

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE STAGE AND SCREEN

Elsinore Theater
Can there be a pure friendship between a man and a beautiful woman? "Lovers," Ramon Novarro's latest production, coming to the Elsinore Theater today, answers that question in a startlingly vivid manner that will linger long in the memory of every picturegoer who sees it. Laid in the romantic settings of modern Spain, it is filled with the gaiety of ultra-modern society, and tells the gripping, enthralling story of a family whose lives are wrecked and whose souls are all but swamped by a hidden enemy with whom they cannot cope, the enemy of underground gossip and scandal. Alice Terry enacts the part of the woman, an innocent young wife who sinks in the sea of slander the gossiping city has caused. This is the first time in some seasons that Novarro and Miss Terry have played opposite each other and as they are one of the famous pairs of screen lovers, their appearance together promises unrivaled entertainment. Thrills are provided by a sensational duel. The cast is one of exceptional merit, including Roy D'Arcy, George K. Arthur, Edward Connelly, Edward Martindel and John Miljan. John M. Stahl directed.

Oregon Theater
Rod LaRoque and Dolores Del Rio will be seen today only in "Resurrection," and those who have not taken advantage of attending this wonderful picture, are urged to attend this afternoon or this evening.

Norma Talmadge in the title role of her unique, modern version of "Camille," the famous romance of Alexandre Dumas, the younger, is the treat in store for the patrons of the Oregon Theater, beginning tomorrow.

The story of the screen "Camille," while following closely the theme and spirit of the classical romance, is visualized in settings of the present day. The "Lady of the Camellias," most celebrated of all the Parisian demi-mondaines, is interpreted by Miss Talmadge as a captivating, brilliantly gowned, bobbed haired heartbreaker of the present generation.

Desiring to make "Camille" one of the outstanding triumphs in Norma's career, Joseph M. Schenck, who produced the picture for First National release, recruited a notable cast for the modern pictorialization of the Dumas classic, and assigned Fred Niblo as director.

Gilbert Roland, a young Spanish actor, who recently was placed under a long-term contract by the Schenck organization, appears as "Armand," the impetuous young lover of "Camille." Lilyan Tashman and Rose Dione have important roles as "Olympic" and "Prudence" respectively. Portraying the various wealthy and titled admirers of the "Lady of the Camellias," Harvey Clark is cast as "The Baron" and Alec Francis as "The Duke." Other supporting players are Helen Jerome Eddy, Albert Conti, Michael Viseroff, Evelyn Selbie and Etta Lee.

Fred de Gresac wrote the 1927 adaptation of "Camille," and Chandler Sprague and Alga Printz prepared the continuity. Oliver Marsh is the chief cinematographer and the settings are the work of William Cameron Menzies, art director for all Joseph M. Schenck enterprises.

Building Activity Noted in Hazel Green Vicinity

HAZEL GREEN, Sept. 13.—(Special)—Building operations in Hazel Green lately include construction of a barn by Mr. Ware, the shingling a house near the schoolhouse, remodeling of a cottage by J. C. Zellinski making it a story higher, and the beginning of work on a barn for Ralph Gilbert.

Mrs. C. A. Kobow and son and Mrs. Rudolf Wackon and little daughters have returned from a two weeks vacation at Nofarts. Willis Dunham and his bride have returned from their wedding trip and are settled in a cottage on a farm near that of Edward Dunigan, Sr.

PUBLIC SCHOOL GROWTH HERE HAS BEEN SPEEDY

Were not strict.

The average attendance of each pupil was 59 days per year.

Excerpts from Superintendent Powell's report for the year 1873 are interesting.

"The school houses are generally of the most primitive style. In some districts, there are barns better built and kept in better repair than the school houses. The same remark is applicable to furniture. As to libraries, I do not know a district in Marion county that has anything of the kind."

"The moral instruction in our schools is of very general character. I am not aware that the Bible is read regularly as a religious exercise in any of them."

"Methods of punishment vary. Some of our best teachers claim no punishment is necessary, while others occasionally use the rod."

DETROIT WINS CONTEST

Balloon Piloted by R. G. Hill Makes Longest Air Flight

DETROIT, Sept. 13.—(AP)—With all of the entrants in the annual Gordon Bennett balloon race landed safely Monday indications were that the United States entry, Detroit, piloted by R. G. Hill, of Detroit, had won the race. Hill's balloon was brought down at Baxley, Ga., several miles farther from the starting point here than any of the other entrants.

Only a few miles from the point reached by the Detroit were grouped three other balloons, the Lafayette, French entry; the Goodyear VI, another U. S. entry, and the Barman, Germany's representative.

