SCHOOL TO RESUME

PART TIME CONTINUATION WORK OPENS MONDAY

The general part time continuation school, which was organized by federal and state governments and by the local school authorities, will open Monday, September 19, for enrollment of students for this year. Classes will begin Tuesday.

This school is maintained for the benefit of those who wish to continue their education but because of economic necessity are obliged to work a part of each day.

Courses given last year included English, business mathematics, business spelling, writing, reading, and vocational civics. Any other classes will be organized when the demand is sufficient.

58th Wedding Anniversary Observed at Independence

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Sept. 15.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelley celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary on Sunday, September 11 at their home at Independence.

They are the parents of three daughters and one son, nine grand children, and two great grandchildren. Their immediate family consists of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Smiley and Mrs. Carrie Smiley of Independence and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Roberts of Salem.

Mr. Kelley is past 81 years of age and his wife is 78, but in spite of their years they are a very active, happy couple, enjoying their home and their children's families. Both are keenly interested in flowers and their garden and fruit. Mr. Kelley spends several hours each day working in his grounds. They are both members of the Methodist church at Independence.

London police are called "bobbies" because of Sir Robert Peel, who reorganized the police force in the latter part of the nineteenth century and was popularly known as "Bobby" according to an answered question in Liberty.
