A LITTLE TE DEUM OF THE COMMONPLACE

For that high glory of the impartial sun;
The matchless pageant of the evening skies;
The sweet soft gloaming and the friendly stars;
The vesper stillness and the creeping shades;
The moon's pale majesty; the pulsing dome,
Wherein we feel thy great heart throbbing near;
For sweet laborious days and restful nights;
For work to do, and strength to do the work;
We thank Thee, Lord!

Cadman Club Will Sing Program of Unusual Distinction in Salem Tomorrow

The Salem music-loving public is anticipating with considerable pleasure the second MacDowell club program of the 1927-28 season which will take place tomorrow night in the Nelson Auditorium. The program at this time will be a courtesy-concert by the Cadman club of Portland.

Of special interest will be the assisting piano numbers which Mrs. C. Ralf Miller, talented pianist, will play during the evening. Many will remember Mrs. Miller's former successful appearance in Salem when she assisted Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn on the evening of her delightful costume recital, last spring. This year Mrs. Rahn is president of the Salem MacDowell club.

The interesting program which has been arranged for tomorrow night includes the following numbers:

Piano—
Prelude in C. Minor..... Bach
Two piano arrangement..... Bauer
Mrs. Charles A. Fowler
Mrs. C. Ralf Miller

Contra-
"Wie ich nicht ein Heim auf
Wiesengrund?" Tschalkowsky
"Wegenteil"..... Tschalkowsky
The Gift Supreme..... Smith
Mrs. C. W. Yielding

Soprano—
The Nightingale..... Ward-Stephens
Life..... Curran
Mrs. W. T. Harrison

Entre Nous Club is Entertained on Wednesday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. William Moses and Mrs. Albert Ramseyer were hosts on Wednesday evening for the members of the Entre Nous club and their friends, at the club house.

Nine tables of five hundred were in play during the first part of the evening. High scores were won by Mrs. Harry Smart and Ralph Howard. Mrs. Francis Allen and Herman Hummel won second places. The guest prizes of the evening went to Mrs. C. E. Anderson and Rex Turner.

At 11 o'clock a Thanksgiving supper was served by the hostesses followed by dancing.

Members of the club present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smart, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hummel, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hampshire, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bassett, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. William Moses and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ramseyer.

The guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Lois Tumbleton, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ramseyer, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ramseyer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rock, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smart of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Turner of Seattle, Miss Rachel Howard, and Miss Constance Smart.

The regular meetings of the Entre Nous club opened in October.

Dr. and Mrs. Matthis Are Dinner Hosts

Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Matthis entertained a group of out-of-town guests at a delightful Thanksgiving dinner at their home on Thursday. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Boeckes, Miss Laura Boeckes, Henry C. Boeckes, and John H. Boeckes, all of Amity; Mr. and Mrs. George D. Wood and daughter, Maxine, of McMinnville, and Miss Clara Smith of Newberg.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Porter Celebrate Golden Wedding on Thanksgiving

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Porter as well as the 77th birthday anniversary of Mr. Porter, was celebrated in an elaborate manner on Thanksgiving Day in Aumsville, at the school house.

The entire affair, which was a complete surprise to the honor guests, was planned by Mr. and Mrs. Porter's only child, Mrs. Claude Boone of Aumsville.

The school house was beautifully decorated with many baskets of golden chrysanthemums, one particularly gorgeous basket coming as a gift from Mr. Brister of Eugene.

More than 200 friends and relatives were guests for the Thanksgiving and wedding anniversary celebration, each family bringing a filled basket.

Rev. R. L. Putnam of La Grande, formerly of Salem, read the impressive double-ring ceremony which reunited the couple at the end of fifty years.

At the dinner table, Mrs. R. L. Putnam, also an ordained minister, gave a prayer of unusual beauty and sincerity.

Mrs. Tartar is Hostess for Englewood Community Club

The Englewood Community club was entertained on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Tartar, 1325 N. Nineteenth street.

