Fred M. Goodwin joined his family over the week end. Mrs. Goodwin and Jean Goodwin returned with him to Portland on Monday.

A familiar sight here is Sydney Bell, the well-known artist, sketching around this vicinity. Mr. Bell has been able to put on canvas many of the wonderful views in which this beach abounds.

The Rev. Mr. Pressy, of the Episcopal church of Baker, had the misfortune of looking too long at a glorious sunset the other day. He did not notice, therefore, that the wheels of his car were sinking in the sand. The car had to be left in the breakers over night and was a wreck when pulled out the next morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Pressy are the guests of Rev. Brown for a couple of weeks, at the Field-house cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Hermiton, spent a week here.

Oregon City folks here for a couple of weeks were Arthur Hill and his sister, Mrs. Jerome Bear and daughters Virginia and Dona Marie. Mr. Bear makes up the jolly party.

At Wakanda court are also Rev. and Mrs. E. R. B. Hollenstead of Fairview and Mr. Hefty, of Simonton & Hefty, who are operating the Clatsop county crusher and have the contract for graveling a portion of the Roosevelt highway in Tillamook county.

It is now possible to drive through Wheeler and Brighton to Rockaway; a very short detour is necessary, but the road is easily travelable; part of it is over the new grade.

Mrs. Jennie Porter and daughter Doris of Portland, with their guest Pat Lynch are at Wakanda Court for a couple of weeks.

John W. Parker and family of Salem, Oregon, together with W. H. Corbin and family of Medford, Oregon made up one of the jolliest of the larger groups at the camp ground, spending a week at Manzanita.

Captain Harms of the Portland police bureau, and family spent a week here.

Miss Karene Swennes left for Portland Monday; she will prepare their Portland home for the return of the Swennes family there for the coming winter.

Mrs. Paul Emerick and baby Paul, and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Page of Gresham occupied the Hill cottage for the past fortnight.

Mrs. Chas. H. Hageman of Portland, and son, are the guests of Mrs. B. Cline for a week.

Word was received from Miss Ada Werner, Portland school teacher, and owner of several cottages at Manzanita beach, that she had a wonderful trip from Portland to New York via the Panama Canal. Miss Werner is now visiting eastern relatives and will return west in time to spend a few days at Manzanita before the next school term starts.

Registered at Wakanda Court are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. John, and Mrs. A. Fox, all of Portland, and J. F. Roy and family of McMinnville, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Stretcher and family of Portland are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander of Sellwood, at Dun Wandrun.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Benson, and two young sons are stopping for two weeks at Pinewood cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moodie left for Portland Tuesday. Mrs. Moodie has been at her beach home here for about a month, and Mr. Moodie joined her there last week. Mrs. L. M. Feltz of Portland was Mrs. Moodie's guest for a week or more. The Moodie home which was formerly the Lane residence, has undergone very extensive improvements and is now the most attractive residence at the beach. Mr. Moodie plans to be down here part of the winter to continue improving the grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Harris of Portland, being residents of the Lake Grove region, are spending a two weeks' vacation at the Kibler cottage.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zunwalt for the week are Mrs. Lizzie York and John Van Manning of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Janin and family of Portland are spending a week here. They contemplate building a cottage here in the near future.

A. E. Mullett of Portland spent the week-end with his family at their cottage.

Miss Norma Van Croos has returned from her summer studies at O. A. C. and is at home at the Lane's for the balance of the season. She motored down with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Croos of Amity.

NEWPORT

Beach parties and bonfires have been popular this week at Newport, the sand dunes are a popular resting place and many people are taking advantage of the sun baths, hiking and fishing, and agate hunting are taking fine places. The agate shops are busy and turning out some very pretty finished work.
