No-Hostess Luncheon Will Be Served as Feature of Woman's Club Meeting

A no-host luncheon will be served at the Unitarian Church Saturday as a feature of the American Home Institute which will be in session at the clubhouse on that day.

About one hundred and twenty-five ladies can be served at the luncheon and all those who plan to attend are asked to make their reservations with Mrs. F. G. Bowersox at 876 Chemeketa Street, telephone 1164.

The tri-county institute will begin at ten in the morning and will adjourn at 3:45 in the afternoon.

All clubs of Marion, Polk, and Linn counties are invited to attend.

The first hour of the session will be devoted to registration. Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar, chairman of institutes of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, will be in charge.

Miss Mary C. Campbell, Portland insurance specialist of the Oregon Federation, will speak, beginning at ten-fifty o'clock. A vocal solo by Mrs. Harry Harms of Salem will complete the morning program.

The luncheon will be served by the Woman's Alliance at the Unitarian Church at twelve-fifteen o'clock.

Mrs. Lloyd Thompson of Salem will open the afternoon session at one-thirty o'clock with a vocal solo.

Miss Ruth B. Glasgow, director of physical education for women at Oregon State College, Corvallis, will speak on "Hygiene and Positive Health for Women."

Dr. Norman Kendall Tully, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Salem, will speak, beginning at 2:45 on "Ideals of the Home."

Mrs. Rose Hostess at Delightful One O'clock Luncheon

Mrs. George L. Rose was hostess at a delightful one o'clock luncheon Tuesday afternoon in the Chinese Room at the Gray Belle. Covers were placed for fourteen at the luncheon table which was centered with a green bowl of lavender and yellow chrysanthemums and lavender and green tapers.

Later the group enjoyed several hours of bridge at Mrs. Rose's home in the Roberts Apartments. Mrs. L. F. Griffith won high score prize. The second prize was awarded Mrs. Edwin L. Bakker.

This is the first of a series of afternoon affairs which Mrs. Rose has planned for the winter.

Judge Hubbard Celebrates Birthday Anniversary

On November eighth, Judge W. C. Hubbard celebrated his ninety-first birthday anniversary with a family dinner in his home at 467 South Twelfth Street. Covers were placed for Judge and Mrs. W. C. Hubbard, Mrs. J. W. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boock, Vern Boock, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graber, Kenneth Graber, and Melborn Graber.

Eighty years ago, Mr. Hubbard with his brothers and his parents arrived in Oregon after six months of untold hardships experienced while crossing the plains from Illinois.

Mr. Hubbard walked the greater part of the distance and drove the stock. His two brothers, W. S. Hubbard of Seattle and I. W. Hubbard of Salem have died in the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard will observe their sixty-eighth wedding anniversary on November eighteenth. They have fifteen grandchildren and sixteen great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gouley Hosts at Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gouley were hosts at a dinner party last week-end in their attractive country home North of Salem.

Cherrians and Their Ladies Have Attractive Banquet

Cherrians and their ladies enjoyed a banquet Tuesday evening at seven o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium. Covers were placed for one hundred and twenty-five at the dining table which was very attractive with tapers of red, mulberry, and lavender and begonias from Marvyn's flower shop.

Leon Gleason and Lee Canfield were in charge of the entertainment committee.

King Bing O. A. Olson presided at the banquet.

A splendid program was given. The harmony quartet, which consists of Dr. Barriek, Mr. Pearson, Mr. Leach, and Mr. Moritz, gave several numbers.

The Willamette University Orchestra featuring Ruby Curtis, Emily Brown, Clara Jasper, and Katherine Everett, also gave several selections.

Other musical numbers were offered by Woodry's Junior Orchestra. Mrs. F. N. Woodry is director. The members, all of whom are less than fourteen years of age, are: Walter Kieper, drum; Paul Brown, violin; Wallace McClellan and Glenn Woodry, saxophones; and Donald Woodry, banjo. Frank Willard and Glenn Woodry appeared in a feature dance.

E. Cooke Patton performed several "magic mysteries."

Hal Patton was the speaker of the evening. The group sang "America," led by past King Bing Willard McGilchrist, as a closing to the formal program.

Attendance prizes were drawn and special prizes were awarded. These prizes were donated by business men of Salem.

The reception committee included: Mrs. Elmer Dane, Mrs. Leon Gleason, Mrs. E. A. Kurz, and Mrs. O. A. Olson.
