

Premier Fight Program of the Season Lined Up For Wednesday Night

BROTHER OF MAIN EVENTER ON CARD

Maxie Peiz, Benny's young brother, will meet Salem's tough middleweight, Gar Wattenberger, in the six-round semi-wind-up on Wednesday's card, it was announced yesterday by Matchmaker Plant.

Maxie will have his hands full against his Salem opponent, just as Benny is expected to meet his match in Bayes in the main event.

The four round special event will find Eddie Graham and Patsy Cohen in a return bout. Eddie earned a draw with Cohen in the main event of an Albany card two weeks ago.

With the biggest fight of his career against Newsboy Brown, the famous New York bantam, in Portland just six days after his battle here, Peiz will have an added incentive to lay the local batter low as quickly as possible.

Bayes figures that he defeated Peiz once and can do it again to boot himself into the limelight for bigger stuff. Never has Bayes prepared himself more carefully for a bout. Bayes has looked forward to this match a long time, and the chance to make it two to one against Peiz is mighty attractive to him.

Whatever the result, fans are in for a session of bloody battle. Peiz is a fighter who gets angered easily, and then he is like a bull, throwing caution to the wind and sailing into his opponent with murderous blows. And when Bayes gets his ire up, he's no lamb either.

Plant is anxious that his Salem patrons get in on some of the good seats before they are taken by out-of-town fans, and urges immediate reservations. The ducaats can be procured at Adolph's Cigar store. Several additional seats will be placed in the armory early in the week.

Two other preliminary bouts are being arranged.

CONFERENCE MEET DELAYED ONE WEEK

The northwest conference meeting probably will not be held until December 10, it was announced yesterday by President Frank M. Erickson.

A number of the schools have expressed a desire to delay the meeting until after the Coast conference holds its session so that the available dates with the big schools are known when the football schedule is drawn.

Most of the northwest conference teams schedule one or two games with Coast conference teams, mostly early in the season. A definite date for the meeting will be announced next week.

HOOPMEN ACTIVE Y. M. C. A. FLOOR

A series of basket ball games were played Thursday night at the Y. M. C. A. The Tigers, under the direction of Robert Brownell, defeated the Orecons, captured by Phil Brownell. Irving Hales "Wildcat" defeated Fred Hageman's "Comrades" by a score of 15 to 6. The Presbyterian church team defeated the Evangelical church team by a score of 14 to 1.

Friday night the Dorms defeated the Oregon Pulp & Paper Co. team by a score of 11 to 8. This was the first appearance for the paper company team and they made a wonderful showing.

DRAKE BEATS LOS ANGELES

COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Drake's football team of Des Moines, Iowa, found itself holding a 9 to 0 score for the first half of its game with University of California at Los Angeles today, then turned around in the third and fourth periods and plastered the Bruins with a final tally of 25 to 6.

The Bruins, who will graduate next season from the Southern California conference into the faster company of the Pacific coast circuit, staked and lost on long passes. Drake mixed an aerial attack with vicious line plunges to upset the U. C. LA outfit.

TITLE GAME SET

The date for the football game between Parrish junior high school and Independence junior high school for the Willamette valley title has been tentatively set for Saturday, December 1. An effort was made to line up the game for yesterday but it was unsuccessful.

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 26.—(Special)—A fine display of ducks and geese from Tule lake, south of Oregon, is to be seen in the show windows of the K. L. Williams store. Glen Hiltbrandt and L. E. Haselton were the successful hunters, making a record day's haul.

DEFEAT MUTH SCHOOL The South Salem Friends church comrades club defeated the Muth school boys by a score of 25 to 10 yesterday. The comrades players are D. Dashi, O. Sinek, C. Harmon, L. Wright, and H. Kins. Substitutes were E. Houlster and B. Laha.

COLORADO AGGIES CHAMPS COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 26.—(AP)—Colorado Agricultural college won the championship of the Rocky mountain conference by defeating Colorado college 26 to 6 here today.

Gradual Revival of Football at Willamette to Bear Fruit in 1928 GETS HIS BIG CHANCE

This, needless to say, is Phil Bayes, who will meet the toughest competition Salem fans have ever seen him watched against, when he enters the ring Wednesday night against Benny Peiz. Bayes is a local boy who through his gameness and square dealing has always enjoyed the whole hearted support of the fans here, and that support will be with him in his efforts Wednesday night at the armory.

