McDowell Club Chorus Will Present Concert on Tuesday Evening

The first chorus program of the seventh season of the Salem McDowell Club will be presented Tuesday evening, December thirteenth, beginning at eight-fifteen o'clock at the Capitol theater. The concert, which marks the first appearance of the club chorus this year, is anticipated with considerable pleasure by the Salem music loving public.

The December concert will be given at this early date in order not to interfere with the Christmas holidays. Season tickets will be the regular admittance.

Miss Minnetta Magers is director of this splendid chorus, featuring the following talented singers:

First soprano: Miss Eleanor Moore, Miss Elva May Amaler, Mrs. J. E. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. R. W. Wyatt, Miss Dorothy Tweedale, Miss Charlotte Lindquist, Miss Eva Roberts, Miss Sally Lansing, and Mrs. G. R. Bonnell.

Second soprano: Miss Hilda Amaler, Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mrs. H. C. Finley, Miss Helen MacHirron, Mrs. William L. Phillips, Miss Doris Allen, Miss Dorothy Marshall, Miss Dorothy Brant and Mrs. J. W. Nash.

First alto: Mrs. George E. Allen, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Miss Arbutus Rudolph, Mrs. Jesse George, Mrs. J. E. Law, and Mrs. H. J. Hjort.

Second alto: Miss Myra Gleason, Mrs. Emil Carlson, Miss Grace Fawc, Mrs. Walter Zosel, Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn, and Mrs. Ruth Swart. Miss Dorothy Pearce is accompanist for the group.

Arthur Johnson of Portland, one of the best-known tenor soloists of the northwest, will be the assisting artist. He will be accompanied by Miss May Van Dyke. Music critics have been lavish in their praise of Mr. Johnson's singing, and the Salem club is indeed fortunate in securing such an excellent artist. The Morning Oregonian said, following a recent concert given in Portland, "The genuine sensation of the program was the solo work of Mr. Johnson. He was recalled to the platform persistently."

The complete concert program follows:

I
"Salutation".....Gaines
"The Night Has a Thousand Eyes".....Rogers
"Snow Song".....Poster
Chorus
II

Clothing Taken to Children at State School for the Deaf

Mrs. George E. Lewis, Mrs. G. L. Forge, and Mrs. S. M. Endicott motored to the State school for the Deaf Friday afternoon to deliver articles of clothing which members and friends of the Salem Woman's Club had contributed. The state does not provide clothing for the children at the school, and J. Lyman Stead, superintendent of the institution, gave the names of those who were particularly in need, specifying their exact requirements, so the donations were of unusual value.

Those who contributed were Mrs. Al Krause, Mrs. Edwin Nissen, Mrs. C. A. Lewis, Mrs. J. G. Nadon, Mrs. G. L. Forge, Mrs. F. L. Utter, and Mrs. George H. Alden.

Further contributions of clothing, as well as magazines and victrola records will be greatly appreciated by the institutions department of the club which is in direct charge of the work. All donations may be left at the home of Mrs. S. M. Endicott, general chairman of the department, at 675 North Church street, or will be called for.

Reception at First Methodist Church Honors Rev. and Mrs. Fred C. Taylor

An attractive reception was given Friday evening at the First Methodist church by the General Aid society in honor of the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Fred C. Taylor and also those members who have joined the church in the past year.

The church parlors were decorated for the evening by Mrs. Carl Miller and Mrs. Powell. Dozens of baskets of holly and other greenery were arranged about the room. A lighted Christmas tree was a feature of the decorations.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lee.

In the receiving line with Rev. and Mrs. Taylor were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandervort, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Canse, Dr. and Mrs.

THREE SPRINGS

Three Springs in life's unbroken joyless desert
Mysteriously issue from the sands:
The spring of youth, uneven and rebellious,
Bears swift its sparkling stream through sunny lands;
Life's exiles drink the wave of inspiration
That swells the limp fount of Castaly;
But 'tis the deep, cold well-spring of oblivion
That akes most sweetly thirst and ecstasy.
—Alexander Pushkin.
