

SIDELIGHTS OF THE STAGE and SCREEN

Elsinore Theater
Today, Fanchon & Marco will present the most gorgeous "Idea" they have offered in several months. The "Idea" is entitled "Seasons" and the glorious beauties who will interpret the act have been selected because of the beauty of their faces and figures. Each girl will wear a gown typifying the various seasons, and the flower which belongs to each month of the year.

We can safely say that Fanchon & Marco's "Idea" Seasons display to Elsinore theater patrons the most stunning array of gowns ever seen on the stage at this theater.

The feature of the bill is The Borkoffs— noted Russian dancers. In addition to the Sunkist Beauties and the Borkoffs—Fanchon & Marco also offer many other noted performers recently engaged for West Coast Theaters Inc. presentations, including, Gene Winslow and Fred Weber, lyric soprano.

Like the artists that they are, Fanchon & Marco are continually striving, in each presentation, to outdo and eclipse their previous efforts. For the Seasons presentation, the producers were inspired by set and costume designs created by the well known artist, Jaron Gori, in collaboration with Mary Kelly, noted authority on stage craft design.

The hilarious comedy drama feature "No Control" with Phyllis Haver and Harrison Ford is the cinema attraction on this program and together these stella offerings present one of the finest combination shows yet offered the general public of our fair city.

For popular appeal "The Seasons" idea and "No Control" have acted jointly as a whirlwind, action entertainment wherever presented and Salem should prove no exception. It is "some show." Let's go.

Capitol Theater
A ripple of mirth at first, speedily developing into a gale of laughter and eventually growing into a tornado of hilarity which engulfs an audience and tosses it about until it virtually cries for succor from seemingly endless attacks on its risibilities—such, perhaps, best describes "Abie's Irish Rose," which will be the attraction for one day, September 28th, Wednesday matinee and evening.

The play is the creation of Anne Nichols, to whom several previous successful plays are credited. The author herself, is the producer— one of the few independent producers in these days of combines and amalgamations.

The story of "Abie's Irish Rose" in brief, has to do with Abie Levy, a war veteran, who fell in love while overseas with Rosemary Murphy, a war nurse. They returned home and are surreptitiously married by a Methodist minister, although Abie is an orthodox Jew and Rosemary a fervent Catholic. When the play opens Abie is introducing Rosemary to his father as his fiancée, but to assuage suspicion of Rosemary's nationalistic and religious is forced to add a "ski" to her name, and welcomes her and arranges for a fitting wedding according to the Jewish rite. Just as the ceremony is being performed, Rosemary's father, Patrick Murphy, arrives on the scene, accompanied by a Father Whalen, who, as they imagine, is to bind Rosemary and Michael McGee in wedlock according to the Catholic ritual. The fathers meet, discover each other's racial and religious status, and the complications that develop provide the comedy situations.

Capitol Musical Comedy
This company headed by Glen Singer the different comedian, and Duke Collins who has just finished a two year engagement with the Duncan Sisters "Topsy and Eva" attraction at the Selwin theater, Chicago, Ill., will appear at the Capitol theater today.

He is well known in musical comedy for his pleasing baritone voice and splendid acting. Countie Glanum the lyric tenor on the musical roster was recently with the Shubert stock company of Miss Grace Osten the golden voiced prima donna, will be heard in Shereeh ably assisted by the Rose Bud chorus which is presented by Adlyn Mack, the ingenue. Last, but not least is the Capitol male trio of harmony singers, doing real credit to the word harmony, singing songs of yesterday, and today as you like to hear them. Also in the Revue is a new face in the personal of Peggy Harris coming here from Los Angeles where she has been playing with the Daulton Bros. Musical Attractions doing dainty soufrettes.

ASSOCIATION VAUDEVILLE HEADLINER CAPITOL FRIDAY

Jack Ellsworth, Lonor Crausse, Lillian Dawson and Colletta with Jazz-O-Mama Revue.

The play is the creation of Anne Nichols, to whom several previous successful plays are credited. The author herself, is the producer— one of the few independent producers in these days of combines and amalgamations.

The story of "Abie's Irish Rose" in brief, has to do with Abie Levy, a war veteran, who fell in love while overseas with Rosemary Murphy, a war nurse. They returned home and are surreptitiously married by a Methodist minister, although Abie is an orthodox Jew and Rosemary a fervent Catholic. When the play opens Abie is introducing Rosemary to his father as his fiancée, but to assuage suspicion of Rosemary's nationalistic and religious is forced to add a "ski" to her name, and welcomes her and arranges for a fitting wedding according to the Jewish rite. Just as the ceremony is being performed, Rosemary's father, Patrick Murphy, arrives on the scene, accompanied by a Father Whalen, who, as they imagine, is to bind Rosemary and Michael McGee in wedlock according to the Catholic ritual. The fathers meet, discover each other's racial and religious status, and the complications that develop provide the comedy situations.

