

BAYES WORKS HARD TO REDUCE WEIGHT

Can Phil Bayes sweat himself down to 127 pounds by Wednesday night and save himself one hundred iron potatoes?

Phil says he can. Yesterday after his work-out at the armory, swapping blows with Ted Fox and his protégé, Eddie Graham, Phil weighed 130.

Last Sunday, he weighed 129. He has two more days to reach the mark called for in the contract with Benny Pelz. If he fails, he forfeits $100. That goes for Benny, too.

What the verdict will be after these two boys stiff paw each other about the ring for ten rounds Wednesday night, no one ventures to predict. Close followers of the game are skeptical of a knock-out. Both boys are too tough to take the big sleep, is their opinion.

The local boy, and the Portland violin player, both are planning to commit mayhem on each other. It would do Phil a world of good to win the match before his home crowd. And Pelz can't afford to lose, with his match against Newsboy Brown coming up a week hence. The rate would be almost completely spoiled, if Phil takes the nod. So that's that. The crowd will get its money's worth.

Matchmaker Plant announced yesterday that Pete Willet, of Salem, would take on Battling Yankly, of Albany, in the second preliminary. Herman (Manila Tiger) Noville will appear in the first preliminary against another Albany boy, yet to be named.

BASKETBALL SQUAD CALL NEXT MONDAY

Coch Louie Anderson of Salem high school announced yesterday that basketball practice would not begin officially until next Monday night, on account of the inter-class football games, and the need of giving his football squad members a chance to rest before taking up the popular winter sport.

Medford, Ashland, Corvallis, Albany, Eugene, Oregon freshmen, O. A. C. Rocks, and certain Portland high teams will be on the hoop schedule in addition to the district games. Before getting in to the state tournament under the auspices of Willamette university, Salem must play and defeat Dallas Independence, Woodburn, and West Linn. Coach Anderson said yesterday that he would attempt to line up the district games early in the season to get them out of the way and avoid any last minute dispute about representation such as last year when it was necessary to play West Linn high the night before the tournament opened.

Efforts will be made to avoid playing more than two games in any one week, and preferably one.

"SMOKER" FUNDS TO CUT DEFICIT

A total of $244.50 was taken in at the gate for the Salem-Hood River game Thanksgiving day, of which $230 was required for expenses, the largest item being the guarantee to the Hood River team. The tag sale put on prior to the game netted $22.15. With these profits, and the neat sum which it is expected will result from staging the "smokerless smoker" in December, the deficit in student funds, occasioned by football, will largely be made up. Merritt Davis, school treasurer, believes.

USED TO BE GAR NOW HE'S MAXIE

"You can't win any fights with a name like that!" That's what they told Gar Watenberger, popular Independence school boy pugilist, when he appeared in Portland recently.

So Gar has a new name. It's shorter, and is—what would be known in cauliflower parlance—a fighting name.

When Gar shows up in the ring here Wednesday night facing Benny's young brother, Maxie Pelz, he will be billed as Terry Kileen.

It's a fighting, Irish name, well becoming to the Independence idol even if Gar is a Nordie.

HIGH MARK MADE IN SCORING GOALS

BY ALAN J. GOULD (Associated Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—(AP)—The 1927 college football season has produced a bumper crop of touchdowns, one of the greatest on record, as the forward pass has come back into its own as a scoring weapon.

The sharp rise to high scoring levels by teams throughout the country after a five year period in which the general tendency has been to tighten up the defense is one of the most striking fea-

Chicago Cubs Get Kiki Cuyler in Trade for 2

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Hazen (Kiki) Cuyler, crack outfielder and center of baseball's most sensational controversies, tonight was traded by the Pittsburgh Pirates to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for Earl (Sparky) Adams, second baseman, and Floyd J. (Pete) Scott, outfielder.

Sam Watters, secretary of the Pittsburgh Baseball club, said the deal had been arranged on a straight player basis with no money involved. Pittsburgh was represented in the negotiations by President Barney Dreyfuss and Manager Donie Bush, while the Chicago negotiators were President William Veeck and Manager Joe McCarthy.

Trading of Cuyler had been forecast in the middle of last season when he and Bush became involved in a controversy that resulted in the speedy outfielder occupying the bench for most of the league season and during the entire world's series.

Cuyler had objected to being placed second in the batting order where he contended he seemed unable to hit within many points of usual batting average. Later he was fined $50 for failure to slide into second base on a close play in an important series with the New York Giants.

Protesting against the fine, Cuyler contended he had made the correct play inasmuch as by going into the base standing up he had prevented a possible double play.

scoring spree that punctuated the 1927 campaign.

Forward passing attacks such as those displayed by Dartmouth, Southern California, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Vanderbilt, Missouri Georgetown and New York university helped boost the touchdown total.

An astonishing total of tie games as well as a large number of battles decided by a single point also are disclosed. There were 81 deadlocks, as compared with only 28 last year. One point margins were enough to settle 28 games as compared with 25 in 1926.

Greater concentration on drives for touchdowns, instead of resorting to field goal attempts, plus greater dependence on the pass, are chiefly responsible for the

The New Convertible Standard Six Cabriolet (For 4 passengers)
First Display

DELIVERED FULLY EQUIPT

Complete, nothing more to buy

The new Nash Standard Six 4-passenger convertible Cabriolet, now being given its FIRST display, sells at the drastically low price shown above, delivered to you, completely equip, freight and war tax included.

The rear deck seat is big and roomy. The upholstery is gray Colonial leather. Driving lights are controlled at the steering wheel. Instruments are grouped in a charming walnut finished panel. A smart car in every detail with sparkling nickel trimmings.

Look over the equipment on this latest Nash. It's the best that money can buy—big, over-size, over-strength, Biflex bumpers; rear fenderguards to match; latest type of shock absorbers; extra wheel; spare tire, lock and tire cover; actually more than $100 worth of extras included in its low price.

And a fast, powerful car, with a big 7-bearing engine, rubber mounted and precision balanced for quiet action. The 2-way 4-wheel brakes of Nash are oversize for super-safety. And the newly refined steering mechanism is the easiest on earth.

Don't forget it is a real convertible, with either a tan Burbank or black top optional, at no extra cost.

All this week the Cabriolet is being given a special introductory display at the showrooms of the dealers listed below. Ask about the special terms now available on your present car.