FOOTBALL SCORES

At Portland: Carnegie Tech. 14; Oregon State 14. (Tie). At New York: Army 14; Navy 9. At Chicago: Notre Dame 7; Southern California 6. At Spokane: Gonzaga 13; Idaho 0. At San Francisco: St. Mary's 22; Santa Clara 0. At Colorado Springs: Colorado Aggies 20; Colorado college 7. At Boston: Boston college 6; Holy Cross 0. At Los Angeles: Drake 25; U. of California at Los Angeles 6.

MAY DELAY CALL FOR HOOP SQUAD

Whether Coach Louis Anderson issues the call for the first basketball turn-out at Salem high school Monday night depends upon action of the student body to hold inter-class football competition this week. If the classes decide to go ahead with the grid program, official basketball practice probably will be deferred until the latter part of the week.

Homer Lyons is at work lining up the schedule for the hoopsters this season. Not so many games will be played this year as last, when the players were practically fed up on basketball before the state tournament.

COLLEGES ASKED TO SEND TEAMS

Nine universities and colleges will be invited to send volleyball teams to Salem some time in January to participate in a tournament under auspices of the Salem Business Men's League. It was announced yesterday by Robert Boardman, physical director of the Y. M. C. A.

The institutions invited are University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural college, Willamette university, Pacific university, Pacific college, Linfield college, Albany college, Reed college, and the Oregon Institute of Technology. Many of them have already accepted. The teams will be made up either of students or faculty members, whichever the schools prefer.

Each participating school will be required to defray its own expenses to Salem, but they will be entertained here. A big banquet will follow the tournament.

PENALTIES COST HOLY CROSS TILT

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Penalties today cost the decision to Holy Cross in the twenty fifth annual football encounter with Boston college, six to nothing. Set back to her one foot line by two reprimands for unnecessary roughness when Murphy, Boston's kick left end blocked Ryan's kick behind the goal and Warren McGurk, Boston college right tackle, fell on the ball for a touchdown. Boston college lost a chance to gain the extra point by dallying over the line for the kick.

DEFEAT MUTH SCHOOL The South Salem Friends church comrades club defeated the Muth school boys by a score of 25 to 10 yesterday. The comrades players are D. Dashi, O. Sinek, C. Harmon, L. Wright, and H. Kins. Substitutes were E. Houlster and B. Laha.

COLORADO AGGIES CHAMPS COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 26.—(AP)—Colorado Agricultural college won the championship of the Rocky mountain conference by defeating Colorado college 26 to 6 here today.

GONZAGA BULLDOGS DEFEAT VANDAL 11

SPOKANE, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The 1927 football season ended in a blue blaze of glory for Gonzaga university here today when the Bulldogs upset the dope and swamped the University of Idaho Vandals 13 to 0.

"Fanny" Hunting, the Gonzaga quarterback, played a spectacular game, ably seconded by Ralls, the Bulldog left back.

Hunting's punts gained enormous yardage and Ralls' passes were accurate and lengthy. Hunting carried over both the Gonzaga touchdowns, the first in the second period when he took Ralls' forward pass across the Vandal goal line. Another forward pass by Ralls in the final period put the ball on the Idaho one-foot line and Hunting took it over again. Ralls converted the extra point.

The Bulldogs were close on the ball throughout the game, quick to recover the Idaho breaks and to take full advantage of them.

LEAGUE GIVES PROGRAM

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 26.—(Special)—The Girls' League of the Independence high school gave a program Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Clarke of the Presbyterian church gave a short address to the students, and musical selections were offered by the girls' quartet and school ensemble. Yell practices were also held.

HOOP CANDIDATES OUT

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 26.—(Special)—Sixteen girls are trying out for the Independence high school girls' basketball team, and a fairly good team is in prospect. Uniforms of black, maroon and gold color scheme have been ordered.

UPHOLDERS OF WOMEN'S RIGHTS ON THE GRIDIRON

Here is one of the two grid teams of Colorado Teachers' College of Greeley, Colo., which will meet in the first girls' football game ever to be played in the west. The fair co-eds are completely outfitted for the fray and ready to take the spring and autumn and all other hard knocks of the ho-man game. The young lady who has just gotten rid of a punt is Captain Le Fèvre of one of the teams.

ANDERSON TO ISSUE DEFY TO WEST LINN

Provoked at West Linn's claim to the state title on the basis of a season of victories over allegedly mediocre teams, Coach Louis Anderson, of Salem high school, will tomorrow issue a challenge to that school for a football game either here or there next Saturday.

