

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE STAGE AND SCREEN

ELSINORE THEATER
 "The heart's eye the pilot aye, that makes us right or wrong," sang Robert Burns, and that would seem to be the opinion of Warner Bros. "Broken Hearts of Hollywood" and "Irish Hearts" has been supplemented with "The Heart of Maryland," starring Dolores Costello and directed by Lloyd Bacon, who, by the way, also directed the first named. "The Heart of Maryland" was adapted by Graham Baker from the Helasco stage classic of that name. The cast is large and the characterizations include Lincoln, Lee and Grant.

Oregon Theater
 Norma Talmadge in the title role of her unique, modern version of "Camille," the famous romance of Alexandre Dumas the younger, is the treat in store for the patrons of the Oregon theater, beginning today.

The story of the screen "Camille," while following closely the theme and spirit of the classical romance, is visualized in settings of the present day. The "Lady of the Camellias," most celebrated of all the Parisian demi-mondaines, is interpreted by Miss Talmadge as a captivating, brilliantly gowned, bobbed haired heart-breaker of the present generation. Desiring to make "Camille" one of the outstanding triumphs in Norma's career, Joseph M. Schenck, who produced the picture for First National release, recruited a notable cast for the modern picturization of the Dumas classic, and assigned Fred Niblo as director.

Capitol Theater
 Bligh's Capitol today will offer a combination show consisting of vaudeville and pictures. On the screen will be shown "Redheads Preferred," starring Raymond Hitchcock and Marjory Daw. The theater management has announced that all red-heads will be admitted free for this engagement which will open today and continue till Wednesday. "A Night in Hawaii," a beautiful and colorful vaudeville act depicting life in the south seas with its music, singing and dancing, and tropical appeal of gorgeous scenery has been billed by Manager Bligh for today and Wednesday with the picture "Redheads Preferred."

FIGHT GATE SUM FOUND UNDER PAR

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Prospects that it will take a last minute rush of ticket selling to reach the hoped for $3,000,000 "gate" discussion of a mysterious group of five candidates for the all-important post of referee and episodes in the "open letter" campaign launched under Jack Dempsey's signature were chief topics of interest today in the "ballyhoo" for the Dempsey-Tunney heavy weight title battle Thursday.

While observers discussed the possible stimulation to lagging ticket sales of the "open letter" affair, involving Dempsey's queries to Tunney about events leading up to their 1926 battle at Philadelphia, Tex Rickard admitted it would take a big rush of business to reach the $3,000,000 mark let alone the "peak" possibility of $3,200,000.

Few Cheap Ones Bought
 "I do not expect a sell-out," Rickard said. "None of the big heavyweight fights ever have been. The sale of the lower priced tickets has been surprisingly slack but my box office men say it picked up some today. However, we will need to dispose of around 30,000 or 40,000 more pastebored to cross three million receipts."

Rickard revealed that his associate and official promoter of the bout, Geo. F. Getz, as well as others, had turned back a substantial quantity of the top price tickets $30 and $40, but he added there seemed no difficulty disposing of them again.

"Gate" to be Small
 It is the general impression that the "gate" is not likely to exceed $2,500,000 with the total attendance closer to 150,000 than the actual capacity of slightly more than 170,000. These figures, however, would make the battle a record-smasher for a sporting event anywhere.

Counterfeit tickets that have appeared so far have been easily detected, Rickard said, expressing the conviction that local and federal authorities had this situation well in hand. Rickard exhibited bogus tickets for comparison with the real thing, showing that the counterfeits can be detected easily by the difference in watermark, printing, inaccuracies and lack of perforations. Rickard said he understood there had been an attempt to unload a shipment of counterfeit pasteboreds in Cleveland.

Official's Name Secret
 Selection of a referee, whose name will be kept secret until the night of the fight, is expected to be made by the state athletic commission tomorrow. The identity of the candidates said to have been narrowed down to five, was not revealed, but it was understood two of the names under consideration are Herbert C. Lytton, Chicago business man, and Walter Eckersall, newspaperman and former football star.

The presence of Lou Magnolia, prominent New York referee, in Tunney's camp today gave rise to a suggestion he might be considered, as well as Eddie Purdy, another Gotham ring official, whose home is in Illinois.

Miss Bronell was born in Portland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Meikle, and is the granddaughter of James Cowan former banker and Mayor of Albany. This is Miss Bronell's initial appearance in Salem although she has been a nationally known star for six years past. At sixteen she toured the world and reached stardom before most girls finish high school.

