devoted to the White School of the Dance. Castilian Hall, is very attractive with Spanish hangings, shades, and cushioned seats. A mirrored ballet room, a shower room, reception hall, and men's smoking and check room complete the school.

The Spanish note in decoration is carried out in the reception hall also.

Each studio had an additional decoration many gorgeous baskets of autumn flowers presented by friends on the opening evening.

The programs given last Tuesday afternoon and evening were excellent and most enthusiastically received by those who filled the concert hall and thronged the halls.

The dedication program of the evening follows:

"A Store for Women"

Chambers and Chambers

Are showing this fall the most complete line of Furniture, Rugs, Linoleums, Heaters, Ranges, and kindred lines they have ever shown. Do not think of making a purchase in the above line without first visiting the big beautiful store on North High street. "The boys" consider it a real pleasure to show merchandise in this store.

When we moved to No. High street a year ago some of our friends said you are a little "out" aren't you? Now they say "my how they are building around you—things are certainly coming your way."

A year ago we felt we had made no mistake. Now we know we haven't.

On North High street—out of the high rent district—it will pay you to trade.

Bill and Jim, The Auto Accessories boys see the trend, and will move in about a week to their new quarters, corner Liberty and Center sts. Their place is certainly up-to-date and we wish them well.

The boys don't sell Linoleums, Rugs, Davenport, Chamber Suites, Dining Room Suites, nor Ranges. We do.
