

CLERKS; CARRIERS HAVE HECTIC TIME

White Collar Boys Pull Distributors into Creek; Carriers Retaliate

The Salem post office clerks dragged the carriers through the "detritus" in the tug of war at the annual post office picnic last Sunday but the carriers, in a way, profited by the experience.

Coming out of the chilly water and into the cool air, the carriers shivered not a little. Further, they were peevish. No change of clothing was possible, and a baseball game against their rivals, the clerks, was in prospect. Drizzling water, the mail distributors went grimly to bat, determined to get warm somehow. When the game ended, the base lines were muddled, and the carriers were dry. The score, 20 to 9, in their favor gave evidence of the winning-up process and vengeance gained.

About 250 Willamette valley postal service employees from Eugene to Portland attended the picnic which was held at Rickreall park. After the usual sumptuous lunch, a program of speaking, music, and games occupied the afternoon. Honorable Milton A. Miller was the chief speaker.

The Ed Wonder orchestra, furnished music during the day. It is made up of Ed Wonder, his two daughters, and 2 rural carriers.

Winners of the various athletic contests held were: 50 yard dash for single women—Helen Benner. Post office free-for-all 100 yards—Ray Collins. 30 yard dash for girls under 12—Orisa Batto of Rickreall. 50 yard dash for boys under 12—Rolla Brownink. Race for men over 40—Ray Collins. Married women's dash—Mrs. Dudley Taylor. Nail driving contest—Mrs. Frank Prince.

RUPTURE Expert and Authority HERE WITH THE FAMOUS HUSTON TRUSS

Dr. Huston, of the Huston Truss Co., New York City, will personally be at the Marion Hotel, Salem, Wednesday only, August 10th, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. and offers to the people of this section the internationally known Huston Truss. This Justly Famous Truss is universally considered, the one perfect and satisfactory instrument for the relief of all kinds of reducible ruptures, producing remarkable results without the use of surgical operations or medical treatment of any kind. Instantaneous relief is apparent the moment it is placed in position—contraction of the opening is manifest in a few days and the rupture soon disappears permanently in the average case.

SLEEP IN IT—BATH IN IT No under leg straps, elastic webbing or bulky pads are used in its construction. Nothing to wear out, clean and sanitary. Moisture proof and will not chafe. Can be put on or off in five seconds. No other instrument has ever met these demands with such universal endorsement. Guaranteed not to break.

WARNING—You are cautioned against wearing elastic webbing, or the old style Leather Covered Truss or under leg straps. Such Trusses press in the wrong place, often causing strangulation and death. OVER THIRTY-FIVE YEARS SCIENTIFIC STUDY OF RUPTURE WARRANTS THIS STATEMENT.

This Truss is not sold by mail as each part is selected, assembled and fitted by Dr. Huston especially for each individual case. No guess work, but a scientific fitting of a scientific Truss.

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE STAGE and SCREEN

Elsinore Theatre A fashion show which for lavishness and color outshines anything ever staged in Paris is one of the scores of unusual and interesting highlights in Esther Ralston's first starring vehicle "Fashions For Women" the Paramount photoplay which comes to the Elsinore Theatre today.

More than thirty exclusive creations, from aviation costumes for women to formal afternoon tennishirts, are worn by Miss Ralston and fifteen beautiful mannequins. They were especially designed by Travis Banton, noted fashion creator, following a search through the style centers of the world for the latest information upon the forthcoming season's trend in wearing apparel.

"Fashions For Women" was made for the screen by Dorothy Arzner, one of the first women ever promoted to the position of director in the history of films. Supporting Miss Ralston are Einar Hanson and Raymond Hatton.

An interesting news reel, together with a knock-out two reel comedy, complete this interesting program.

Oregon Theatre Clara Bow was recently notified by a square-jawed ambassador representing the professional boxing fraternity of Los Angeles and Hollywood that she had been elected "Queen of the Leather Pushers" a fraternity made up of the young men who furnish the main events and preliminaries in the southern California fight stadiums.

The little Paramount star became acquainted with several of the boys who deal in lefts and rights during the filming of her picture "Rough House Rosie" in which Reed Howes, her leading man, boxes Charles Sullivan who proposed Miss Bow as the fighters' mascot at a meeting of the pugnaicous clan. The picture show, at the Oregon Theatre today only. Archer Housman, Doris Hill and Douglas Gilmore are co-starring with Howes.

Capitol Theatre Mother sacrifice is eternal. It gives with a smile, yet often falls in its greatest test. Time comes when a mother must realize that the baby is no longer. Full grown as a man he loves another. The great fund of understanding is saved to the utmost, the mother finds it hard to share his love with the wife.

And frequently, to add to the burden, the wife is jealous of the mother. Such is the situation that builds to the smashing climax of "The Fourth Commandment," which shows at the Capitol today.

Belle Bennett, as a wife and mother, gives the screen a great characterization. Her emotions are real, and touch the heart with a poignancy that lingers.

Mary Carr appears as another mother. Sweet, sympathetic and lovable she is the ideal mother and the typification of the one held dearest in the hearts of millions.

