Salem Hospital Bazaar a Successful Affair

The Salem Hospital Benefit Bazaar, which is being sponsored by the hospital division of the Salem Woman's Club opened yesterday in Otto J. Wilson's garage at the corner of North Commercial and Center Streets and will continue today and tomorrow.

So far the affair has been very successful. Four attractive booths are maintained this year: the cooked-food booth, offering a number of home made delicacies; the candy booth; the booth which features Mrs. E. E. Bragg's delicious tamales; and the fourth booth which displays the beautiful Oriental novelties owned by Mrs. B. Wheeler of Eugene.

Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. E. T. Pierce of Annville, Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn and Mrs. Merrill Orling will have charge of the candy booths today. Other club women will have charge of the other three booths today and also tomorrow.

Mrs. Hofer Entertains Her Bridge Club

Mrs. R. M. Hofer entertained the members of her bridge club Tuesday afternoon with an attractive one o'clock luncheon in her home on South Commercial Street.
