"How come?" What is your unlucky number?" "Thirteen. Twelve jurors and one judge."

Fruit gelatins are easy to prepare. The proportion usually is one envelope of gelatin to one quart of liquid, a little less in warm weather. An ounce of gelatin will soften in about two minales in one-half cup of cold water. Heat one cup of water with threefourths cup of sugaar or less, depending on the acidity of the fruit to be used. Add the soften ed gelatin.
