Police Continue Fight Against Rival Forces in Chicago

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Reports of an armistice between two factions of rival Chicago gangsters fighting for control of gambling and bootlegging did not deter the police today from continuing their war against both factions.

More than fifty men arrested last night when squads of detectives invading the boxing match at the coliseum in search of gang suspects, were in jail today and were likely to remain there until Monday despite strenuous efforts of some of them to gain their liberty.

The police said they would give all the alleged gangster a "chance to cool off" and did not intend to book any of them until the first of the week unless it became necessary to do so to hold them in custody.

While the reports of the armistice were being broadcast, the quiet of the past two weeks, the target in each case being a gambling house. Police were attempting to determine whether the bombings were the result of gang warfare or labor troubles.

would be otherwise possible, the financing that was not completed originally. The stock was not all subscribed, and the company never had the capital that was intended.

None of the bonds will be sold until the amount necessary to pay in full for the plant as it stands is subscribed; that amount is $75,000. Of this, all but approximately $15,000 is in sight. The remainder is due to some principally from Salem stockholders, and when it is provided, Mr. Kay has explained, there will be no necessity for an additional call upon the stockholders.

part of councilmen is being expressed at the recommendations of the ways and means committee in dealing with the budget. Some are hinting that salary increases will be sought for the police and the firemen. Others indicate that taxes are already too high, and as long as men can be secured to fill the city's posts at the salaries now offered, they should not be increased. Most of the councilmen, however, appear to favor increasing the salary of City Recorder Mark Paulsen, who has served several years at $150 per month, while other departments, similar in importance and responsibility have received increases.

Alderman Hal Patton said last night that he would seek an amount of $1500 property to care for the city rest rooms during the coming year.

(AP)—A twenty three year old youth made an attempt against the life of Karl Seitz, mayor of Vienna today. Several shots were fired at the mayor, but all missed their mark, and the youth, whose name is Strabinger, was arrested. He declared he was not a socialist but had been without employment, and planned to kill Seitz, who in addition to being mayor, is a former president of the Austrian national assembly, and one of the signatories of the 1919 peace treaty.

Mayor Seitz who is a socialist, took active measures in suppressing the riots in Vienna last July.

Attempt Made To Avert Extinction of Salmon

SEATTLE, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Draconic regulations designed to avert threatened extinction of salmon in southeastern Alaska have been announced here by Henry W. O'Malley, United States commissioner of fisheries.

The feature of the new regulations is an order closing all bays, estuaries and passages of southeastern Alaska to fish traps. In addition, the regulations, to be announced from Washington, D. C., on December 10, will effect a reduction of the length and depth of purse seines. The maximum length, now 250 fathoms, will be reduced to 200, while the depth now 300 three and one-half inch meshes will be reduced to 250 such meshes. A spring "opening date" before which all salmon fishing will be prohibited is also to be set.

Thomas Edison Attends Showing of Own Machine

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Nov. 26.—(AP)—The wizard of West Orange was here last night and heard himself as others see and hear him. Thomas A. Edison, attending the first showing of a talking movie of his recent radio interview, sat back in his chair, watching and listening, as the film flashed his likeness on the screen and as a radio loudspeaker changed into words and sentences the tiny lines impressed on the celluloid by his voice.

The picture was the work of the General Electric company, which showed it to the inventor in his laboratory. Only members of the Edison household and a few friends were present.

ADOPTS HUSE OF AVOIDING BOURBON NOMINATIONS

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The New York American will say tomorrow that Tammany Hall leaders, acting on express orders from Governor Alfred E. Smith, have temporarily abandoned negotiations with democratic spokesmen from other states to promote the governor's nomination for the presidency on the democratic ticket.

The Tammany representatives assert that prominent democrats from many states have called to offer their support to Smith, the American will say, but the governor has refused to receive the visiting delegations. He has informed Tammany leaders, the article will assert, that he will not talk about the presidential nomination nor do anything to influence the next democratic national convention.

The American will say that a delegation of Michigan democrats came to see Governor Smith a few days ago, seeking permission to place his name on the ticket in the Michigan primary.

"The governor courteously but firmly declined to see the visitors," the American quotes its Tammany informant as saying. "He said word that he would not consent to have his name on the primary ballot in Michigan or elsewhere."

The delegation replied that since their state laws did not require the consent of the candidate for use of his name, they would "go back home and put Smith's name on the ballot."

Mr. Vanderbilt, Jr., lost a fortune in tabloid publication ventures.

He had a large fortune in his own name, but persisted in newspaper work which he had entered shortly after his discharge from the army. He established tabloids in Los Angeles, San Francisco and in Miami, Florida.

Mr. Vanderbilt said that he was very "sad" after the decree was granted and spoke of the happy moments he had spent with his divorced wife. Vanderbilt added that he intended to reside in Reno in the future.

Suit for divorce was filed here by Mr. Vanderbilt on November 10, his complaint charging his wife discouraged his newspaper activities because little time remained to attend social functions.

The complaint had scarcely been filed when a cross petition was entered by Mrs. Vanderbilt. No mention was made of a financial settlement.

Refused further aid by his father when he was pressed for funds in 1926, Mr. Vanderbilt suspended publication of the San Francisco tabloid, and restrictions were placed on the Los Angeles and Miami papers. These, too, failed and went into receivership. He then began writing special articles in the hope of meeting all his debts, after having retired some obligations with what remained of his inheritance.

BANKING DISCOUNTS AND LOANS REDUCED

Salem Is Second City in State With Relation To Deposits, Says Report

Loans and discounts have been reduced from a total of $211,854,146.60 in the year 1920 $170,453,961.33, according to an abstract of reports received at the offices of the state banking superintendent from all national, state and savings banks and trust companies under date of October 10.

Bank borrowings which reached a high mark of $19,418,262.28 in 1920 have been reduced to $1,757,264.63. Investments in United States bonds and securities and in state, county and municipal bonds and warrants have been increased from a total of $55,681,615.19 carried in the year 1919 to $39,257,233. This would indicate, the state banking superintendent said, that there has been a gradual diversion of funds from the usual channels of investment towards the creation of a second state, with relation to deposits. On October 10 the four local banks had deposits of $12,483,480.26. Eugene was third with deposits of $3,401,000.28. Portland headed the list with deposits of $19,919,018.33.

TROUBLESOME CONSCIENCE

CLEVELAND, O.—L. F. Davis, city ticket agent for the Baltimore & Ohio railroad has been paid for another ton of coal. For the second time in eight days Davis received an anonymous letter containing $10. The letter said: "Please be so kind and pay this to the Baltimore & Ohio railroad treasury, which I owe for coal. God bless you." Davis' explanation is that some person who once stole coal from the railroad is paying up to ease a troublesome conscience.
