Both Babe and Her Friend Kay Have Won Many Trophies

CANADA has a "Babe" Ruth, too! In the Dominion women work and play baseball as well. There are two girls that are champions: "Babe" Vincent, pitcher for the Selberling Supremes. The Canadian National Champions in 1926 and 1927 has a curve and a batting record unequalled by the blonds across the border.

Her companion, Kay Flanagan, is left fielder on the same team, and holds two Canadian track records. She is the girls' champion in the half-mile run and 275 yard dash.

Both girls play on the team of the Selberling Rubber Company of Canada which recently invaded the United States. They were selected from the women's staff of the Toronto plant, where tires and rubber goods are made and shipped to all parts of the world.

The silver trophies won by this famous team are the envy of rivals from all parts of the Dominion.
