The KNEE KOSTER

It is of one size suitable for children from 4 to 14 years, guided without tongue or handle bar by merely leaning to right or left.

The Knee Koster is practically unbreakable and is built to stand the roughest kind of usage with Double Disc Steel Wheels (rubber tired) Hardened Roller Bearings and Bushings undetachable hub caps and Cold Rolled Steel Axles.

Snappy in appearance and beautifully finished - the selected Hardwood Body in two coats of varnish, the wheels and trimmings in bright glossy red and the chassis in black.

The Knee Koster is more than a toy-it's a Health Builder that brings every muscle into action, giving the growing boy and girl the all-around exercise they need to make them Strong, Hearty and Healthy.

INFORMATION, RULES AND CONDITIONS OF THE OREGON STATESMAN'S RADIO CONTEST

Any boy or girl not over 18 years old, who is of good character is eligible to compete in this Radio Campaign.

Candidates may nominate themselves or be nominated by friends. Nominations must be accompanied by the proper address of the candidate.

Vote coupons good for 25 votes as provided in the Statesman, which when cut out, name filled in and brought or mailed to the Radio Contest Department of the Oregon Statesman will count for the amount thereon.

A committee of three well known business men will be selected by the Oregon Statesman to count the votes and decide on the prize winners.

The Judges' Final Count of votes will be made in public and all candidates and friends may witness it.

All contest records will be open to the inspection of the candidates the day following the Judges' Final Count of votes.

10,000 free votes will be awarded on the first subscription turned in. This may be a new, renewal, paid or unpaid subscription.

Candidates can secure subscriptions anywhere.

The Statesman Publishing Company reserves the right to add more prizes to the value of not more than $500.00 for the most money secured on subscriptions during special periods of the contest.

The Statesman Publishing Company reserves the right to encourage the candidates in every way possible.

In the event of a tie for any prize offered a prize identical in all respects with that tied for will be awarded to each tying contestant.

The Oregon Statesman guarantees fair treatment to all contestants and should any question arise a decision of the management will be considered final and absolute.

No statement or promise made by any solicitor or agent varying from the rules or statements published by the Statesman will be recognized.

A candidate is not required to be a regular subscriber or agent of the Statesman to enter the competition.

The Statesman reserves the right to reject any nominations.

All votes issued on subscriptions are good until the end of the contest and will be voted at the discretion of the candidate, subscriber or the Statesman. But all subscriptions must be turned into the office at least once every week.

Candidates who seek to lessen competition by discouraging other competitors or whose friends endeavor to lessen competition for the same reason will be disqualified and dropped from the competition.

Notes are not transferable except under the following circumstances: If a candidate wishes to withdraw from the contest he or she may change his or her votes to a suitable substitute but said substitute must be a new candidate who has not been accepted in the contest.

Extra vote schedule will be as follows:—From the beginning of the campaign and up to Sept. 10, 8 p. m. each $5.00 subscription business turned in will entitle the candidate to 25000 extra votes in addition to the regular vote schedule; from Sept. 12th to Sept. 24th at 8 p. m. each $6.00 in subscription business will give 25000 extra votes. From Sept. 26 to Oct. 8th $7.00 will give 25000 extra votes, from Oct. 10th to Oct. 22nd $8.00 will give 25000 extra votes. The biggest and best extra vote offer is on during the first period of the contest. Get out and get busy.

Show how much hustling ability you have!

The winners of the prizes will be decided by the accredited votes, said votes being represented by vote ballots issued on subscription payments and from the free votes clipped from the paper; the candidate with the highest number of votes to get first prize; the candidate with second highest number of votes second prize and so on till all the prizes have been awarded.

In case of a typographical error, it is understood that neither the publishers of this paper nor the contest editor shall be held responsible except to make the necessary correction of same.

Every candidate who enters this campaign is an authorized agent of the Oregon Statesman and as such may collect new, renewal, or arrearage subscriptions and past due subscription payments from present subscribers to the Statesman as well as payment of advance subscriptions, old or new.

There will be a cash commission of 8% paid to all active non-prize winners. An active candidate is one who turns in at least $10.00 on subscriptions during the life of the contest.

A subscriber once turned in by a candidate and extended at any time during the life of the contest beyond the time it was originally turned in for will have the same vote value as though the full subscription had been turned in originally.

The Judges' awards are final and in no instance will a commission be paid in lieu of a prize.

Any candidate once nominated and not wishing to continue in the race should notify the campaign manager.

Candidates are not confined to their particular section in which to work. They may take subscriptions anywhere. Candidates may have anyone anywhere work for them.

The coupon appearing in the paper may be discontinued at the option of the Statesman.

In accepting nominations candidates agree to abide by the above rules and regulations and all other rules as may be necessary from time to time.

Candidates influencing or attempting to influence any of the judges shall forfeit all rights to either prize or commission. The campaign will end Saturday, Oct. 22nd, 1927, at midnight.

The Statesman reserves the right to amend the rules of the campaign if it becomes necessary for the interests of both the contestants and the newspaper.
