He Knows Better Now
 BALTIMORE—The mystery of the missing "X's" at last has been solved by the traffic policeman who lost them. For months the officer has tried to find out what happened to the little chalk marks he placed on tires of parked automobiles to show which stayed the time limit. He regularly found cars of the same model at the curb minus the marks. The officer recently stopped to watch a fire-lance motor duster. The duster was very zealous. He rubbed off the little "X's". He was fined $10.

YOUTH BOUND OVER

A charge of larceny of an automobile was yesterday given preliminary hearing in Justice Small's court against M. E. Weathers, 17 year old Salem youth living at 1155 Church street. Weathers waived a hearing and the case was bound over to the grand jury.

Young Weathers purchased an auto from the Valley Motor company on July 21, giving a check for $180 as first payment. When the check was presented at the bank, it was found that the youth had no account there.

Meanwhile Weathers had left Salem with the car, on an extended trip. On his return to Salem Saturday, he was arrested on complaint of the Valley Motor company.

Bail was set at $1,500, which the youth's father refused to furnish, and he is being held in the county jail. Officers say that young Weathers has been in trouble before because of worthless checks.

GIRLHOOD TO MOTHERHOOD

Iowa Woman Found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Always Helpful

Vinton, Iowa.—"When I was seventeen years old I had to stay at home from school. I finally had to quit school, I was so weak. I suffered for about two years before I found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, then I picked up one of your books and read it. I began taking the medicine. Now I am a housekeeper with six children, and I have taken it before each one was born. I cannot tell you all the good I have received from it. When I am not as well as can be I take it. I have been doing this for over thirteen years and it always helps me. I read all of your little books I can get and I tell everyone I know what the Vegetable Compound does for me."—Mrs. Frank Sellers, 510 7th Avenue, Vinton, Iowa.

Many girls in the fourth generation are learning thru their own personal experience the beneficial effects of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Mothers who took it recommend it to their daughters as a dependable medicine.