Prohi Split Takes Shape Within Democratic Party

Drys Out After Candidate to Carry Banner Against A Smith; Edwin T. Meredith Suggests Baker, Walsh, Hull and Robinson

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Dry progressives of the democratic party should concentrate on a new leader to replace William G. McAdoo within the next 30 days, said Edwin T. Meredith, former secretary of agriculture, commenting today on McAdoo's withdrawal as a candidate for the presidential nomination.

Declaring that the wet forces, under the leadership of Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, had benefited temporarily by Mr. McAdoo's move, Mr. Meredith added PROHI 24 that the advantage shortly would appear if the dry democrats concentrate on a new leader promptly. Mr. Meredith was one of McAdoo's lieutenants at the 1924 national democratic convention.

Among those who would be acceptable to the drys, Mr. Meredith suggested Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war; Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana; Representative Cordell Hull of Tennessee and Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas.

Selection of Walsh, he pointed out, would be looked upon as proof that religion is not and has not been a real issue in the party.

The mechanism for selecting a successor to McAdoo for dry progressive leadership was also suggested by Meredith. He said a conference should be called soon and the leader chosen by the dry progressives thus assembled. He will not issue such a call himself, Meredith said prohibition and farm relief are the most important issues before the country. The misunderstood," declared Rosebraugh. "I have always stood for the interests of business, and I am doing so now. Ten years hence the owners of this property will thank the city officials if we restrain them now. Some such organization as the Elks club will be glad in the future to pay a handsome price for this property as a site for a new structure, which will be a credit to the civic center."

Sees Future Trouble
 The Alderman conceded that the present owners might not erect a structure ill in keeping with the buildings in the civic center, but when control passed from their hands, he saw a great danger that buildings of an objectionable type might rise on Court street.

Attorney Keyes in replying to Rosebraugh said that it would be absurd to think anyone would erect cheap shacks on property valued at from $50,000 to $100,000. It would not pay, he declared. Only a structure in keeping

Leslie Miller Leads First Spokane Air Derby Group

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—(AP)—A former army pilot, characterized by his flying "buddies" as the "luckiest fellow in the world," Leslie Miller of Des Moines, Iowa, today won his way through perilous foxs and over mountain tops to take the lead at the end of the fourth lap in the New York to Spokane air derby.

Flying alone in an Eagle Rock plane, the Iowan took the lead after a close contest in which 24 others were entered. Although he left Roosevelt field, New York, the starting place, in ninth place at 6:10 a. m., Eastern Standard time, he arrived at the municipal airport here, the end of the fourth lap and where most of the contestants must stop over for the night, ahead of the flying pack at 4:43 p. m., Chicago daylight saving time, completing the 768 miles in 10 hours and 42 minutes or a time average of about 71 miles an hour, including the time taken for three stops.

A minute and a half behind Miller came C. W. Meyers, who was fifth to leave Roosevelt field in the chase for the $5,000 prize which awaits the pilot making the best time to Spokane. Meyers is flying a Waco-10 and is carrying a passenger, Thomas B. Colby.

J. S. Charles of Richmond, Va., was next in another Eagle Rock plane. He was the first to leave Roosevelt field this morning.

KICKOFF DINNER FOR S. A. DRIVE

135 LEADERS MEET AT MARION HOTEL LAST NIGHT

Speakers Outline Work and Needs of Local Group; "Beats" Assigned

The Salvation Army Building Fund campaign got away with a burst of enthusiasm at the "kick-off" dinner which officially ushered in the campaign at the Marion Hotel last evening.

One hundred and thirty-five leaders attended the dinner which was presided over by William McGilchrist, Jr., who opened the meeting and turned the program over to Paul Wallace as toastmaster.

Mr. Wallace introduced Dr. Carl Gregg Doney who gave an inspiring address to the campaigners present, illustrating graphically the effectiveness of Salvation Army service to the community and why those in better circumstances in life should lend a helping hand to the brother or sister who was less fortunate.

A special tribute was paid to the Elks Lodge and its membership in appreciation of their gift in 1919 of the present Salvation Army home which the organization has outgrown and which constitutes the assets now on hand towards the new building.

Graphic illustration of typical cases and a general resume of the work accomplished here by the Salvation Army was outlined by Ensign Allen Pitt, officer in charge of Salem.

Entertainment was furnished by Bligh's Theatre and community singing was led by Mrs. Marie Styles, accompanied by Miss Yeager as pianist.

In giving the "send-off" charge to workers, Mr. McGilchrist asked all workers to show the utmost in enthusiasm and said that with the organization as effected, it each will do just the right amount of work the campaign will go over.

He asked the workers to cooperate with the campaign plan of finishing in three days or before Thursday evening.

Campaign supply kits were distributed among the workers and each civic organization was assigned to their "beats" to cover in the interests of the building fund.