West Linn has repeatedly sidestepped games with Salem in past years, lined up contests against teams easily beaten, and then loudly voiced a claim to the state title, pointing to an unbeaten record. This year, according to Anderson, efforts were made to schedule West Linn without success.

If the challenge is not accepted, Anderson believes that West Linn's claim will appear as hollow as it actually is.

Only four men, Temple, half-back; Lyons, center; Jones, tackle, and Dolby, guard, will be lost to the Salem high school football squad by graduation next June.

Big Temple of triple threat ability, and one of the ablest broken field runners in Oregon high schools, was probably the most valuable man on the Red and Black team this fall, but he will not be as hard to replace as Lyons and Jones on the line, for there are plenty of good backfield men left.

Johnny George probably will be called upon to fill the important center berth. George gained in ability all season, and should be a valuable man next fall. Promising tackles to replace the ranks are Greighton Jones and Homer Smith.

Close followers of the game declare that the team this year was equal to any Salem team of the past, but with the change in coaches, and a tough early season game, it developed slowly. The aggregation that played Harrisburg and Hood River could have held its own with any team in the state.

For at least two seasons, Salem has made the mistake of scheduling a tough game early in the season. Two years ago, Grant won 6 to 0, and this season, Benson romped over the red and black for a sizable score victory. An effort will be made next year to schedule lighter games to start on and gradually work up to the stiffer competition.

Seven teams have indicated willingness to be called state high school football title holders. They are Grant high, Medford, McLaughlin high, The Dalles, Tillamook, West Linn, and Lebanon. Only three have any legitimate claim to the honor, Grant, McLaughlin, and Medford. These three have powerful aggregations, and have not been defeated this year. Whether or not a post season game will be played between Grant and either McLaughlin or Medford depends upon the state association, and Grant's willingness to play. On paper Medford appears to be the greatest of them all.

Short, snappy line crashes by Luby, half, and Maple, quarter, rushed the ball to the Carnegie six yard line, Whitlock, Aggie half back, then playing end, scored on a deceptive double lateral pass from Maple to Twichell, Carnegie tried in vain to advance the ball but could not break the deadlock.

Carnegie had the distinct edge over the Oregon team in yardage

MIGHTY ATTACK OF ELI BACKS OVERCOMES HARVARD

Succumbing to the strong attack of the Yale backs at Cambridge, Mass., Harvard chalks up another defeat, 14-0. Picture shows Cox of Yale trying for a field goal, which failed.

AGGIES BATTLE WITH CARNEGIE TECH TEAM

(Continued from Page One)

although Carnegie had the advantage over the State college in yards gained and on the exchange of punts. The Pittsburgh team penetrated to the Oregon 17 yard mark where Letzelter, full back, attempted a place kick, but failed. The Oregonians smothered every advance, although the Carnegie team made considerable yardage, particularly on Harpster's passes to English and on the sprints through tackle and around end by Stauffer, substitute for Moorhead. Carnegie rushed to the Oregon Aggie 21 yard line near the end of the half, but lost the ball on downs when a sturdy line halted both line plays and passes.

Carnegie's second score came at the opening of the last half when Harpster's splendidly placed boots forced the Stalers back close to their own goal line. It came on a rapid and powerful drive down the field from the State 43 yard mark. Here again the dashes of Stauffer and Harpster's passes were features of the advance.

The Oregonians were penalized 15 yards for roughing, placing the ball on their own four yard line, and from there, Harpster rammed through for the score.

To this time, the eastern eleven had outplayed the westerners to a great measure and it appeared victory was well in their grasp.

But it was at this point that the Oregonians launched the most sustained offensive of the game and smashed over their second touchdown to knot the count at 14-14. The movement started on the Aggie 35 yard line when Maple, quarter, passed to Twichell for 11 yards, and a first down on the Aggie 46 yard line. On a lateral pass, Twichell, half, circled end for 16 yards. Carnegie was then penalized 15 yards for roughing, giving the State team first down on the tartans 20 yard line.

Short, snappy line crashes by Luby, half, and Maple, quarter, rushed the ball to the Carnegie six yard line, Whitlock, Aggie half back, then playing end, scored on a deceptive double lateral pass from Maple to Twichell, Carnegie tried in vain to advance the ball but could not break the deadlock.