Mrs. Collier led in the devotions.

Mrs. Ellen A. Fisher led in a spirited discussion "Housekeeping and Homemaking Which is More Important? Things we can do without. Simplicity—economy of time and strength."

Miss Plummer sang two numbers "Moon Dear," by Hahn and "My Dearie," by Huester. She was accompanied by Miss Harmer.

A Thanksgiving story was told by Mrs. E. C. Race.

This delightful program was followed by a social hour during which refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Legge Entertain With Thanksgiving Dinner

One of the most festive Thanksgiving Day dinners of the holiday season was that of Thursday at which Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Legge entertained at their home on State Street. The rooms were lovely with baskets of yellow chrysanthemums.

The guests were seated around a circular table where covers were marked for: Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Dr. and Mrs. Laban Steeves and sons, Richard and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Legge of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Morse and daughter, Josephine, and Sarah Caroline, of Vancouver, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Griffith and daughter, Margaret Claire, of Eugene, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Legge.

Mrs. Hale and Daughters are Hostesses at Dinner

Mrs. Alma Hale and her daughters, the Misses Laura and May Hale, were hostesses at an exceedingly delightful Thanksgiving dinner on Thursday at their home. Lovely bowls and baskets of pink and white chrysanthemums decorated the rooms and the table. Green candles burned on the dinner table where covers were placed for: Mr. and Mrs. George McLaughlin of Buena Vista, Miss Grace Taylor, Mrs. Josephine Taylor, Mrs. Metta Schramm, and the hostesses, Mrs. Hale and the Misses Hale.

STUDENTS ARE COMPANIONATE MARRIAGE PRINCIPALS

An 18 year old high school girl and a 19 year old college student were principals in Kansas' first companionate marriage. The bride was Miss Josephine Haldeman-Julius, daughter of E. Haldeman-Julius, publisher of Girard, Kas. The groom was Aubrey Clay Roselle, son of a Girard creamery owner. "If the union proves satisfactory and love continues, an ordinary marriage will follow," says the bride's father. Photos show the bride and groom.

Salem Woman Appointed to Fill Vacancy

Gratifying is the interest that is being taken by the various clubs throughout the state in the Oregon Federation News, reports S. J. Lynch, the magazine's business manager. Many new 100 cent subscriptions and renewals to the News have come in.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott of Salem, has been appointed chairman of the division of conservation to fill the vacancy left by the death of Mrs. L. Busey of La Grande. Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp of Eugene will succeed Miss Anna Hall of Pendleton as chairman of library and extension for the State Federation of Women's Clubs. Miss Hall has gone to California for her health.

One Hundred Couples Attend Senior Ballet Dance Thanksgiving Evening

Thanksgiving evening was made especially festive for the young folk when the members of Mrs. Ralph White's senior ballet class chose this occasion for a colorful formal dance.

"The Beggar's Opera," a Gay Musical Play, Will Come to Salem December 27

Salem society will revel in the news that "The Beggar's Opera" will be brought to Salem—to the Elsinore—on Tuesday, December 27.

Since "The Beggar's Opera" is one of the immortal "classics" of the English stage, the delight of the Salem townspeople over this news will doubtless be great.

"The Beggar's Opera" is one of the immortal "classics" of the English stage, the delight of the Salem townspeople over this news will doubtless be great.

The version of the play which will be presented in Salem next month is the one Arnold Bennett edited, with interesting new embellishments by Frederick Austin. A ten-piece orchestra accompanies the players.

It has been said, in print and out, that no gentlemen's library should be without, and no education can be said to be "liberal" that does not include at least a passing acquaintance with "The Beggar's Opera."

Miss Emma Christensen Will Be December Bride

The betrothal of Miss Emma Christensen, sister of Mrs. Chas. H. Vick, and Mr. Richard Anderson of Seattle, brother of Rev.
