Presidents, Past and Future, Honored at Meeting of Woman's Club

Presidents' Day was observed in a very interesting manner at the meeting of the Salem Woman's Club held Saturday afternoon.

Presidents, past and future, and club members representing the various foreign countries interested in the woman's club movement were included in the line which entered the club house as the "President's March" was played by Miss Dorothy Pearce.

Mrs. Isabel Geer, first president of the club, serving from 1901 to 1903, lead the line. She wore a trailing gown of heavy silk with "wasp waist" and puff sleeves. Mrs. Lucia Cusick, next in line, wore a dress of similar mode. Mrs. Russell Catlin who served from 1904-1905 wore a gown of green silk trimmed with rows of lace, and a large "Gibson Girl" hat, the same hat and gown she wore while president of the club. Mrs. W. E. Kirk wore garnet velvet, made in the flowing style of 1905, and a velvet picture hat. Miss Mattie Beatty wore a blue silk dress, made with tight fitting bodice and a gored skirt. Mrs. F. A. Elliott's ensemble was a suit tailored in the fashionable lines in 1912, and Mrs. Alice H. Dodd wore a gown lavishly with Japanese embroidery and a long court train.

Mrs. John H. Albert appeared in a dress of heavy blue silk, one she wore while president of the club in 1918. Mrs. C. C. Clark took her place in the line wearing a Colonial gown of sprigged silk; Mrs. Seymour Jones, a beaded black silk with a "Merry Widow" hat; and Mrs. Fargo, the last of the past presidents, wore a dress typical of those worn by the average American Home woman of the present day.

Future presidents, each appearing in a costume which she deemed would be the fashionable dress of the coming years, were Mrs. A. L. Wallace, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. L. L. Laws, Mrs. E. E. Elliott, Miss Frances Laws, Miss Margaret Hauser, Miss Esther Elliott, and Miss Helen Worth.

Representatives from foreign countries were: Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, England; Mrs. Harry Feldner, France; Mrs. William G. Gilchrist, Jr., Japan; Mrs. Roy Mills, Turkey; Mrs. Paul Hauser, Spain; Mrs. E. C. Cross and Mrs. S. W. Spencer, China; Mrs. Oscar Gingrich, the American Indians; and Mrs. John L. Rand, Austria.