Carnegie had the distinct edge over the Oregon team in yardage

Trojans Lose to Notre Dame by Just One Point

BY CHARLES W. DUNKLEY (Associated Press Sports Writer)

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—

The Trojans from the University of Southern California, coming out of the west defeated, lost a heart-breaking one-point football game to Notre Dame on Soldier field this afternoon, 7 to 6, before 113,000 spectators, the greatest throng that ever witnessed a gridiron struggle in America.

The victory was a repetition of the Notre Dame triumph of a year ago when Rockne's ramblers matched a 13-12 victory over the Trojans at Los Angeles.

U. S. C. Scores Early

The Trojans, in a smashing irresistible attack, scored early in the first period with Captain Morley Drury, their brilliant quarterback and candidate for All-American honors, tossing a forward pass to Russell Saunders that resulted in the touchdown. When Drury sent his toe crashing against the ball in an attempt to add the extra point, Chilly Walsh, the Notre Dame right end, hurled himself against the ball and blocked it, giving Notre Dame the break it needed.

A few minutes later in the same period Notre Dame found its chance to score, opened up with its aerial shots and tossed a pass across the goal line with Charley Riley, the little quarterback, heaving the ball to Ray Dahman. Then with the Notre Dame line holding like a stonewall Dahman stepped back and successfully booted a drop kick for the added point, giving Notre Dame its edge, and finally, victory.

Lineup Shifts Numerous Thereafter for the remaining three periods, the fighting Notre Dame team with frequent shifts in the lineup, set up a defense that held the coast invaders in check, stopped the running attack of Drury, and twice nipped surges that threatened their goal line.

Individually the game resulted in a thrilling offensive battle between Drury and Christy Flanagan, Notre Dame's great halfback. Flanagan, playing his last game for Notre Dame, overshadowed all his previous sensational performances, splitting the line with his powerful thrusts and shooting around the ends for long gains. In the first stages of the battle, Flanagan, faking backward passes, smashed through the Trojans' forward wall repeatedly.

Drury Great Star. Drury, a combination of Red

Grange, Herb Foesting and Bennie Friedman, a little bit of each, carried the brunt of the Southern Californians' attack playing himself almost to the point of exhaustion. Drury, carrying the ball four out of five plays in the first half, spent his strength before three periods were finished. He missed the aid of Harry Edelson and Don Williams in edging the ball. Edelson was forced out of the game because of injuries and Williams was left home in California, nursing injuries.

Southern California's touchdown was the culmination of a thrilling 25 yard dash by Drury around right end. He planted the ball on Notre Dame's six yard line, before he was upset. Then Edelson hit center for three yards, and Notre Dame took time out to think over this sudden thrust. Drury bounded into left tackle for a yard, and then smashed into center, losing a few inches. With the Notre Dame line stiffened, Drury ran back and tossed a long pass to Saunders, who grabbed the ball as he raced across the line.

Try For Goal Fails

Drury's attempt to add the extra point, however, was a failure, with the Notre Dame players swiftly charging into the kick, and with Walsh successfully blocking it. After the coast invaders scored, Coach Rockne immediately dispatched his first string backfield into the game, with Flanagan, Dahman and Riley taking up the burden.

The lineup and summary: Southern Cal. 6. Notre Dame 7. MacCaslin LE. Voedich RB. Hibbs LT. Miller LG. Anthony LG. Smith C. Barringer C. Fredericks Heiser RG. Leppie Scheving RT. Polisky Tappan RE. Walsh Drury Q. Riley Saunders LH. Dahman L. Thomas RH. Flanagan Edelson P. Wynone

Score by periods: Notre Dame 7 0 0 0-7 Southern Calif. 6 0 0 0-6

Notre Dame scoring: Touchdown, Dahman. Point after touchdown, Dahman. Southern California scoring: Saunders.

Officials: Referee, Varnell (Chicago); Umpire, Schommer (Chicago); field judge, Griffith (Iowa); head linesman, Eckersall, (Chicago).

Score by periods: Carnegie Tech. 7 0 7 0-14 Oregon State 7 0 0 7-14

Scoring: Carnegie Tech., touchdowns, Moorhead, Harpster. Try for point after touchdown, Letzelter 2. Oregon State, touchdown, Easman, Whitlock. Try for point after touchdown, Whitlock 2.

Officials: Robert Evans, San Francisco, referee; Bill Mulligan, Spokane, umpire; Euden Jones, Portland, field judge; W. S. Higgins, Spokane, head linesman.

