Professor Roberts Will Give Organ Concert For His Pupils

Professor T. B. Roberts will entertain a group of his pupils and their parents with an organ concert in his studio on North Summer Street this afternoon, beginning at four o'clock.

Miss Lena Belle Tartar will sing and Kenneth McCormick will play piano numbers.

This is the third of series of informal musicales which Professor Roberts will give this winter on his new studio organ.

Returning to Southern Oregon

Miss Cella Mielke who has spent the past two weeks in Salem as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mielke, will return this evening to Riverton, Ore., where she is a member of the school faculty. The school has been closed down due to the infantile paralysis epidemic in Coos county, but will re-open Monday.

Eight Table Bridge Tea an Event of the Past Week

An attractive affair of the past week was the eight table bridge tea given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Eugene Grabenhorst in her home on Fairmount Hill.

The Yuletide motif was carried out in the decorating, baskets of chrysanthemums and fern being arranged about the living rooms. Holly and red tapers centered the tea table.

Mrs. Edward Vlesko won high score honors as a result of the afternoon's play. Mrs. Al Krause received second prize and Mrs. Harold Brown, third.

The guest group included: Mrs. Laban Steves, Mrs. D. K. Beecher.
