

BIG DAMAGE FOUND IN WAKE OF STORM

More Than Twenty Ships On Great Lakes Damaged By Terrific Gale

(By The Associated Press)
The wake of the blizzard which swept across the country found more than 20 storm-ridden vessels on the Great Lakes in distress, wrecked or limping toward port today.
Although no deaths were reported, thousands of dollars of damage was done to shipping, the gale leaving a trail of smashed shore property, wharves and ships.
Wreckage believed to be from the steamer Agawa, was washed ashore at Providence Bay, Manitoulin Island, although the crew was reported safe. The Canadian steamer Marlian was also reported in trouble near Port Arthur.

Three freighters whose whereabouts were unknown were located as the winds abated and temperature rose. The steamer Hamonic wirelessly she was in the shelter of Michipicoten Island, and the steamers Midland Prince and Dayton tied up safely at Sault Ste. Marie.

The Oglebay, up-bound from Sault Ste. Marie and the F. B. Squire, out of Port Colborne, Ont., were yet to be heard from, while at least seven down-bound grain vessels were overdue at Detroit. No word had been received as night fell from the grain laden Aladoc, reported going to pieces on a shoal off Keweenaw Point.

Fast in 12 inches of ice in Mud Lake at Sault Ste. Marie, the steamer Thomas Britt awaited outcome of attempts to reach her by ice crushers.

An 84 mile an hour gale equipped four vessels and a passenger steamer from their moorings at Buffalo, two of the ships being badly battered. Two package freighters headed up the lakes and two rum runners, said to have left Port Colborne, Ont., Canada, were unreported.

Warmer weather throughout the middle west, and south was in prospect for the week end, with the milder winds only a few hours behind for the Atlantic seaboard.

The snow choked roads of Wisconsin, upper Michigan, Minnesota and the Dakotas took the attention of the occupants of those states as they attempted to restore rail communication and travel. The weather to the north was still sub-zero, Hibbing, Minn., reporting 34 degrees below and snow was predicted.

Several additional deaths attributed to the cold, were reported, sending the total for the storm well above the thirty mark.

WHAT TO WEAR AND HOW TO WEAR IT

shoes, very like rubber boots. They are of rubber, flannel lined, and have a zipper fastening on the inside of the leg. They come in gray, tan and black, with the foot simulating a pump in contrast or compose, as black where the galoshes are of gray, or brown where they are of tan. The cuffs are of velvet in color to match the foot.
It has often been said, even of fashions, there is nothing new under the sun. This is not literally true. Fashion is always starting us with something new, though she does hark back a few seasons to get her inspiration. Those of us who watch for trends know pretty well what to expect next year, judged by the mode introduced this year. There is a difference between a style and a mode. A style introduced may or may not be accepted. Once it is accepted it becomes a mode. It is on this basis that shoemen look forward to the mode for boots next year. Watch and see what happens.

FRILLS FOR HOME PROVING POPULAR

your ideas with the requisite technique; for after all, the piecing and matching of cushion fur does not demand the care and precision of those which you wear before the world.

A fur cover to spread over a sofa or to pull up over chilly toes, may be made of larger pieces and lined either with satin, taffeta or a lightweight wool according to the impression that you want the finished cover to give.

Then if, as a finishing touch, after flowers are ready and fires burning, you perfume the reception-rooms with the new perfume for apartments which is the latest refinement of French home luxury, you will give your guests an impression of comfort, coziness, warmth and beauty entirely in keeping with the beautiful idea of its sanctity of home they have come together to observe.

Elongated Cardigan Latest For Spring Coat

PARIS — (AP)—The cardigan sweater has graduated. It is now a coat. More than one house is making spring coats exactly like cardigans, elongated to dress length, fashioned of fine wools, and lined with finely-printed silks to accompany matching silk dresses.

The actual line of the cardigan remains unchanged. It is like the plain, collarless sweater which for the last few seasons has been made of jerseys, silks and other fabrics to match the dress with which it is worn.

The plain band which takes the place of a collar extends to the hem of the coat, and is sometimes without buttons or buttonholes.
