

3 GROUPS FORMED OVER THIRD TERM

Question of Coolidge Running Again Still Topic of Discussion

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(AP)—As the time approaches for the opening of the primary election campaigns, the signs point to a division into three groups which presume to interpret President Coolidge's Black Hills statement that he does not choose to run for re-election next year.

All of the groups contend that Mr. Coolidge meant that he desires to leave the White House on March 4, 1929, but at that point agreement ends and speculation begins, in the absence of any authorized indication from the president as to what he thinks about the agitation which his announcement has caused throughout the country.

The first group believes that while Mr. Coolidge's personal wish is to retire, he can, and will be obliged to accept the nomination if it is tendered him.

The second believes that he has taken himself definitely out of the race, and at the proper time will so reveal his position.

The third believes he will not under any circumstances, be a candidate next year, but may, after a four year rest, accept the nomination in 1932 if there is a demand for him then.

Meanwhile, there seems to be no single topic which so much interests White House callers, politicians and the public. Virtually no man whether he is of important or unimportant station, is permitted to leave the White House without subjecting himself to efforts by newspaper men to draw him out on the political situation which has arisen from the president's statement. Most of them decline to comment, at least for publication, and the rest divide themselves into the three groups mentioned.

FRUIT CAN PLAYS CUPID

Name Placed on Can Here Brings Letter From Shropshire

That canneries may play their part in romance is indicated in an incident which recently came to light.

In an idle moment last summer, a young man employed at the Northwest canning company, placed his name and address upon a can of fruit, just before it was placed in the case for shipment.

Some months later, he received a letter from a young lady in Shropshire, England, in which she stated having seen his name on the can, and suggesting that the two correspond, and exchange photographs.

The picture exchange has been consummated to the apparent delight of both parties, and indications are that a meeting is to be arranged, which may lead to a permanent tie.

CAR WOBBLY; FIND "IT"

Tallman Almost Raps Into Officers, They Run Him In

When Merle Tallman failed to keep to his own side of the street Saturday night he let himself in for a peck of trouble.

Officers White and Nicholson were suspicious and gave chase. A search of his car disclosed two pint bottles of alleged "dago red" moonshine liquor and Tallman himself was on the outside of considerable more, according to the officers. He spent the remainder of the night in the city jail, charged with driving while intoxicated and possession of liquor.

The officers were driving south on Commercial street and Tallman was driving north. As the two cars approached each other Tallman left his side of the street and narrowly missed hitting the officers. If it hadn't been for this slip of his steering gear he might have gone merrily on his way.

MCKENZIE PASS - CLEAR

Absolutely No Snow There, Says Member of Highway Body

PORTLAND, Nov. 21.—(AP)—"There is no snow on the McKenzie pass," R. W. Sawyer, state highway commissioner declared here Saturday. "I came over the pass to Portland yesterday and there was no snow on the road."

"A statement was made today that the Oregon stages will discontinue service between Eugene and Bend within a few days as stages have been operating under adverse conditions on account of snow. I repeat, there is no snow on the road."

"The highway department has equipment on the summit of the McKenzie that is capable of moving dry snow four feet deep, and wet snow to a lesser amount. Motorists, therefore, can feel assured that they can travel the McKenzie as long as there is not a greater depth of dry snow than four feet, and of wet snow to a lesser depth. This statement is made in the interest of facts. If the Oregon stages wish to discontinue their runs until spring they can do so, for all I care, but they should not give as an excuse that the snow on the McKenzie pass is responsible."

EARL CATHCART PASSES

Former Husband of Notorious Countess Dies, London

LONDON, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Earl Cathcart, former husband of Vera, Countess Cathcart, died in a London nursing home Saturday after an operation.

Countess Cathcart, whom he divorced in 1922 and who has been seriously ill for several days from a heart affection, had a sudden relapse on being apprised of the earl's death. The Sunday Express says there are grave doubts as to the possibility of her recovery.

Earl Cathcart, who was born in 1862, married in 1919, Vera, daughter of the late John Fraser, of Capetown. He divorced her in 1922, the correspondent in the suit being the Earl of Craven. The countess was excluded from entry into the United States in 1926 on the grounds of "moral turpitude" but eventually was admitted.

IMPROVING SCHOOLS

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT PLEASED WITH RESULTS

Numerous improvements have been noted in public schools throughout Marion county by Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, county superintendent of schools, during the course of her trips of inspection in various districts within the last few days. A number of these were recounted late yesterday by Mrs. Fulkerson.

A new building and equipment have been built at Valley View, where the school burned down a few days before Christmas last year. Some $2700 has been expended for the new establishment, this amount having been collected as insurance on the old building.

A model school has been built up at Silver Cliff, where there are 14 pupils instructed by one teacher. A kitchen has been built adjoining the school room, and students bring materials with them for hot meals at noon. "The teacher just stepped out into the kitchen a few minutes shortly before noon. Then she came back in and instruction went on as usual. And at noon we had hot soup for lunch."

"Yes, indeed, I had some along with the rest." The schools at Mt. Angel have become very crowded, Mrs. Fulkerson declares.

Schools at Roberts, Pleasant Point and Salem Heights have all arranged to construct play sheds for the children this year.

At Scotts Mills the school rooms now "look among the nicest I've ever seen," Mrs. Fulkerson states. The class rooms have been freshly kalsomined and tinted, and new fixtures have been installed.

At Pruitland the school yard, which was formerly thickly dotted with mud holes, has been given a coat of fine gravel.

WEDDING LINDSEY TYPE

Daughter of E. Haldeman-Julius Enters Companionate Union

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Kansas City newspapers Sunday morning quoted an announcement by E. Haldeman-Julius, publisher of Girard, Kansas, of the contemplated marriage in "companionate union" of his daughter, Josephine, 18, and Aubrey Roselle, 20, a sophomore at the University of Kansas.

The young couple will continue living their lives after the ceremony just as they have lived previously, until after they have determined whether they are entirely suited to each other in every way, said the announcement.

Mr. Haldeman-Julius was quoted as saying that if the couple find they are suited to each other, they will begin living together, and if they are not, the divorce court will be resorted to. The ceremony will take place Thanksgiving day at the Haldeman-Julius home in Girard.

PHARMACIST KILLED

THE DALLES, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Harold T. Gabel, 31, local pharmacist, died Saturday at a hospital from injuries received when his automobile collided with a truck on a curve of the Columbia highway.

1928 License Free with every used car until Christmas. This is a Special Holiday Offer. Our low prices remain the same.

Experienced motorists know there is big value in a good used car. The extra value in Buick motor cars is the big reason why so many people buy them. It never has been necessary to add an extra $100 or so to fair used car allowances to get people to take new Buicks. Consequently we do not need to collect those extra hundreds from people who buy the used cars from us. You save money when you buy your used car from a Buick dealer. His prices are right! His word is as good as gold money!
