Members of Marous Club Motor to Independence

Thirteen members of the Marous Club motored to the home of Mrs. Dell Alexander, four miles south of Independence Friday afternoon to honor Mrs. Vida Stapleton of McMinnville who was the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Alexander.

A birthday luncheon was served at one o'clock. Covers were placed for the honor guest, Mrs. Stapleton, Mrs. Minnie Lee Tibbitts, Mrs. Ethel Cooper, Mrs. Daisy Harland, Mrs. Florence Pugh, Mrs. Ada Alkire, Mrs. Elizabeth Barham, Mrs. Margaret Smith, Mrs. Cecil Wenderoth, Mrs. Doris McCarthy, Mrs. M. A. Y. M. Cooper, Mrs. Eleanor Fox, Mrs. Rose Oglesby, Mrs. Orma Handrick, Mrs. Josephine Butts, and the hostess, Mrs. Alexander.

The afternoon was spent with sewing, music, and conversation. The group presented Mrs. Stapleton with a lovely gift as a token of their love and esteem. Mrs. Stapleton is a member of the club, having formerly made her home in Salem.

The next regular club meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon, November 22nd, at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Barham, 1925 North Fourth Street.

Public Invited to Attend Social Hour at Y. W. C. A. This Afternoon

The public is invited to attend the informal "at home" at the Y. W. C. A. from three-thirty to five o'clock this afternoon.

An interesting program of readings and music is being arranged. Tea will be served.

These social affairs will be given regularly on the first and third Sundays of each month.

Telephone Employees Observe Anniversary With Elaborate Banquet

The forty-third anniversary of the local telephone exchange was observed by the employees of the company with an elaborate banquet Monday evening at the Marlborough Hotel.

The four tables were arranged to form the letter "E." Each table had a lovely centerpiece of brilliantly-colored fall flowers and scarlet tapers.

Those seated at the speaker's table were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Aller, Governor and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, Mr. Sam Koser, Mr. and Mrs. U. Scott Page, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson.

Other interesting guests at the banquet were Frank Bowersox, Armin Steiner of Portland, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers (Alice Steiner) and Mrs. I. E. Allen (Addie Bowersox) of Vancouver, Washington, the first telephone operators of the local telephone service.

A number of interesting speeches were given in the evening. Additional entertainment was provided by the Fanchon and Marco entertainers from the Elsinore Theater.

Mr. C. C. Aller, manager of the Salem telephone company, presided as toastmaster.
