Condition of Olympic Sprinter Still Dubious

DECATUR, Ill., Dec. 10.—(AP)—The condition of Loren Murchison, 23, noted Olympic sprinter, remained unchanged tonight with his chances for recovery from acute cerebro-spinal meningitis still regarded by attending physicians as very doubtful.

Since last Wednesday when he was taken to St. Mary's hospital, he has been unconscious most of the time.

"I don't see any sense in quadrupeds," said the lazy soph, yawningly.

"What's wrong with 'em?" demanded his roommate.

"Aw, nothin' if they like Bill; but what's th' use of a shah that makes you keep four legs goin' when you can get there with two?"

Miss Cora Lippold will return Tuesday evening from Spokane, Washington, where she was called by the death of her niece, Harriet Jarvis.

IT PAYS TO BE DAINTY

BROOKLYN, N. Y.—A dog's ability to take a large or a small bite is to determine the amount his owner is fined for allowing him to run unmuzzled in the future, according to Magistrate Hirschfeld, of a Brooklyn court. The magistrate has meted out justice on a sliding scale to 15 dog owners haled into court. The owner of a large police dog was assessed $10, while an owner of a "teeny poodle" paid $1. Others paid in-between prices.

Survey Shows Chicago To Be Very Religious

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Chicago, ridiculed by the rightous for its rackets and rascals, is ninety per cent religious the Chicago church federation has found.

This ratio, nine church members to one, having no denominational connection, is unsurpassed in any other city of a half million or more in the United States, the federation said in a survey report today.

There are about 2,000 churches in the metropolitan area, said Walter R. Mee, secretary of the federation. Protestants and Catholics are about equal in membership, continued Mee, each having about 1,250,000 communicants. Those of Jewish faith approximate 400,000.

Lutherans and Baptist lead the Protestant denominations with 21,000 according to the survey. The Methodist Episcopal membership is listed at 70,000.

No, She Didn't Care If Republicans Didn't Meet

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 10.—(AP)—During the recent successful campaign to obtain the republican national convention for Kansas City, Arthur Hardgrave, president of the chamber of commerce sent messages to members of the republican national committee, asking suggestions. By mistake one was sent to Mrs. Florence G. Farley, Wichita, democratic committee woman for Kansas.

This was her reply:

"Acknowledge receipt of your wire of November 24. Respectfully advise that it will be all right with me if the republican party fails to hold a national convention next year."

Norfolk Station Attempts To Decipher Distress Call

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 10.—(AP)—The naval radio station was making efforts shortly after six o'clock tonight to decipher faint SOS calls received here. Further than that some ship appeared to be calling for help, no part of the signals was intelligible here. It was believed the call originated at some distance, possibly off the New England coast.

Jugoslavia Experiences Mysterious Explosion

BELGRADE, Jugoslavia, Dec. 10.—(AP)—A violent and mysterious explosion beside Mount Plashkayitsa near the village of Prilichani has caused wide alarm among the population.

The explosion was heard through out the district between Ishtip and Kotchana in southern Serbia. Residents became panicky, thinking it was a bomb outrage. Officials attributed the shock to a volcanic disturbance in an old crater which long has been extinct.