Capitol Musical Comedy
This company headed by Glen Singer the different comedian, and Duke Collins who has just finished a two year engagement with the Duncan Sisters "Topsy and Eva" attraction at the Selwin theater, Chicago, Ill., will appear at the Capitol theater today.

Hollywood Theater
Do you remember the home-coming?
Do you remember Montauk Point when the Rough Riders, weary and decimated by war and fever—but jubilant, nevertheless over their victory and their return to loved ones—spoke their good-byes to one another.
This spirited scene of drama, combining the sorrows of farewells with comrades and the joys of greeting dear ones, is one of the most effective screen moments in "The Rough Riders" now showing at the Oregon theater.

Hollywood Theater
"Finger Prints" the Warner Bros. production which comes to the Hollywood theater today and Monday is founded upon a crime story by Arthur Somers Roche. It deals with a band of criminals who have stolen $5,000,000 from a bank. The leaders of the gang are arrested and convicted, but the money is not recovered. It is hidden in a house far off in the country.

The one man who knows the hiding place is in prison and it is upon him that the detective operates in order to get information. They learn enough to get to the right house. But when they are there the mystery thickens. It is mystery liberally sprinkled with comedy, and, while the backbone of the story is straight melodrama of unexpected thrills, its flesh and blood is laughter.

Louise Fazenda is the star, appearing as a girl detective, who disguised as a stupid servant, gets into the house of mystery. In her disguise Miss Fazenda returns to the type of comedy role in which she first won fame.

Featured in the supporting cast are John T. Murray, the vaudeville headliner who scored a big hit in pictures when he played the comedy role in "Bardelys the Magnificent," and Helen Costello, the dark-haired sister of the blonde Dolores.

Grand Theater
Tom Mix, playing the starring role of Tom Gordon, a detective, in "The Great K & A Train Robbery," Fox Films latest release, which will be shown at the Grand theater today and Monday evening disregards the danger of death from bullets as he flees from a gang of desperados and turns aside to rescue a girl whose horse has bolted, and who has caught her foot in a stirrup and left her head hanging near the runaway's flying hoofs.

Gordon saves her in spite of her fight to escape him because she believes he's a bandit and the pursuers are a sheriff's posse.

After she has had time to think it over, the girl concludes such a chivalrous man could not be an outlaw, and when he reappears in her own father's home, again apparently a desperado, the girl decides she is good turn deserves another and hides him in a closet of her bedroom, so that he can elude her father's pursuit.

There are only two of the many dramatic touches of the Mix picture.

Dorothy Dwan, who plays the heroine lead, gives the screen a new masterpiece of screen riding and acting. Don't miss it!

HOLLYWOOD THEATER
To-day and Monday
Louise Fazenda
In
"FINGER PRINTS"
Flashing searchlights, lean white hands, shots in the dark, muffled screams and moans, finger prints.
The $5,000,000 Crook Story
Lupino Lane Comedy . Kinogram . Felix
Continuous Performance 2 to 11
Adults 25c; Kiddies a Dime Anytime.

ASSOCIATION VAUDEVILLE
Has been playing at Bligh's Capitol Theatre each Friday for the past six weeks and will continue to play there each Friday.
Through an error the Association Vaudeville cut was used in the Elsinore Theater ad in the Statesman Saturday morning. The error was entirely our fault and we regret the mistake.
The Oregon Statesman

—THIS—
WED.
Afternoon
Evening
28
HURRY SEATS NOW ON SALE—PHONE 50 HURRY

The Record Breaker
Anne Nichols' Own Company
"ABIE'S IRISH ROSE"
Now playing its sixth year in New York City

Special Priced Matinee: Entire Lower Floor, $1.00, tax 10c, total $1.10. Balcony Loges 75c; Balcony 50c.
Evening Prices: Lower Loges $2.00, tax 20c, total $2.20. Lower Floor $1.50, tax 15c, total $1.65. Balcony Loges $1.50, tax 15c, total $1.65. Balcony, First 10 rows, $1.00, tax 10c, total $1.10. Balance balcony 75c.

