The reception will be followed by dancing. The guest group will include all officers of the Oregon National Guard, state and city officials, many officers of the regular service and reserve corps, and prominent men and women from Salem, Portland, and adjoining towns.

The arrangements were in charge of Captain and Mrs. Clifford M. Irwin, Captain and Mrs. Paul F. Burris, and Captain and Mrs. Julius H. Garajobst.

Art Exhibit Will Be Displayed at Parrish Junior High School

The following announcement has been received from Miss Eleanor Barth, a student at Parrish Junior High School:

An art exhibit, sponsored by the Colonial Art Company of Oklahoma will be on display at Parrish Junior High School on December fifth and sixth. The collection of prints, all reproductions of the world's great masterpieces, have been loaned for the purpose of raising money with which to purchase pictures for the school. The admittance fee will be twenty-five cents for adults, and ten cents for school children.

The company is known through out the United States for the excellent exhibits which it puts on. It will be well worth everyone's time to come. A splendid program will be given in the evening in addition to the art exhibit. Included in the program which will begin at eight o'clock will be picture posing with musical accompaniment.

An exhibit will be held in the afternoon from four until five o'clock for those who are unable to attend in the evening.

HARTMAN BROS. COMPANY SIXTH ANNUAL

PROFIT SHARING EVENT

STARTING TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15th — 9:30 A. M.

Gifts of Fashion—Jewelry, Leather Goods, Glassware, Silverware, Pen and Pencil Sets, Toilet Sets, gladly laid aside for Christmas.

Many years have passed since we purchased the jewelry store in Salem from the John G. Barr Estate, but those many years have brought us a great deal of pleasure along with the usual difficulties experienced with every merchandising business. However, our greatest pleasure is now, when we realize how the city has grown to its 28,000 people and the many friends we have made in the communities around Salem reaching many miles away—how our store through earnest efforts and honest dealings has grown right along with the city and surrounding community. Like a corporation declaring a dividend we can now declare a profit sharing event for the benefit of those who have made it possible for us to prosper. Christmas time is the time to be thankful and we know no better time to give our patrons this profit-sharing event than right now when they can save considerable outlay on their Christmas gift buying. We are starting on the above date, perhaps two weeks earlier to have you take advantage of early purchases in less crowded shopping conditions and a wider selection of merchandise.
