Prominent Willamette University Couple Will be Married Tomorrow

Many friends in Portland as well as those who are interested in the marriage of Miss Ruby C. Peterson and Mr. Ralph C. Curtis which will be solemnized tomorrow morning at ten o'clock in the chapel of Willamette University. The service will be read by Rev. J. J. Patton of Dundee, and uncle of the bride-to-be.

Only members of the immediate families will be present. Miss Peterson is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. Peterson of Portland. Mr. Curtis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Curtis, live in Salem.

Both young people are prominent members of the senior class of Willamette University.

Mr. Curtis is city editor of The Oregon Statesman.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Curtis will be at home at 2164 Maple street.

Miss Margaret McDaniel Becomes Bride of Willis Oury Hisey

A wedding of much interest in Salem is that of Miss Margaret McDaniel, daughter of Mrs. T. S. McDaniel of Portland, and Willis Oury Hisey, son of Dr. and Mrs. Albert S. Hisey of Salem, which was solemnized yesterday afternoon at four o'clock in the Rose City Park Methodist church of Portland, with Rev. Hisey reading the service in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends of the bridal couple.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Wilson McDaniel, wore a beautiful gown of satin and old lace with a veil of lace and tulle. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley.

Her matron of honor, Mrs. Cephas J. Ramquist (Z. Anne Lavender) of Washou, Washington, wore lavender georgette with a picture hat of velvet in the same shade. Miss Elizabeth McDaniel of St. Paul, Minnesota, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a frock of lace in neutral tones and a picture hat of velvet in the same colors. Both attendants carried shower bouquets in harmony.

Truman Collins acted as best man. Four Kappa Gamma Rho Fraternity brothers of the groom, Victor Carlson, Robert Nelson, Harold Pearing, and Warren Day, were the ushers.

Mrs. Farmer sang "At Dawning" (Cadman) and "A Birthday" (Wordman). The wedding march was played by Mrs. Westover. A reception at the home of the bride's mother followed the ceremony. Mrs. McDaniel and Dr. and Mrs. Hisey received with the bride and groom.

Mrs. Elmer Dowdey, Miss Grace Collins, and Miss Helen Campbell cut loes and poured. Miss Helen Hisey, Miss Elaine Oberg, Miss Caroline Oberg, Miss Margaret Bo Dine, Mrs. Louis La Bare, Miss Myrtle Jensen, Miss Ruth Hewitt, and Miss Ruth Edmonds assisted with the serving. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hisey were members of the 1924 graduating class of Willamette University. Mrs. Hisey is a member of the Beta Chi sorority while Mr. Hisey is affiliated with the Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity. Mrs. Hisey has studied at Columbia University, and at Sorbonne in France. Mr. Hisey studied at Syracuse University following his graduation from Willamette.

After a wedding trip through Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Hisey will make their home in Rumford, Maine, where Mr. Hisey is in business.
