

THE HONOR ROLL TO BE PUBLISHED

Starting Saturday, High Ones in Radio Contest Will Be Honored

From time to time the names of the three contestants who have reported the most money on subscriptions will be published.

James Beall, 1030 Norway, leads in the radio contest today with $6,850 votes. James is a comparatively new comer in the contest and with a little energetic work on his part he has flashed into the lead. James is a popular boy and has many friends, and if he maintains his speed he is bound to be a serious contender when the radios, bicycles and other prizes are passed around on October 22nd.

I am also starting an honor roll which will be a great help to you contestants. The one turning in the most money on the contest each day will go on the honor roll on the top of the list.

Boys and girls are entering the contest with the determination to win one of these valuable prizes that will be given away on October 22nd, to current conditions. paratively new and with almost six weeks to go it is entirely possible for a candidate to get in and work and win a prize, even if they have not a single vote to their credit today.

Juvenile contestants are not, as a rule, as consistent as they might be, and while several will start to win a radio it is the history of contests that not more than 10 per cent stay with it. Accordingly, if you are consistent and work a little every day you can readily see that you have a splendid chance to win. It is a matter of record in other contests that when the contest was over there were always prizes for those who had really worked and earned them.

LINDY WILL FLY LOW OVER SALEM IN MORN

through Senator McNary, made a determined effort about a month ago to induce the Colonel to stop for a few minutes here.

Unable to Stop Here

The invitation was declined, on account of the already heavy schedule of engagements, facing the noted flyer. A promise was made then that the Colonel would fly low over the city.

PORTLAND, Sept. 15.—(AP)—"WE" will leave Portland for San Francisco at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, and "WE" expect to reach the Golden Gate at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

today by Captain Donald Keyhoe, department of commerce representative and flight manager for Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and the Spirit of St. Louis. "WE" Captain Keyhoe added, will circle low over as many towns as possible enroute.

The mechanical part of the inseparable "WE" the steel and lacquered linen was on exhibition today to thousands who swarmed Swan Island airport to view Colonel Lindbergh's plane.

The other half of "WE"—America's idol of the air—remained in seclusion in his hotel suite most of the day, working, he said, on his correspondence. The work was carried on under police vigil inasmuch as a cordon of officers had been drawn about the corridors of his rooms and a guard had been placed at all doors of his apartment.

Leaving the airport at Swan Island at 5:30 a. m., Colonel Lindbergh will circle low over Vancouver, Wash., a short distance from the field, and then will head south through the Willamette valley. Lindbergh missed Vancouver on his way south yesterday because he had not heard of the request that he fly low over the city in order that hundreds of school children might see him.

Approximate time of passing towns was given in the schedule announced as follows:

Silverton, Ore., between 7:15 and 7:45; Chemawa, Ore., 7:15 to 7:45; Salem 7:30 to 8:00; Corvallis 7:45 to 8:15; Eugene 8:00 to 8:30; Medford 10:20 to 11:30; Anderson, Cal., 12:15 to 1:10; Red Bluff 12:30 to 1:20.

LOVERS PART AT LAST

Once Thought Ideal Married Couple, Now In Divorce Court

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Fannie Brice, the comedienne, and Jules "Nicky" Arnstein, New York promoter, whose loyalty to each other in the time of adverse vicissitudes once stamped them as ideal lovers, have been separated by divorce.

The action was brought by the musical comedy star who charged her husband with infidelity and incompatibility. Arnstein, although denying the charges through his attorney, did not contest the action.

Miss Brice told the court that they loved each other as much as ever, but that for the interest of their happiness it was best that they should part.

Miss Brice, who lavished loyalty upon her husband when he was committed to Leavenworth penitentiary several years ago for a New York bond theft, announced that as an aftermath of the divorce action, she would file an alienation suit against a New York woman of social importance. Neither Miss Brice nor her attorney, Benjamin Ehrlich, would divulge the name of the defendant in the promised suit.
