FORMER MINNESOTA RESIDENTS PICNIC

Dr. D. J. Howe Speaker of Day; Novel Stunts Feature Annual Event

One hundred and fifty former residents of the state of Minnesota met at the state fairgrounds yesterday for the annual Minnesota picnic. Dr. D. J. Howe, new pastor of the First Christian church of this city, who arrived within the past few days from Medford, and who is a former resident of Minnesota, was the main speaker of the occasion, and gave a number of reminiscences and anecdotes of life in that state.

A program had been arranged by Mrs. Norman Kendall Tully, and included a playette "Bargain Day, $3.98," by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stevenson, a vocal solo by Miss Ruth Stevenson, who furnished her accompaniment on the ukulele, and a number of other features. Miss Stevenson sang "Aloha" and "Dreams."

Part of the entertainment consisted of a contest to see which one present could discover the largest number of words that can be produced with the same letters that are used in the word Minnesota. Mrs. Marion Martin of Lyons took first place in this contest, writing out 47 different words. Mrs. Shaver, 83, of this city, who is still able bodied and uses no glasses, produced 14 words.

A message was received from Governor Theodore Christianson of Minnesota which read, "Greetings to the Minnesota club. Minnesota extends best wishes. To every member an assurance of interest of the old home state in your happiness and prosperity."
