Barbara Fritchie Tent, Daughters of Veterans, Elects Officers

The annual homecoming dinner of Barbara Fritchie Tent, Daughters of Union Veterans, was held Wednesday evening at six o'clock. A number of G. A. R. veterans and their wives were special guests for the occasion.

The Christmas motif was carried out in the decoration of the dining table. Covers were placed for forty.

A business session followed the dinner with the following officers elected for the ensuing year: president, Mrs. E. E. Bergman, senior vice-president, Mrs. C. N. Needham; junior vice-president, Mrs. Harry Ralph; chaplain, Mrs. F. O. Bartholomew; treasurer, Miss Julia K. Webster; and council, Mrs. P. A. Elliott, Mrs. U. S. Dotson, Mrs. O. H. Horning.

The meeting Wednesday evening was the last of a series of social events held this fall.

Formal installation of the new officers will be held early in January.

supervised marketing of the apple crops of the northwestern states, worth from $35,000,000 to $50,000,000 to $50,000,000 annually in the state of Washington alone.

The board members voted today to authorize creation of a committee to devise a plan for marketing the apple crops in orderly and sensible manner. Swallow was elected to head the committee, which will start formation of the new apple marketing committee and sketch its proposed functions.

Other members of the organization committee are: J. C. Ainsworth, Portland; Ralph Budd, St. Paul; Minn.; R. Schoenwock, Seattle; J. J. Donovan, Bellingham, Wash.; D. W. Twoby, Spokane; R. E. Shepherd, Jerome, Idaho; L. T. Mervin, Portland and Henry Rhodes, Tacoma.

Attendance Large

The advisory board session today broke all records for attendance, officials declared. Those attending numbered 731. Of this number 410 were shippers, 308 railroad representatives, and 13 unaffiliated.

By unanimous vote by acclamation, the entire ruling group of board officers was re-elected for 1928. They are: A. W. Cooper, Portland, general chairman; R. W. Vinnedge, North Bend, Wash., vice general chairman; J. A. Swallow, Seattle, executive secretary; H. J. Arnett, Seattle, secretary.

A summary of forecasts made today was expected to show that general business conditions, as reflected in the movement of products to and from the Pacific northwest, will equal approximately, for the first three months of 1928, the conditions existing during the first three months of this year.

Sproule, in his talk today, said he found, when "business men and railroad men sit down together and confer over given problems of the combined group, great clouds of misunderstanding disappear."

He cited experiences of the California grape growers as proving the need for more orderly marketing, and then commented:

"Back of this question of orderly marketing is that or orderly production. I believe some organization to deal with this problem will be developed. There is somewhere to begin a movement for orderly production."

CHINA RIDDING SELF OF BOLSHIEVIC FORCE of the communists after they had seized Canton last Sunday.

The break in Chinese-Soviet relations was not altogether unexpected by observers of Chinese events of recent months. Ever since Michael Borodin, one time adviser to the Canton government, who was considered the arch-plotter and propagandist of communists in China, left the country last summer, affairs have been going badly for the extremists in the nationalist movement. The communists made one of the final efforts at Canton and according to reports reaching here, most of the leaders are likely to pay the death penalty.

Scenes Gruesome

CANTON, China, Dec. 16.—(AP)—Canton has been quite aptly described as a "city of the dead" since the suppression of the communist peasant and labor uprisings of Sunday.