"Hey Hey Cowboy" Feature
At BLIGH'S CAPITOL TODAY

HOOT GIBSON

Now! SHOWS AT 2-4-7-9. Today CONTINUOUS SHOW 2-11

5 SNAPPY ACTS 5

VAUDEVILLE

SINGERS ADDED 18 PEOPLE 18
Capitol Musical Comedy Co.

HOOT GIBSON
"HEY! HEY! COWBOY"

Thrills
Action
Comedy
Romance

China's Unrest Said Challenge to Church
(Continued from Page One)

$69,562, of which 100,000 are in China, and 485,160 in Africa.

"Christian missions in foreign fields are highly respected and appreciated in the community, or the part of the people who are in close touch with the school, hospital, and church institutions set up by Christian agencies.

"China, while appreciating the Christian organization in her midst, is inclined to repudiate the differences of doctrine and policy which have been introduced by churches. She seeks today, a larger independence in native leadership of thought and the practice

China's Unrest Said Challenge to Church
(Continued from Page One)

$69,562, of which 100,000 are in China, and 485,160 in Africa.

"Christian missions in foreign fields are highly respected and appreciated in the community, or the part of the people who are in close touch with the school, hospital, and church institutions set up by Christian agencies.

"China, while appreciating the Christian organization in her midst, is inclined to repudiate the differences of doctrine and policy which have been introduced by churches. She seeks today, a larger independence in native leadership of thought and the practice

China's Unrest Said Challenge to Church
(Continued from Page One)

$69,562, of which 100,000 are in China, and 485,160 in Africa.

"Christian missions in foreign fields are highly respected and appreciated in the community, or the part of the people who are in close touch with the school, hospital, and church institutions set up by Christian agencies.

"China, while appreciating the Christian organization in her midst, is inclined to repudiate the differences of doctrine and policy which have been introduced by churches. She seeks today, a larger independence in native leadership of thought and the practice

China's Unrest Said Challenge to Church
(Continued from Page One)

$69,562, of which 100,000 are in China, and 485,160 in Africa.

"Christian missions in foreign fields are highly respected and appreciated in the community, or the part of the people who are in close touch with the school, hospital, and church institutions set up by Christian agencies.

"China, while appreciating the Christian organization in her midst, is inclined to repudiate the differences of doctrine and policy which have been introduced by churches. She seeks today, a larger independence in native leadership of thought and the practice

China's Unrest Said Challenge to Church
(Continued from Page One)

$69,562, of which 100,000 are in China, and 485,160 in Africa.

"Christian missions in foreign fields are highly respected and appreciated in the community, or the part of the people who are in close touch with the school, hospital, and church institutions set up by Christian agencies.

"China, while appreciating the Christian organization in her midst, is inclined to repudiate the differences of doctrine and policy which have been introduced by churches. She seeks today, a larger independence in native leadership of thought and the practice

Oregon State Fair
OPENS MONDAY MORN
(Continued from Page One)

exhibit as will a number of individuals interested in agriculture. The cattle, sheep and swine barns already are crowded to capacity, it was said, and belated arrivals will have to be accommodated in tents and other temporary structures. The poultry exhibit will be the largest in the history of the state fair. Exhibits in the textile department have been arriving at the fair grounds for several days.

Reports received by H. C. Seymour, state club leader, indicated that the boys and girls club activities at this year's fair would include a number of new features. Judging of livestock by the boys and girls club teams will start early in the week and will continue until late Thursday. Canning demonstrations will be held daily with the exception of Saturday.

The two boys and two girls scoring highest in all club work projects at this year's fair will be the guests of E. L. King, superintendent of the Southern Pacific Lines in Oregon, at a banquet aboard his private car on Friday night. Governor Patterson will attend the banquet as will a number of other persons prominent in the state. These boys and girls also will enjoy a week's vacation at Crater Lake Inn next summer as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Price.

Approximately 50 makes of automobiles will be exhibited in the motor vehicle department. These exhibits will include more than 150 models of cars, together with a large and complete display of automobile accessories.

One booth which already is at the finished product is produced, the linen industry in the Willamette Valley. This booth will picture Oregon's new industry in its several stages and show how der of the week.

The racing card is filled and it probably will be necessary to arrange a number of special events to accommodate the horses already on the grounds.

The harness and running events will begin Tuesday afternoon, and continue throughout the remainder of the week.

The half-mile track, which was completed recently, will be used for the first time at this year's fair.

A survey of entries in all departments of the fair indicated that they will exceed those of previous years by more than 20 per cent. This statement was given out here Saturday by Mrs. Ella exhibit as will a number of individuals interested in agriculture. The cattle, sheep and swine barns already are crowded to capacity, it was said, and belated arrivals will have to be accommodated in tents and other temporary structures. The poultry exhibit will be the largest in the history of the state fair. Exhibits in the textile department have been arriving at the fair grounds for several days.

