

Society

By ROZELLA BUNCH

All Day Meeting of Royal Neighbors Sewing Club Today

An all day meeting of the Royal Neighbors Sewing club will be held today at the home of Mrs. Sarah Nelson, 705 North Twentieth street.

A covered dish luncheon will be served.

O. A. C. Club Will Picnic Thursday Evening

Members of the local O. A. C. Club will picnic Thursday evening in the city park of Silverton. Swimming, a picnic dinner, and dancing, will be the diversions of the evening.

Alumnae, students now attending the college, and prospective students, are all invited to attend.

Reunion of Emmel Family Held Last Sunday in Salem

All of the children of Mr. C. C. Emmel, with the exception of three sons, gathered last Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson for their first reunion in ten years.

The dinner table was arranged on the lawn of the Thompson home, and the flowers which centered it were brought from the old family home, Maple View farm, near Scholls. Toasts, songs, and college yells, were given, several of the family being graduates of Willamette University.

Harold W. Emmel, connected with the J. C. Company, of Newton, Idaho; Dr. V. C. Emmel, dean of medical science in the University of Illinois; and Ted Emmel, who has been attending Garret Bible school at Evanston, Illinois, were unable to be present.

Those attending the reunion on Sunday were: C. C. Emmel of Salem; Dr. and Mrs. G. G. Forbes, and children, Jean and Stuart, of Multnomah; Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus Gillette of Columbus, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Olson, and their daughter, Elizabeth Ann, of Bangalore, India; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Emmel and son Kenneth, of Newton, Iowa; Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson, and their children, David and Peggie, and Wilford Emmel, all of Salem.

Salem Girls Will Return the Last of the Week

Miss Lorraine Fletcher and Miss Alma Halverson, who sailed for San Francisco early in the month and have since been visiting with friends and relatives in the south, will return to their homes in Salem by way of the coming week-end.

Marian Lawrence Sunday School Class Will Picnic

Members of the Marian Lawrence Sunday school class of the First Methodist church will picnic this evening at six thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ida Shade and Mrs. Josephine Davis, 796 South High street.

All members are urged to be present, bringing picnic baskets, and the necessary silver and dishes.

Guests at Seaview for the Week-end

Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCallister, their daughters, Doris and Marjorie, and son, Allan, motored to Seaview Saturday where they were guests for the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schulerman of Portland in their summer home at that beach.

They returned by way of Chehalis, Kelso, and South Bend.

Return from Seaside

Miss Elizabeth Levy and her mother, Mrs. S. Levy, returned Sunday from Seaside where they had been for the past few weeks.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Today
Marian Lawrence Sunday School class. Picnic. 795 S. High street. 6:30.

Wednesday
Needlecraft club. Mrs. Rath Denison, 3440 North Liberty street, hostess.

Royal Neighbors sewing club. Mrs. Sarah Nelson, 705 North 20th street, hostess. All day meeting.

Wednesday
Daughters of Union Veterans. Woman's Club House. 8 o'clock. Annual picnic of Women's church organizations of Jason Lee Methodist church. Mrs. J. M. Scharf, 2237 Nebraska Avenue, hostess. 10 a. m.

Thursday
OAC club picnic. Silverton City Park. Picnic supper. Regular meeting W. B. A. McCornack Hall. 8 o'clock.

In Summer Home at Neskowin

Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry and their daughter, Mrs. Raymond Walsh of Eugene, are spending some time in the Fry summer home at Neskowin.

Miss Mildred Simmons Married on Saturday Evening

Miss Mildred Simmons and Mr. Eawsey were married Saturday evening at eight thirty o'clock in the parsonage of the First United Brothers Church, with Rev. A. F. Henderson reading the service. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd R. McQuinn were their only attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Eawsey will make their home in Salem.

Spending Several Weeks at Rockaway

Mrs. R. B. Duncan, her son, Billy Duncan, and Mrs. R. C. Wilson of Silverton, are spending several weeks in the Hill Top cottage at Rockaway.

Daughters of Union Veterans Will Meet

The regular meeting of the Daughters of Union Veterans will be held Wednesday evening at eight o'clock in the Woman's Clubhouse.

Judge Race Honored on Birthday Anniversary

A group of the Daughters of Union Veterans and a number of their friends gathered Saturday evening at the home of Judge and Mrs. Earl H. Race to honor Judge Race on the occasion of his eighty-second birthday anniversary.

Conversation and music were the diversions of the evening. At a late hour refreshments were served by the hostess.

In the group were Mrs. Mabel Needham, Miss Julia K. Webster, Mrs. Madeline Nash, Mrs. Jennie Miller, Mrs. C. A. Arpke, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McWhorter, Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, Mrs. F. L. Waters, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Stearns, Mrs. R. L. Wilkerson, Miss Helen Race, and Judge and Mrs. Race.

Mr. and Mrs. Hassel Visiting in Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hassel and their daughter, Geraldine, are visiting for several days at the home of Mrs. G. Ed Ross.

Mrs. Hassel is a sister of the late G. Ed Ross.

Missionary Society of Evangelical Church Will Meet

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Evangelical church will meet tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock in the church parlors.

