

ALBANY DUE TODAY IN LAST GAME HERE

Winding up the home season with a real climax—that is what is in store for local baseball fans today when the fast Albany team invades the Senator camp at Oxford Park in an attempt to repeat its victory gained early in the season.

That contest, which Albany took by a 5 to 3 score, was the last defeat administered to "Frisco" Edwards' men on the home diamond—the last they suffered anywhere until last week's disastrous game at Medford.

The circumstances of that defeat, however, raise a question as to the Senators' ability to achieve revenge against Albany today. It was lack of reserve strength in the artillery division that allowed the Ashland Boas to win 15 to 14 Thursday at Medford.

Johnny Beck is to take the mound against Albany today, but with Barham's arm in poor shape, it Beck weakens it looks like it will be just too bad.

Otherwise, the team will be up to snuff. Gabarino will be on second base and Faust on third; otherwise the team will be the same as that which has played through practically the entire season.

Albany, headed by the well known "Red" Rupert, will have Ralph Coleman in the box and Perkins facing him, with supporting cast of scintillating stars which include Mayles, who played outfield here years ago.

As already mentioned, this will be the last game of the year on the home diamond, unless some post-season games are necessary to decide the Portland City league title. The Senators will play Montavilla in Portland next Sunday, and if they win, will be champions of both halves of the league schedule. If they lose, then another game must be played with the Modera Woodman, and if they win that it will be tied. "If" again, Montavilla wins the second half, there may be a game or 4 series to play off the general title, and that is the only chance for any more games here.

Sport Riticisms by BILL BITT

Football is becoming a game of brains—you bet it is, when ashers have to seat 80,000 folks in a 20,000-seat stadium.

Another speedway driver killed. This auto race game isn't all it's cracked up to be.

Notre Dame will clash with both the Army and the Navy. And we never thought the Irish would declare war on the United States.

Baseball fans in September taking a look at their team's standing in the second division suddenly realize what a great game football is.

What we need now instead of a good five-cent cigar is a non-fallible transatlantic airplane.

A trip by plane is no longer a flight. Aviators now take off for a plunge.

Ernie Johnson Signed Up To Lead Portland Again

PORTLAND, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Ernie Johnson, for two seasons manager of the Portland baseball team, will lead the Beavers again in 1928. Tom Turner, after a talk with his playing boss following today's 11 inning game, announced that Johnson had been signed for next year.

"Johnson's personality and great playing at second base put the spark in the Beavers and made them a winning team," Turner said. "I am signing him now instead of waiting until after the season, to silence all talk about a possible new manager. Johnson will be playing manager next year, not a bench manager."

NET CHAMPIONSHIP WON BY FRENCHMAN

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. Sept. 17.—(AP)—Rene Lacoste, an iron-nerved son of France with steel springs in his legs and the accuracy of a rifleman in a racket, swept to decisive straight set victory over America's "Big Bill" Tilden today to win the tennis championship of the United States for the second time in as many years. The score was 11-9, 6-3, 11-9.

Coming close upon the French sweep of the Davis cup, the victory gave home the claim of France to individual as well as team supremacy over all the world.

It was a valiant battle, this last brave stand of one who ruled unchallenged until the coming of the Frenchman in their midst a year ago. It thrilled a throng of 18,000 tennis fans who packed the west side stadium and literally held their breath the long deep-court exchanges with which the Frenchman wore Tilden down in a desperately fought third set.

From the start Tilden was lacking in steadiness while Lacoste was accuracy personified. A detailed score shows Tilden made by far the more earned points. Lacoste's deadly marksmanship was the margin of victory. The battle for the most part was fought from back court where Lacoste always had the better of hit exchanges. It was only when Tilden followed his drives or service shots to the barrier for volley placements that he was able to carry the battle to his foe.

TUNNEY'S EYE IN GOOD SHAPE

LAKE VILLA, Ill., Sept. 17.—(AP)—The injured eye that has complicated Gene Tunney's final training stretch was "very much better" today as the heavyweight champion rested on his arms for the battle with Jack Dempsey next Thursday night.

Fear that inflammation that set in yesterday after a training go with the three sparring partners would handicap the champion in the $8,000,000 title spectacle in Soldier field, disappeared today when Gene arose early this morning with all outward trace of the injury gone.
