IN AUTUMN

Who, walking in the spring, shall see,
New green upon the poplar tree,
And smiles with hope as he goes by—
Is servant of his Destiny.

Who, walking in the summer fields
Sees all the gold of harvest-yields,
And labors here unceasingly—
Is comrade of his Destiny.

But who can see the beauty fade
In noble works that God hath made,
And keep faith bright in his soul's eye—
Is master of his Destiny.

—Mary Matheson

Boise Reception One of the Largest Affairs of the Fall Season

An affair of unsurpassed loveliness was the reception for which Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. Reuben P. Boise, and Mrs. Breyman Boise were hostesses on Tuesday afternoon in the Reuben Boise home on Court street.

More than three-hundred guests coming from Portland, Corvallis, Eugene, and other cities of the Willamette valley, called between the receiving hours of 2 and 5 o'clock.

Art baskets of chrysanthemums and long-stemmed roses of crimson, rose, and white, arranged in attractive combinations decorated the living room, library, and drawing room of the Boise home.

During the first hour, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner and Mrs. Henry W. Meyers presided at the beautifully appointed tea table, which was covered with an exquisite cloth of linen and lace. A low silver bowl of roses and chrysanthemums in shades of pale yellow and rose centered the table. They by Mrs. R. J. Hendricks and Mrs. John H. McNary.

Those assisting about the rooms were Mrs. John H. Lawlerman, Miss Margaret Soper, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Miss Nina McNary, Mrs. Walter Stoltz, Mrs. B. O. Schuckling, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin Jr., Mrs. F. M. Jordan of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Gus Hixson, Mrs. Richard D. Slater, Mrs. Asel Poff, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. Frederick Deckerbach, Mrs. Louis Griffith, Mrs. Bert Ford, Miss Nina McNary, and Miss Margaret Stoltz.

Violin Concert Given Friday Evening at Y. M. C. A.

An interesting violin concert was given Friday evening at the Y. M. C. A. by the pupils of Miss Elizabeth Levy.

The entire program was played with skill and assurance. The audience was particularly pleased with the playing of the younger pupils.

Dorothy Palmer who is but seven years of age played as her solo number, "Puss in Boots" (Pavane) with unusual finesse and brilliance. The work of June Director who is nine years old was also noteworthy.

Other creditable numbers were given by Aileen Ryan, Margaret Ryan, Norman Geren, and Faye Irvine.

Miss Jewell Gardner, voice pupil of Miss Lena Belle Tartar, assisted on the evening's program. She was accompanied by Miss Lucille Cummings.

Miss Margaret Hogg and Miss Florence Howe were accompanists for the violinists.

Mrs. Meyers Hostess at Attractive One O'Clock Luncheon

Mrs. Henry W. Meyers entertained the members of her bridge club with an attractive 1 o'clock luncheon at the Gray Belle Thursday afternoon. Mrs. F. M. Jordan of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Frank Snedecor were additional guests.

A lovely arrangement of holly, red-berried cottoncreeper, and red tapers, suggestive of the Yuletide season, centered the luncheon table with covers placed for Mrs. Snedecor, Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. David W. Frye, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. John H. McNary, Mrs. Frits Slade, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. Dan J. Frye Jr., Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. John J. Roberts, and the hostess, Mrs. Meyers.

Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Roberts Entertain With Pre-Holiday Musicals

One of the most delightful of the pre-holiday affairs was the musicale for which Mrs. T. S. Roberts and Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson were hostesses last evening in the Roberts' home on North Summer street. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. C. D. Bowles of Portland who is a house guest this week-end at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thompson.

The living rooms, library, and studio, were beautifully decorated with holly, mistletoe, a Christmas tree, and other novelties in keeping with the rapidly approaching Christmas season.

Little Peggy and David Thompson, daughter and son of the hostesses greeted the guests at the door.

Musical numbers were played by Professor Roberts on the new Gunther pipe organ which was installed several weeks ago in the Roberts' studio.

Several hours of dancing followed the music.

The guest group included forty prominent men and women of Salem, Eugene, and Portland.

Swedish-American Bell Orchestra

The Swedish-American Bell Orchestra will appear in concert tomorrow evening at the First Congregational church, Center and Liberty streets. A matinee for school children only will be given in the afternoon at four-fifteen o'clock. The concert for adults will be given at seven-thirty.

The orchestra was organized for the sole purpose of keeping alive the fine art of bell ringing. Now, under a new system, with an able director, Mr. O. E. Swanson, and a capable group of performers, it will give a set of bells made by the famous Whitechapel Bell Foundry, London, they have accomplished such results that they are being forced to respond to demand for public performances.

The troupe, consisting of five ringers, has been received with enthusiastic approval in every city of their tour.

The concert which they will present tomorrow evening will include such famous selections as "Melodie in F" Rubenstein; "Minuet in G" Beethoven; "Barcarolle" Sjogren; "Beause" from "Jocelyn" Goddard.
