G. T. Club Entertained at Tea
Mrs. Albert Girod entertained the G. T. Club Friday afternoon with a tea.

The living rooms were decorated with autumn flowers.

In the group were Pearl Bonney, Patricia Bonney, Lena Taylor, Velma DuBois, Rhea Harris, Juanita Girod, Linda Lee Girod, and the hostess, Mrs. Girod.

Plans were made at the meeting for a holiday banquet.

The next meeting of the club will be held November 2 at the home of Pearl Bonney, 1603 North Commercial Street.

Mrs. Spaulding Entertains Lucy Ann Lee Circle

The Lucy Ann Lee Circle of the First Methodist Church was entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding.

Mrs. F. G. Franklin gave an interesting talk concerning her trip abroad. She spoke particularly of the art work of Michael Angelo, Millet, and Raphael which she saw in Rome.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent sewing on clothes for the babies at the Albertina Kerr Nursery Home in Portland.

Brush College Helpers Have Meeting

Twenty-five members of the Brush College Helpers Club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Z. L. Gibson for their first organized meeting of the fall.

Mrs. Anna Irons and Mrs. Florence Schon, teachers in the Brush College school, were special guests.

Mrs. F. C. Ewing is president of the club for the year and Mrs. E. Hatch is secretary-treasurer.

Plans were made and committees named for the meetings of the winter.

The next meeting of the club will be held in a fortnight at the home of Mrs. Paul B. Wallace.
