Writer's Club Entertained in Corvallis

The Writer's Section of the Salem Arts League was entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron D. Arnold in Corvallis.

The program opened with a piano number played by Mr. Arnold. Mrs. J. M. Clifford spoke briefly of the literary organizations in Portland in which she is interested. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford are members of the local club as they made their home in Salem until a few years ago.

Mrs. Blanche M. Jones read two poems, "Youth" and "Thoroughfare."

Mrs. Robert C. Paulus gave a talk on the activities in the fruit canning industry. Miss Renka Swart who won third place in the national "Old Ironsides" contest displayed her awards and told a few details of the contest.

Mrs. W. F. Fargo read a bit of blank verse entitled, "Pioneers." Two lyrics were read by Dr. Mary C. Rowland. The original poem, "I Saw an Ancient Woman" was contributed by Professor Morton E. Peck. Mrs. Byron Arnold read a sonnet, "Mother to Daughter."

Silver Cliff P. T. A. Will Give a "Chinese Fair"

A "Chinese Fair" will be given Friday evening at the Silver Cliff school house under the auspices of the Silver Cliff Parent Teachers Association. The proceeds will be used to buy a stove for the kitchen which was built last year.

The fair will include side shows, a "Mandarin fudge" booth, and fortune telling booths.

Chinese noodles will be served. Auburn Woman's Club Will Meet Tomorrow Evening

The Auburn Woman's Club will meet at seven-thirty o'clock Friday evening in the Auburn school house.

An interesting program has been arranged. Refreshments will be served.

Justice Thomas A. McBride Honored on Birthday Anniversary

Justice Thomas A. McBride of the supreme court of Oregon was the honor guest at a banquet given last Saturday evening at the Hotel Benson in Corvallis by A. N. Pierce, manager of the hotel. The occasion marked the fifty-seven years that Justice McBride has practiced law in Oregon, his eightieth birthday anniversary, and also the forty-fourth birthday anniversary of the host.

The banquet was the tenth annual affair of the kind given by Mr. Pierce in honor of Justice McBride.

Dr. R. L. Bosworth of Corvallis acted as toastmaster. Each guest was called upon and responded briefly.