Sport Ritticisms by BILL RITT

Dempsey says the radio makes him a little nervous. What self-control it drives us crazy.

A horse race was held last night in France. The dispatch didn't say what make flashlights the jockeys used to see who was ahead.

Many a football team has found out that in playing weaker teams it developed an inferiority complex.

"What we need to win," says a noted coach, "is faith." Yes, and eleven doggone good football players.

Football star becomes wrestler. From the sublime to the ridiculous.

President Coolidge thinks Gene Tunney looks more like a movie actor than a boxer. We wonder what Gene Tunney thinks Coolidge looks more like than a president.

It's still winter as long as the newspapers don't say somebody is a holdup.

Plans have been prepared by the city engineer and the chamber of commerce committee for the first of several public landings for the Astoria waterfront.

SOPHOMORES STARS OF RECENT SEASON

Football at Willamette university, under the direction of Ray E. (Spec) Keene, is due to reach a new high level next season.

There is more reason for this prediction than the bare fact that athletics at the local institution have made steady progress since Keene took charge a little over a year ago, after several extremely lean years.

The outstanding thing about the season just past, successful but not phenomenal, was that Keene's team was built around a group of sophomores—Cranor, McKenzie, French and Lang.

French fell out of this combination when his arm was broken, but he will be on hand next year to take a leading role in the backfield combination. McKenzie will not return, as he plans to take a course that is not offered at Willamette, but the others will be back, along with some who did important service although they were not outstanding; Houk and Ruch, for examples.

This group of sophomores came to Willamette at the same time that Keene took charge; that is the significant point. They are the result to date of his administration of the athletic department.

Exceptional have been the players remaining from a previous regime who have made their mark this year; Mort, Woodworth, Mumford and Winslow are the only ones who took part in any considerable number of games, although Zeller would be included in this list except for injuries.

There was a promising group of freshmen on the squad this year, several of whom achieved regular berths on the eleven, but with the increased speed of Northwest conference play, freshmen cannot be expected to carry a major share of the burden. With this year's experience behind them, the DeFoe brothers, Haldeane, Rogers, Deetz, Eaton, Ackerman and Cardinal will be the equals next season of the four sophomores who bore the brunt of the fray in the season just ended.

Another encouraging factor this year has been the scholarship of the football men. All of them are serious students, in college for an education and not primarily to play football. This is in contrast to a large number of those who enrolled in Keene's first year, lured to Willamette by the indications of a revival of athletics. The real sign of this in that group were the men who as sophomores set the pace on the gridiron this year.

The season just ended saw another step in advance above that which Keene achieved his first year. In 1926, Willamette regained the ascendancy over its old rival, Pacific university. That ascendancy was held in 1927, and in addition, Willamette broke the "jinx" which College of Puget Sound had seemed to hold, even though the game was only a tie.

Although defeated by College of Idaho and Whitman, the Bearcats were not outclassed by either of them, and predictions are freely made that the results of Keene's program will bear fruit in one more year, even to the extent of topping the two elevens that have headed the conference since its reorganization.

ST. MARY'S TEAM BEATS SANTA CLARA

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—St. Mary's college romped to a 22 to 0 victory over Santa Clara university today, swamping its gridiron rival of 31 years under an effective aerial attack and sterling line play.

A crowd estimated at 15,000 persons saw St. Mary's score a touchdown three minutes after the kickoff. Miller, left half for Santa Clara fumbled and Franklan, end, recovered for St. Mary's on the five yard line. Driscoll, quarterback, carried the ball over but Ackerman failed to convert.

Franklin, playing an outstanding game, counted the other touchdowns for St. Mary's by natching two 25 yard passes from Simas. One came in the second period when he caught the ball on the Clara's goal line and stepped off into scoring turf. In the third quarter, the St. Mary's final score came from a safety when Tobin blocked Falk's kick and the Santa Clara quarterback fell on the ball behind his own goal line.

Alaskan Monoplane Long Overdue At Northern City

JUNEAU, Alaska, Nov. 26.—(AP)—A dispatch to the Empire from Skagway, Alaska, said that the Ryan monoplane "Spirit of the Yukon," carrying Major A. D. Cruikshank, Canadian pilot, and a messenger, was long overdue at May, Y. T. from White Horse.

The plane, with a five hour gasoline supply, left White Horse yesterday on the 300 mile journey.