The Lafayette landed at Waverly Hall, Ga., the Barman at Fort Valley, Va., and the Goodyear VI at Waverly, Ga.

SETTLERS NEED AID

WITHOUT GUIDANCE, DEBT FOLLOWS, SAYS SPEAKER

If farmers are to be attracted to the Willamette valley, more interest must be taken in their welfare, declared Frank Doerffler, of Frye and Doerffler, at the Kiwanis club luncheon yesterday. As it is, many of them come to worn-out farms, go heavily in debt, and leave, disgruntled.

The needs of the newcomer to the farming district should be determined, and encouragement given not to proceed too extensively at the start, but to build up gradually, Mr. Doerffler said.

Rotation of crops was urged to enliven the soil. Wheat growing has been the chief crop for 80 or 75 years and the land is so badly worn that it will produce only 10 to 20 bushels per acre.

Nut growing looms as one of the greatest industries for the up-to-date farmer, Mr. Doerffler said. Many of the farmers who grow walnuts on the up lands and filberts in the low lands place a value of from one to two thousand dollars per acre on their holdings. Expert supervision is required to make nut growing profitable, as only about 75 per cent of plantings grow.

Sheep could be raised on a larger scale than at present, he believed. "Might as well raise four to five sheep per acre as one. They do it in England, and our climate here is similar."

ROSSMAN SUCCEEDS BORNETT AS JUSTICE

The third congressional district during the summer by the death of M. E. Crumpacker, representative, friends of Judge Kansler promoted him for the congressional race. Along with others, he entered the republican congressional convention, agreeing to abide by the result.

During the war Judge Kansler was in the service and won a commission as captain. He was formerly connected with the Portland chamber of commerce.

Judge Rossman has made what his associates regard as an excellent record as a circuit judge here and this, in connection with the desire of the governor to place a relatively young man on the supreme bench was a deciding factor in his favor.

George Rossman was born in Chicago in 1885 and in his early boyhood, moved with his parents to Tacoma, later coming to Portland.

He had taken considerable interest in educational matters and was one of the organizers in 1914 of the first Americanization school here.

"I much appreciate the honor," he said tonight, "and I will give to the office the very best service that is in me. I much regret the passing of Justice Burnett. He was a splendid judge. The appointment has some added value because it is made to provide a successor for a Judge Rossman said motions in his court probably would detain him in Portland several days but that he probably would begin his duties in the high court next week. He will move his family to Salem.

The matter was taken under advisement by the board.

A communication from the state fire marshal calling attention to certain undesirable conditions at McKinley, Richmond, and Englewood schools was read to board members.

Recharging extinguishers and the installation of a gate valve on the roof of McKinley school; installation of a 6 inch firm alarm on the third floor of Richmond school; and construction of two metal chutes from the balcony of the Englewood school were some of the things asked by the fire marshal. There are five class rooms on the third floor of Richmond school with only one stairway, it was pointed out. The matter was referred to a committee.

PARIS-N. Y. HOP LOOMS

PARIS, Sept. 13.—(AP)—In spite of the disasters which have befallen the latest attempts at trans-Atlantic flights, there still is a possibility that the Farman Blue Bird piloted by Leon Givon will attempt the crossing to New York within a fortnight.

The Farman company announced tonight that the plane and pilot are ready to take off at any time before September 25. The only question is the weather until that date which is considered the latest possible for a flight to the west this year.

The announcement caused some surprise in aviation circles where it was thought that all hope of a flight had been given up after the loss of the St. Raphael, the Old Glory and the Sir John Carling.

Call for Bids on Bonds

The undersigned will receive sealed bids, up to 7:30 p. m., the opening hour of the regular meeting of the Common Council, September 19, 1927, for the sale of CITY OF SALEM SANITARY SEWER BONDS authorized by an amendment to the charter of said city duly submitted to and approved by the legal voters of said city at a special election held for said purpose on the 28th day of June, 1927, and issued pursuant to Ordinance No. 2264, passed and adopted by the Common Council on the 6th day of September, 1927, authorizing the issuance of $100,000 of said bonds bearing interest at the rate of 4 1-2 per cent per annum payable semi-annually on the first day of March and the first day of September of each year. Said bonds will be sold for not less than par and accrued interest.

The bidder will be required to file with his bid a certified check for 2 per cent of the par value of the bonds, payable to the City of Salem which will be forfeited to the City of Salem in case the bidder to whom the bonds are awarded shall fail or refuse to accept and pay for such bonds.

The legality of said bonds have been approved by Messrs. Teal, Winfree, McCulloch and Shuler, Attorneys, Portland, Oregon.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

M. POULSEN, City Recorder.
