

SIDELIGHTS OF THE STAGE and SCREEN

Capitol Theatre
An exceptionally good Association vaudeville bill will be here next Friday. It is one of those vaudeville programs in which each act contributes towards making the whole well balanced entertainment.

The artistic portion of the program will be presented by Sebastian Leo and His Society Singers with a melange of operatic selections. In winning first place in the New York state singing contest, they were awarded the title of the Champion Singing Trio. This is their second trip of Association vaudeville.

The world's tallest man, Capt. Cart Gulliver, will be seen in an offering presented by Louis Hart and company. Mr. Hart was a portrait painter before he took up the stage, several of his paintings having been accepted for exhibition at the Paris Salon and the Royal Academy, London. As an athlete, he won a skating championship and was also a six-day bicycle racer. The French government honored him with the Violet Ribbon of Merit. Mr. Hart was pronounced by Eugene Sandow as a perfect specimen of physical culture.

Miss Emily Darrell, who has been in musical comedy for the past year, returns with a new version of her skit, "Late for Rehearsal." Hers is patter and song. An actress drifts into the theatre after the set period for her rehearsal creating a lot of trouble for herself and everybody else, but unlimited amusement for the public.

Kitty Faye and Jack Thomas are two clever people whose style of dancing and magnetic personalities will win their way into the hearts of everyone.

Bits of musical comedy will be offered by Harry and Billie Clark, dance specialists. They do all types of dancing, Miss Clark outstanding particularly in some exceptional toe dancing.

Oregon Theatre
No visitors were allowed that day.

A sequence of tremendous importance was being made for "The Rough Riders" at the fair grounds on the outskirts of San Antonio, Texas. Victor Fleming, Paramount director, gave orders that there were to be no interruptions.

It was the scene where Theodore Roosevelt and Leonard Wood receive a telegram from the war department to entrain their troops on the first leg of the journey to the battlefields of Cuba.

Someone handed Fleming a note. It was from a young mother in behalf of her children, begging permission to see the filming. "because," it read, "I want my boys and girls to have an education in the fine, true side of American history and its great men."

"Open the gate," said Fleming, "and let every child in. We'll make a special place for them near the cameras."

Youngsters by the score flocked into the grounds, thrilled to the depths of their little hearts. Not only did they see history in the making but they saw such favorites of the screen in big roles as Mary Astor, Charles Farrell, Charles Emmett Mack, Noah Beery, George Bancroft and Fred Kohler. And they saw Frank Hopper, the image of Roosevelt and Col. Fred Lindsay as Leonard Wood. All of them appear in the production which reaches the Oregon theatre Thursday.

They saw a thousand Rough Riders, brawny and blue-shirted, lustily cheering as they struck their tents in preparation for Cuban departure.

"I want my boys and girls to have an education—" this was the simple, sincere line that opened wide the gates.

Elsinore Theatre
What promises to be an exceedingly snappy vaudeville program to be presented at the Elsinore theatre Friday and Saturday in conjunction with the showing of beautiful Irene Rich in her latest feature, "Dearie," is headlined by Brock, Thompson and Lee, musical comedy favorites in a modern song and dance revue; Kovo, the European novelty sensation; Eddie Bernard, the singing troubador with a world of pep and personality and Lipton and Terrell, heading the act beautiful, offering entertainment that is characterized as "different."

In this week-end, Friday and Saturday vaudeville road-show presentation the management of the Elsinore has arranged a most

PLEA NOT ENTERED

PHILIP STEINBOCK CASE POSTPONED A FEW DAYS

Philip Steinbock, local second-hand dealer, was arrested yesterday on a charge of having contributed to the delinquency of a 15-year old girl, whose name is withheld by local officers. Louis Olsen of the local police force signed the complaint. Steinbock was arraigned before Police Judge Foulson who set the former's bail at $500.

Steinbock was to have entered a plea yesterday afternoon, but at the request of District Attorney Carson, the case has been set over for a few days pending further investigation. Bond was furnished by H. Maizels and H. Shusterwitz.

Briefly, the girl accuses Steinbock of having enticed her to have immoral relations with him on several occasions in the past summer and of also having requested her to introduce him to another 17-year old girl who also accuses him of assaulting her at the time of their first meeting, about August 15.

DISEASE CASES FEW

ONLY 22 CONTAGIOUS CASES REPORTED IN AUGUST

That there were only 22 cases of contagious diseases in Marion county during August, as against 71 in June, and 46 in July, it was shown in a report presented to the health unit at a meeting yesterday. With the beginning of school this month, however, a gradual increase is expected, with the peak being reached about February or March.

Four more cases were reported in August than for the same month last year. This was due to an increase in state tuberculosis cases, and in chicken pox.

On account of the absence of the deputy health officer, during part of August, the principal activity of the unit was the inspection of two or three auto camps.

In August there were 90 births, 45 male and 45 female. Four of these babies died within 10 days. Besides the 90 live births, there were three still births.

There were 84 deaths during August, as against 73 in July. The largest single cause of death was disease of the heart and blood vessels, of which there were 26 cases. There were four deaths due to diseases of the kidneys, nine deaths due to cancer, and eight deaths due to tuberculosis. There were six deaths due to communicable diseases other than