Oregon State Fair
OPENS MONDAY MORN
(Continued from Page One)

Reports received by H. C. Seymour, state club leader, indicated that the boys and girls club activities at this year's fair would include a number of new features. Judging of livestock by the boys and girls club teams will start early in the week and will continue until late Thursday. Canning demonstrations will be held daily with the exception of Saturday.

The two boys and two girls scoring highest in all club work projects at this year's fair will be the guests of E. L. King, superintendent of the Southern Pacific Lines in Oregon, at a banquet aboard his private car on Friday night. Governor Patterson will attend the banquet as will a number of other persons prominent in the state. These boys and girls also will enjoy a week's vacation at Crater Lake Inn next summer as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Price.

Approximately 50 makes of automobiles will be exhibited in the motor vehicle department. These exhibits will include more than 150 models of cars, together with a large and complete display of automobile accessories.

One booth which already is at the finished product is produced, the linen industry in the Willamette Valley. This booth will picture Oregon's new industry in its several stages and show how der of the week.

The racing card is filled and it probably will be necessary to arrange a number of special events to accommodate the horses already on the grounds.

The harness and running events will begin Tuesday afternoon, and continue throughout the remainder of the week.

The half-mile track, which was completed recently, will be used for the first time at this year's fair.

A survey of entries in all departments of the fair indicated that they will exceed those of previous years by more than 20 per cent. This statement was given out here Saturday by Mrs. Ella

Oregon State Fair
OPENS MONDAY MORN
(Continued from Page One)

exhibit as will a number of individuals interested in agriculture. The cattle, sheep and swine barns already are crowded to capacity, it was said, and belated arrivals will have to be accommodated in tents and other temporary structures. The poultry exhibit will be the largest in the history of the state fair. Exhibits in the textile department have been arriving at the fair grounds for several days.

Reports received by H. C. Seymour, state club leader, indicated that the boys and girls club activities at this year's fair would include a number of new features. Judging of livestock by the boys and girls club teams will start early in the week and will continue until late Thursday. Canning demonstrations will be held daily with the exception of Saturday.

The two boys and two girls scoring highest in all club work projects at this year's fair will be the guests of E. L. King, superintendent of the Southern Pacific Lines in Oregon, at a banquet aboard his private car on Friday night. Governor Patterson will attend the banquet as will a number of other persons prominent in the state. These boys and girls also will enjoy a week's vacation at Crater Lake Inn next summer as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Price.

Approximately 50 makes of automobiles will be exhibited in the motor vehicle department. These exhibits will include more than 150 models of cars, together with a large and complete display of automobile accessories.

One booth which already is at the finished product is produced, the linen industry in the Willamette Valley. This booth will picture Oregon's new industry in its several stages and show how der of the week.

The racing card is filled and it probably will be necessary to arrange a number of special events to accommodate the horses already on the grounds.

The harness and running events will begin Tuesday afternoon, and continue throughout the remainder of the week.

The half-mile track, which was completed recently, will be used for the first time at this year's fair.

A survey of entries in all departments of the fair indicated that they will exceed those of previous years by more than 20 per cent. This statement was given out here Saturday by Mrs. Ella

Oregon State Fair
OPENS MONDAY MORN
(Continued from Page One)

exhibit as will a number of individuals interested in agriculture. The cattle, sheep and swine barns already are crowded to capacity, it was said, and belated arrivals will have to be accommodated in tents and other temporary structures. The poultry exhibit will be the largest in the history of the state fair. Exhibits in the textile department have been arriving at the fair grounds for several days.

Reports received by H. C. Seymour, state club leader, indicated that the boys and girls club activities at this year's fair would include a number of new features. Judging of livestock by the boys and girls club teams will start early in the week and will continue until late Thursday. Canning demonstrations will be held daily with the exception of Saturday.

The two boys and two girls scoring highest in all club work projects at this year's fair will be the guests of E. L. King, superintendent of the Southern Pacific Lines in Oregon, at a banquet aboard his private car on Friday night. Governor Patterson will attend the banquet as will a number of other persons prominent in the state. These boys and girls also will enjoy a week's vacation at Crater Lake Inn next summer as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Price.

Approximately 50 makes of automobiles will be exhibited in the motor vehicle department. These exhibits will include more than 150 models of cars, together with a large and complete display of automobile accessories.