The two enact a story of motherly love that possesses almost epic quality. Strongly contrasted they leave an unforgettable impression and glorify the hearts of true motherhood.

FILLING THE PUBLIC EYE

At the moment one of the most talked-of men in the country is Gov. Alvan Tufts Fuller, of Massachusetts, in whose hands was placed the fate of the convicted Sacco and Vanzetti after a prolonged battle for their freedom which spread to every country in Europe, and in many other parts of the globe. These pictures show Gov. Fuller in various moods, and his wife.

EDUCATORS TO MEET

Third Conference Will be Held Friday, Aug. 26th

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Aug. 6.—(Special.)—Tentative plans have been announced by R. R. Brand, general chairman on arrangements, for an educational conference to be held at Monmouth Friday, August 26, at the Oregon normal school. This—the third conference to be held at the normal—is being sponsored by a group of students under Thos. H. Gentle.

The program will continue throughout the entire day and will include a resume of the progress made during the past year in the matter of objective tests, and a forecast of what is to be done next year.

Leading educators will address the meetings and a round table discussion of advantages and disadvantages of the objective tests as a means of promoting children from the eighth grade will probably be held.

The Tests and Measurements Association will cooperate, according to the statement of E. H. Ruh, president of the organization.

Judging from the keen interest manifested by the large number of educators of Oregon who attended the conference held at Monmouth last November and April of this year this mid-summer conference will be equally well worth attending.

R. R. Brand, working at Wichita School, Clackamas county, as chairman on arrangements, has appointed a committee, including several well known Portland teachers, which is putting forth every effort to make this conference a success.

ROAD TO CLOSE

The county road between Fruitland and Heppner will be closed while oiling operations are under way, beginning today. Deputy Roadmaster Frank Johnson announced yesterday. While "pot holes" in county in the road, which was oiled last year for the first time, have been filled, it is believed that the new oiling will maintain a firmer road bed, since a heavier oil, said to resemble closely "blacktop," is being used this year.

quired. Of the two women who intended to make the hop to Honolulu, one, Miss Maureen Moran, Michigan school teacher, was at Oakland ready to take her place in the Pedler plane. The other, Mrs. William P. Erwin was at Dallas, Texas, waiting for word from Captain Erwin, her husband-pilot, to leave for the coast. The "Spirit of Dallas" which they will fly is fifth in the starting line at Oakland. The Erwins expect to hop off from Dallas tomorrow for San Francisco.

Captain Flynn, impressed upon the air racers again that handicaps or elapsed flying time would not be considered in the race. "The first plane to reach the island of Oahu wins the $25,000 prize; the second $10,000," said Flynn, to the assembled airmen.

The elapsed time between the first and last starter at Oakland airport was estimated today as about one hour, although this handicap is not expected to result in a sentence of 90 days in jail. Later he recanted and paid the fine.

Responding to a call from the Boston Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee to liberals throughout the country to march upon Boston in a monster demonstration tomorrow, it was announced that several thousand New Yorkers would take part, and that bus transportation had been arranged for those without other means of travel.

Responding to the Boston committee's call for a "death watch" over Charlestown prison, Miss Rose Baron, secretary of the New York committee said, "Trains, buses, automobiles and some on foot are heading for the Massachusetts bastle."

PARIS, Aug. 9.—(AP)—A mob of people demonstrating against the forthcoming execution of Sacco and Vanzetti is reported to have made a hostile move against the American consulate at Cherbourg last night. A dispatch states that the police had difficulty in defending the consulate from the fury of the crowd. A number of people were hurt.

MOSCOW, Aug. 8.—(AP)—Members of the Moscow sects of the Tolstoyans, Baptists, Dukhobers, and Molokans, have sent a cable to President Coolidge appealing for mercy for Sacco and Vanzetti in the name of Christianity.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Aug. 8.—(AP)—A crowd estimated at 15,000 assembled tonight in Oestermalms Square to protest against the sentence of death passed on Sacco and Vanzetti.

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Aug. 8.—(AP)—Six representatives of the Rumanian Socialist party, successfully evading a heavily armed guard of soldiers and policemen, penetrated the American legation today and presented a long petition begging President Coolidge to save Sacco and Vanzetti from execution.

Although the letters referred to the subway bombings of Friday, calling them "only a sample of what would happen if our comrades are not set free," New York police said they were still without conclusive evidence that the bombings were the work of Sacco-Vanzetti sympathizers.

number of obsolete laws at the next legislative session.

Hodges Reticent He was equally reticent when a discussion, arose regarding the next convention city. When he was asked about San Francisco's chances, he said this:

"The people of the west would be happy to have the next open national convention in San Francisco and the leaders are very active in the effort to bring it there."

It was suggested that the probable candidacy of Herbert Hoover, a Californian, might be a hindrance to the San Francisco efforts but Mr. Hodges only smiled and declared he had said all he wished to say. He did report the finances of the republican party were in good shape and that there had been no deficit since the 1924 campaign wound up with a surplus advantage as a skilled navigator could save more than an hour in charting a careful course over one less experienced, said flight officials.
