LEGION MEN ENJOY LABOR DAY PICNIC

Many Members of Posts in District No. 2 Gather at Tillamook Beach

About sixty members of Capitol post, American legion, motored to Tillamook yesterday to attend a Labor Day picnic given by Tillamook Post No. 47 for 200 legionnaires in District 2, comprising Washington, Yamhill, Marion, Polk, and Tillamook counties. Irl S. McSherry, department vice commander, delivered the main address.

Following a barbecued salmon feed at Oceanside at noon, several selections by the Salem drum and bugle corps and the Sheridan band were enjoyed. A. L. Maloney, adjutant of Tillamook post, who presided, introduced E. J. Bayliss, of Sheridan, district executive committee man.

Short addresses were made by Lyle Dunsom, commander of Capitol post, Vice Commander Sechrist, of Sheridan post, and H. R. White, district chairman of community service.

Speaking on Legion activities in community life, State Vice Commander McSherry made particular mention of legion work in Sheridan, Silverton, Albany, and Salem.

In addition to supporting a splendid band this year, he pointed out the Sheridan legionnaires have made possible a $10,000 memorial building. Silverton buddies provided the new airport there; Albany purchased an ambulance and presented it to the city; and the Capitol post, Salem, financed park band concerts and rest rooms, and raised $1000 for the Mississippi flood relief fund.

To "Americanize Americanization" was cited by Vice Commander McSherry as one of the great needs of today. Only through proper understanding of the alien can this be brought about, he pointed out. American life should be made so attractive that the incoming foreigner will want to master the language and to give loyal support to this nation's form of government.

Aliens should not be expected to "burn their bridges behind them" and to forget old customs immediately. Those who could do that, he said, probably would not be loyal Americans.

"Americanization is an adventure for the alien—the adventure of his life. Americanization should be the making of life so attractive that it will win the admiration, respect, and the love and loyalty of the American institutions," the vice commander declared.

Following the speech program, legionnaires dedicated the four apartment billet constructed by Tillamook post for disabled convalescing war veterans and their families. Commander Quinn, of Tillamook post, State Chaplain Schuyler Pratt, of Hood River, and Vice Commander McSherry took part in the dedicatory exercises.

MARCUS LOEW DIES OF HEART TROUBLE

Powerful Motion Picture Magnate Passes on at Age of Fifty-Seven

GLEN COVE, N. Y., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Marcus Loew, one of this country's most powerful figures in the world of motion pictures and vaudeville, died at his country estate "Pembroke" here this morning of a heart attack. He was 57. He had returned last night from Saratoga, where he was visiting Nicholas M. Schenck, vice president of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures corporation.

The trip from Saratoga was made aboard his yacht, the Caroline, and business associates said yesterday that he apparently had been in the best of health. At 6:30 a. m., death came while he slept. Mrs. Loew and their two sons, Arthur and David, were at the bedside.

A self made man in the true sense, Marcus Loew rose from a factory job at the age of 10 to heights from which he wielded enormous power in the theatrical world. His interest in motion pictures came after he had established vaudeville houses.

Every theater in the Loew chain throughout the country will be closed Thursday, the day on which the magnate will be buried at Glen Cove, officials of the Loew company announced today.

Sport Ritticisms

The Giants were held idle seven consecutive games by excessive wetness. Won't those New Yorkers ever quit howling over losing the big fight?

St. Louis should be in favor of the proposed third major league. Season's record shows the Yankees beat the Browns 18 times this season.

A national championship chess game lasted 104 moves and then ended in a draw. This explains the popularity of football, etc.

Ted Ray says the British golfers need more bunkers to improve their play—and the British boxers less bunk.

The way some of these baseball experts fouled out on their penant predictions this year it begins to look as though they developed charley horses in their typewriters.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—(AP)—The New York Giants jumped to a single game from the league leading Pirates by downing the Braves in the second part of a doubleheader today by 9 to 8 as Pittsburgh lost two to the Reds while the McGraw men were breaking even. The Braves won the first by 6 to 1.

Jack Cummings' double with two down in the ninth sent Terry home from second base with the winning run in the closing struggle. Harjer of New York hit two homers, his second one in the seventh giving the Giants a one run advantage which was wiped off in the eighth however, when Webb debuted, scoring R. Smith to level the count at eight all.

A super-capacity crowd of about 55,000 fans witnessed the tussle which was full of ragged baseball, each side making four errors. Hornsby contributing three.

SLAYS DIVORCED WIFE
Jealousy Over Divorced Wife Believed Cause of Tragedy
KELSO, Wash., Sept. 5.—(AP)—A coroner's jury will tomorrow open an investigation of the double tragedy enacted here yesterday when Thomas Shellenberger, 49, Kelso mill man, was killed by Walter Edmunds, 51, who then took his own life. Police ascribe the killing and suicide to a maniacal jealousy inspired in Edmunds' heart when he found his divorced wife with Shellenberger.

Edmunds had planned to kill his wife also, and only the fact that Shellenberger, though mortally wounded, grappled with him after the first shot saved Mrs. Edmunds, police declare. The woman had fled far enough from the scene to insure her safety before Edmunds fired a volley of shots at her.
