A BALLAD-MAKER'S PACK

There's a heap of things for a world to do!

"There are wounds to bind, there's a map to fix,
There's a beautiful tangle to politics,
There are towns to build, there are wheels to start,
There's a load of crowns for the junkman's cart,
There's an ancient fraud in a brand-new dress,
There are lovely riddles for men to guess,
There are dreams to dream, there are heights to climb,
And you can't lie there and waste my time!"

Sunset Wedding of Last Sunday Most Beautiful of Mid Summer Season

The beautiful gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bollier at the sunset hour formed the setting for the marriage of Miss May Bollier and Richard N. Chittenden which was solemnized last Sunday evening at seven o'clock.

The single ring service was read by Rev. Thomas Acheson of the Jason Lee Methodist church of Salem before an improvised altar banked with gladioli, baby breath, and fern. Ivory tapers burned in brass candelabra.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, John Bollier, wore an exquisite model of coral crepe with her mother's veil of tulle caught with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was of white bride's roses, coral sweet peas, orchids, and lilies of the valley.

Miss Ethel Bollier was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of apple green georgette and lace over shell pink satin, and carried a shower bouquet of Gophelia and Cecil Brunner roses, pink sweet peas, and orchids. Her hair was banded with shell pearls.

Kenneth Wilson acted as best man.

The bridal procession was led by the little ring-bearer, John Jerman, a nephew of the groom. Dorothy Scharf, a niece of the bride, and Wilda Jean Jerman, a niece of the groom, the two little flower girls, scattered pink rose petals in the path of the bride.

Preceding the ceremony, Ronald Craven sang "Oh Promise Me" and "Because," and following, "O Perfect Love." He was accompanied by Donald Allison. Mendelsohn's wedding march was played as a procession by Mrs. Roy Jacobson.

A reception on the veranda of the Bollier home followed the ceremony. Mrs. Arthur Jerman cut the cake and the cakes were served by Mrs. Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb. Mrs. Edwin Scharf, of Cervais, Mrs. James Kriesel, of Albany, Mrs. Charles N. Ruggles, Miss Jessie Miles, and Miss Ruth

Daugherty assisted with the serving.

In the receiving line with the bride couple were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bollier and Mrs. F. M. Chittenden. Mr. Craven sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly," at the reception.

The veranda was very attractive with baskets of colorful summer flowers. The wedding gifts were displayed in the dining room.

Mrs. Chittenden's going away costume was of wistaria flat crepe with close fitting hat to harmonize. After the wedding trip of a fortnight to the Oregon beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Chittenden will be at home to their friends in their country home near Independence.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. George Nichols, Miss Esther Krupke, Miss Helen Krupke, Miss Gladys Humphrey, and Miss Hazel Brewet, all of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sashim of Sacramento, California; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Nusom of Banks, Mrs. B. W. Snyder of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Given of Gazelle, California; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald R.