One booth which already is at the finished product is produced, the linen industry in the Willamette Valley. This booth will picture Oregon's new industry in its several stages and show how der of the week.

The racing card is filled and it probably will be necessary to arrange a number of special events to accommodate the horses already on the grounds.

The harness and running events will begin Tuesday afternoon, and continue throughout the remainder of the week.

The half-mile track, which was completed recently, will be used for the first time at this year's fair.

A survey of entries in all departments of the fair indicated that they will exceed those of previous years by more than 20 per cent. This statement was given out here Saturday by Mrs. Ella

Oregon State Fair
OPENS MONDAY MORN
(Continued from Page One)

exhibit as will a number of individuals interested in agriculture. The cattle, sheep and swine barns already are crowded to capacity, it was said, and belated arrivals will have to be accommodated in tents and other temporary structures. The poultry exhibit will be the largest in the history of the state fair. Exhibits in the textile department have been arriving at the fair grounds for several days.

Reports received by H. C. Seymour, state club leader, indicated that the boys and girls club activities at this year's fair would include a number of new features. Judging of livestock by the boys and girls club teams will start early in the week and will continue until late Thursday. Canning demonstrations will be held daily with the exception of Saturday.

The two boys and two girls scoring highest in all club work projects at this year's fair will be the guests of E. L. King, superintendent of the Southern Pacific Lines in Oregon, at a banquet aboard his private car on Friday night. Governor Patterson will attend the banquet as will a number of other persons prominent in the state. These boys and girls also will enjoy a week's vacation at Crater Lake Inn next summer as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Price.

Approximately 50 makes of automobiles will be exhibited in the motor vehicle department. These exhibits will include more than 150 models of cars, together with a large and complete display of automobile accessories.

One booth which already is at the finished product is produced, the linen industry in the Willamette Valley. This booth will picture Oregon's new industry in its several stages and show how der of the week.

The racing card is filled and it probably will be necessary to arrange a number of special events to accommodate the horses already on the grounds.

The harness and running events will begin Tuesday afternoon, and continue throughout the remainder of the week.

The half-mile track, which was completed recently, will be used for the first time at this year's fair.

A survey of entries in all departments of the fair indicated that they will exceed those of previous years by more than 20 per cent. This statement was given out here Saturday by Mrs. Ella

KILLED IN CRASH
SEATTLE, Sept. 24.—(AP)—Mrs. Alma Husby, 35, wife of J. O. Husby, manager of a Seattle manufacturing concern, was killed here tonight when an automobile in which she was riding collided with one driven by Harold Emmons of Portland, Ore. Emmons, Shultz Wilson, secretary.

Members of the state fair board arrived in Salem Friday and later held a meeting at which all plans for the big show were completed. The grounds will be adequately policed and everything will be done for the convenience and protection of visitors.

Follow The Crowds—
—Today—Continuous Show—
Held Over Monday Evening
William Fox presents
Tom Mix
in
The GREAT K & A TRAIN ROBBERY
Tom Shoots, Rides, Lassoes, and Loves in a Breezier Manner Than Ever Before.
ANY SEAT 25c GRAND ANY SEAT 25c

ELSINORE THEATRE

The service staff of West Coast Theatres are selected with great care and are taught to have a high regard for courtesy, tolerance, loyalty and responsibility.

They are taught the importance of discipline, service and self-restraint and understand the responsibility they have because of their personal contact with the public.

TODAY AND TOMORROW
Some Show!

FANCHON-MARCO
Idea "SEASONS"
Featuring THE BERKOFFS Famous Russian Dancers
THE THREE LE GROHS "Sensational Marvels"
JEAN WINSLOW AND WEBBER Delightful Entertainers
AND THE SUNKIST BEAUTIES Those Ravishingly Fascinating Girls

While on the Screen
"NO CONTROL"
HARRISON FORD & PHYLLIS HAVER
ADAPTED BY ZELDA SEARS AND TAY GARNETT
With the Story by FRANK CONDON
Produced by METROPOLITAN PICTURES CORP.

LET'S GO SOME SHOW!
CONTINUOUS TODAY

WEST COAST GREATER MOVIE SEASON
OREGON
WEST COAST GREATER MOVIE SEASON

NOW TODAY
BREAKING RECORDS
House Packed at Every Performance

Wow—Oh Boy!
What A Show
See It.

THE ROUGH RIDERS
A VICTOR FLEMING Production
NOAH BEERY WITH GEORGE BANAGORE
CHARLES FARRELL CHARLES HENNING
MARY ASTOR FRANK HOPPER