ROZELLA BUNCH

Mrs. Byrd Entertains Chapter G. P. E. O.

Members of Chapter G, P. E. O. met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Byrd on Court Street.

The Chapter will have a booth at the state fair and committees to take charge of the booth during the entire week of the fair were named. It was decided to assist the Salvation Army in their campaign for a new building. The scholarship loan fund, which is one of the leading branches of service of the club was also discussed.

Mrs. Seymour Jones was the speaker of the afternoon. In her talk on "Practical Patriotism" she compared the two organizations, the P. E. O. Sisterhood and the Daughters of the American Revolution. Both organizations have practically the same aims and ideals and their memberships in Oregon are almost identical.

In the group were Mrs. Frank Churchill, Mrs. Fred Lang, Mrs. W. T. Hickey, Mrs. F. J. Tooze, Mrs. A. T. Woolpert, Mrs. F. D. Voigt, Mrs. W. M. Smith, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., Mrs. W. M. Hughes, Mrs. B. J. Miles, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. G. W. Laflar, Mrs. E. J. Huffman, Mrs. D. X. Beechler, Mrs. C. K. Logan, and the hostess, Mrs. Byrd. Mrs. Harry M. Styles of Chapter AB was a special guest for the afternoon.

Mrs. E. E. Fisher assisted Mrs. Byrd at the tea hour.

Mr. Weister Asks Cooperation of Salem People in Regard to Art Exhibit

Mrs. Alice Weister of Portland, who is in charge of the art exhibit at the state fair this year, has asked those who own paintings done by nationally or internationally known artists to call Mrs. F. G. Franklin at 1463 R. if they would be willing to loan these pictures for the week of the fair.

The exhibit rooms are carefully guarded and the pictures will be in excellent care. They will not be displayed for prizes but only in order that others interested in art, through the kindness of the owners, may have the privilege of seeing these real masterpieces.

Due to the cooperation of the Salem Arts League, Mrs. Weister will devote the greater part of her time to giving short talks regarding these famous paintings to those who visit the exhibit rooms. Mrs. Weister is an authority on art and conducts an art class at the art museum in Portland. She will arrive in Salem either Wednesday or Thursday of next week.