In Portland for the Week

Miss Dorothy Cleveland, her cousin, Miss Mary Morrow of Seattle, and Miss Kathleen Rodgers, have gone to Portland where they will remain for the week.

Miss Keber and Miss Yockey Home from Eastern Tour

Miss Rosalia Keber and Miss Helen Yockey, members of the staff of the Capitol Journal, returned Sunday evening from a six weeks' tour of the United States and southern Canada.

They made the trip east by way of the Lincoln Highway to Chicago, stopping in Salt Lake City and Cheyenne enroute. After spending several days in Washington, D. C. they drove to New York city and along the Hudson river to Albany.

Returning to the west, Miss Keber and Miss Yockey crossed the border stopping in Montreal and Toronto, at Niagara Falls, and then motored along the Custer Battlefield Highway to Yellowstone National Park where they remained for two days before continuing to Salem.

At Beach for Several Days

Mr. and Mrs. R. Monroe Gilbert of the Gilbert Studio and Craft shop have gone to the beach for a brief vacation.

Miss Cartwright Gone to San Francisco

Miss Florence Cartwright left Sunday morning for San Francisco where she will visit with her sister Miss Gladys Cartwright.

Miss Cartwright motored to the south with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ross who will remain to make their home in California.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Carlton Smith Will Sail Soon for Europe

Dr. and Mrs. W. Carlton Smith are leaving the first of September for Europe. They will sail from Quebec the ninth of next month, landing at Antwerp, Belgium. After spending several days in Belgium, Dr. and Mrs. Smith will go into France where they will visit the battle fields of Verdun where Dr. Smith served as a member of the ninety-first division during the world war.

Leaving France, their itinerary includes the Rhone Valley, of Italy, Rome, Venice, Switzerland, western Germany, Holland, and England.

Dr. and Mrs. Smith will sail from Southampton on their return to the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Neer Return from Vacation Trip to Southern Oregon

Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Neer, their daughter, Natalie Neer, and Mrs. W. E. Wilson, returned Sunday evening from southern Oregon where they had spent the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Neer visited in Klamath Falls and Crater Lake, while Mrs. Wilson and her little granddaughter were guests of Mrs. Wilson's daughter, Mrs. Leedy, in Roseburg.

Guests from Kentucky at the East Home

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Kalbrier, their daughter, Miss La Verne Kalbrier, and Mr. and Mrs. John Keith, all of Louisville, Kentucky, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. East.

They are motoring through the west have gone on to California where they will remain for some time before returning to their homes by way of Yosemite and the Grand Canyon.

Regular Meeting of W. B. A.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Benefit Association will be held Thursday evening at eight o'clock in McCornack Hall.

Recent Guest in Salem Returns to Home in Washington

Little Avis Stewart who has been a guest in Salem of her grandmother, Mrs. Avis Martin, for a fortnight, returned recently to her home in Woodland, Washington.

NOTED WOMAN PIANIST DIES

CHICAGO, AUG. 20.—(AP)—Fannie Bloomfield Zeisler, the noted pianist, died here tonight after an illness of ten months from heart disease.

THE CREAM of motion pictures are shown by WEST COAST THEATRES, who have always followed the set rule of showing the best efforts of all the producers regardless of expense. GREATER MOVIE SEASON, therefore, promises to be a particularly interesting one in Salem.

ELSINORE

THE COOLEST SPOT IN TOWN

TODAY

Another Big Show "THREE'S A CROWD"

It's the year's comedy sensation with Harry Langdon. Eddie Magill has taken Salem by storm. He's the singing master of ceremonies of the West Coast Theatres. Come down and hear him today in an entirely new program.

TONIGHT AT NINE

ELSINORE'S ANNUAL STYLE SHOW

Living models—Salem's most beautiful girls display all the latest in Milady's fashions.

Courtesy Wilson's Fashion Shop—The Price Shoe Co. Milady's Shop, formerly Mrs. Smith. Stage Setting Stiff Furniture Co.

Prices:

Matinee: Adults 25c
Loges 35c
Evenings: Adults 40c
Loges 30c
Kiddies a dime
Anytime Above Prices prevail every day except Sundays, Mondays and Holidays

Live the picture with Grandin at the Wurlitzer.

OREGON

"CHANG"

Now thrilling thousands at the Rivoli in Portland. Coming Thursday to the Oregon.

Better Hurry

Only a few days to see

"BEAU GESTE"

The big road show attraction at popular prices. Ask those who have seen it.

GRAND

Official Pictures of DEMPSEY-SHARKEY FIGHT

This afternoon and tonight only.

Added—The big super picture, "DESERT VALLEY"

General Admission 50c
Bring the ladies—They'll enjoy it

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENCE

SALEM, OREGON

ANNOUNCE A

FREE LECTURE ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

BY HON. WILLIAM E. BROWN, C. S. B.

of Los Angeles, California

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church
The First Church of Christ Scientist in Boston, Massachusetts

In The Church Edifice, Corner Chemeketa and Liberty

TO-NIGHT AT 8 O'CLOCK

THE PUBLIC IS CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND