BERLIN .- (AP) -- Bouchardt's Berlin's celebrated caterer, has gone into bankruptcy. After 70 years of fame as the restaurant for epicures and as caterer to every German court, the establishment, with its fancy grocery, has fallen a victim to general impov-

Since a new clientele among the newly rich was not forthcoming. because of the increasing demand 250.00 since the war for terpsichorean and musical pleasures, this mecca for so many noted gourmets has at last been forced to close its doors. Kangaroo tails, Indian swallow's nests, sharks' fins, live trout from the Russian News, the regular stock-in-trade of Borchardt's, will be things of the past. The former crown prince and a number of former ruling princes. as well as many distinguished foreign visitors were always to be found at Borchardt's. One of the best customers before the war was Czar Nicholas II of Russia. Another customer was the Turkish sultan. King Edward VII of England never failed to eat at Borchardt's when sojourning in Berlin.

War Leaders to Be Buried at Invalides, New Ruling

PARIS .- (AP) -A bill providing that Marshals of France and generals having commanded an army during the Great War may be interred at the Invalides has been reported favorably by the Army committee of the Chamber and will soon become law. Two tombs will be reserved for Marshals or generals who played a decisive par tin the war, immediately under the great central tome, beside the sepuchres of Tuenne and Vanbau. The others will be buried in the crypt known as the "Governors Vault." There are forty officers eligible for this posthumous distinction.
