was shown by the close race they gave The Dalles; Mid Columbia league champs, last Sunday.

The attraction at Oxford Park this coming Sunday will be these same Woodmen, who held the Senators to a close score early in the season but were swamped 15 to 1 in their last appearance here June 21, when their entire staff of pitchers was unable to tame "Prieco" Edwards' sluggers. Speaking of the Mid Columbia
