

All Army and Navy Gridiron Relations End

ELIGIBILITY RULING CAUSE OF DISCORD

WEST POINT, N. Y. Dec. 16.—(AP)—The annual football classic of the army and navy, most colorful of the seasonal pigskin dramas over a period of 33 years, apparently came to an end today.

The definite break in athletic relations considered inevitable now by army men, appeared in publication of correspondence between Admiral Louis M. Nulton, superintendent of the naval academy at Annapolis and Major General Edwin B. Winans, head of the military institute, concerning the three year eligibility rule, adopted by the middies but rejected at West Point.

Although a four year contract for annual football clashes entered into October 1926, still has three years to run, Admiral Nulton requested on December 3 that army add to the individual contract for 1928 a clause stipulating that "no contestant shall take part in this game on either team who has held three years' experience in intercollegiate football." Refusal to accede to this request would be considered "rejection of the contract and the naval academy will consider itself free to schedule another game on November 24, 1928."

In his reply, published today, Major General Winans refused the eligibility clause "for reasons fully covered in previous correspondence between the authorities of the two academies," and returned the contract unsigned. He added that it was the army contention that "authorities of the United States naval academy wish to be released from the (four year) contract entered into in 1926."

"I wish to assure you," he added, "that under the circumstances, the authorities of the military academy will not oppose in this respect."

Army objections to the three year eligibility rule, accepted by the navy, were voiced by General Winans yesterday in a statement which approved recommendations of the West Point advisory council that rules governing eligibility would not be subject to further changes.

Army objections to three year eligibility, accepted by the navy, were voiced by General Winans yesterday in a statement which approved recommendations of the West Point advisory council that rules governing eligibility would not be subjected to further changes.

General Winans explained then the necessity for all students at the military academy competing in sports on a basis of equality, declared that eligibility standard already in effect had brought objection from no other colleges, and pointed out that while army-navy contests "traditionally form the most important part of West Point schedules, the main purpose is development of sports throughout the army."

The rule allowing only three years of varsity play whether at college before entering the academies or in the service institutions themselves, would bar several famous athletes from West Point games. Captain Harry Wilson, shining light in Army's 14 to 3 victory this fall, played several years of varsity football at Penn State, and his mates in the backfield, Murrell, Nave and Keener Cagle all had college experience before entering West Point.

Under the ruling adopted voluntarily, Navy lost such stars as Tod Sloan, who caught "Whitney" Lloyd's spectacular pass for a touchdown last November, "Bud" Sprague, all-American tackle and captain-elect of the army, played college football in Texas before coming to West Point.

In their long series of combats, army has won 18 of the annual football clashes, losing 12 with three games tied. During that time the cadets pushed 325 points over the middle goal while navy scored 213.

BEARKITTEN 5 STARTS GAMES

The Willamette Bearkittens will open the hoop season next Tuesday evening at Dallas, it was announced yesterday. Coach Leslie Sparks is arranging a schedule of games which will keep the frosh busy all season.

Adams and De Harpport, two Salem high school graduates, are slated for berths at foward, Waddell has demonstrated his ability at center with his consistent floor work and basket shooting and Marsters and Page have the edge at guard.

Other outstanding candidates are Gill, Troxell, Harmon, Eaton, Kellow, Hutch, Stals, Baldree, Satchwell, Bow and Rogers.

Flashy new suits have been purchased for the players.

Joe Glick Loses Title By Fouling Tod Morgan

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—(AP)—After flooring Tod Morgan, junior lightweight champion of the world three times, Joe Glick, Brooklyn challenger, lost his chance to win the title tonight by fouling the Seattle in the 14th round of a 15 round match for the crown. Morgan weighed 128 3/4; Glick 129 1/2.

Glick started after the champion with a barrage of lefts in the first round, and Morgan went back on his heels. Morgan landed one heavy right that stopped Glick's rushing for the moment.

The champion boxed rings around his rival in the next session, but Glick was landing what heavy blows were delivered. Morgan went down from a heavy right, and took a count of eight. He got up and fell into a clinch. He evaded Glick's efforts to finish him before the bell rang.

Morgan came out for the third round apparently recovered from the punching he took. After Glick had landed heavily with both hands, Morgan took the offensive and had Joe holding on. A fierce exchange had the crowd in a frenzy at the bell.

The champion showed his best form of the fight thus far in the fourth, when he drove Glick back on his heels with three straight hard lefts. A right ball turned Glick around.

After a sharp exchange in the center of the ring, Morgan went down for a count of nine in the

IZZY SCHWARTZ WINS NEW TITLE

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—(AP)—Corporal Izzy Schwartz, frail-looking soldier warrior, won New York state's recognition as the fly weight champion of the world tonight by decisively outpointing Newsboy Brown of Sioux City, Ia., in 15 rounds. Schwartz weighed 108 3/4; Brown 111 1/2.

The tiny soldier fought his buster rival to a standstill by gaining the throne left vacant here by abdication of Fidel La Barba, California college student. Brown forced the fighting throughout, but rarely was able to evade the short uppercuts Schwartz squapped inside to his chin.

Although there were no knock-downs, these uppercuts several times shook up Schwartz with jolts to the head and ribs. Izzy was bleeding freely from the ear and left eye at the close.

GONZAGA TO MEET W.U. QUINTET HERE

A game against Gonzaga university, tentatively set for January 13th, is the latest addition to the Bearcat hoop schedule. A telegram was received yesterday from Spokane that the Catholics would be in Salem on that date.

In lieu of the California trip, the Bearcats probably will take a short jaunt into Washington, playing town teams, and winding up with a couple of games in Portland. A number of the town teams near Salem have been scheduled for early season games.

The first really tough competition in the collegiate field will come January 6 and 7 in Eugene when the Bearcats tangle with the University of Oregon varsity.

With Okerberg and Westergren no longer in the line-up the lemon yellow quintet will not have the power it did last year. Keene hopes to give Oregon plenty of basketball. Two games later in January will be played in Salem.

The lithe and accurate Ed. Cardinal continues to be the shining light on the squad, and the offense will be largely built around him. Minto, Hartley's understudy at center last year, has been shifted to a forward berth. He shows considerable improvement over his past performance and will get the call to play forward regularly. Keene believes. At the other forward berth, Glass is a strong candidate, as are Reggie DePoe and Litchfield.

Ashby has a cinch on a place either at guard or forward. Hank Ledbetter and Fleisher are battling for first choice in the other guard position.

Never before has Willamette had such an array of hoop artists from which to make up a quintet. It would be possible to make up two teams of almost equal strength.

The squad will be disbanded Wednesday evening to permit the boys to spend the holidays at home, but they are to return the day after Christmas and take the jaunt into Washington.

DIXIE'S STARS READY FOR TILT

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 16.—(AP)—From throughout Dixie, tonight, 19 football players representing the senior classes of the southern conference schools, assembled here as the first all-star seven ever to represent the south. The southerners will play an all-star Pacific coast team in a Christmas day charity game at Los Angeles.

Under the tutelage of Coaches Wallace Wade, Alabama, Dan McGugin of Vanderbilt and Bill Alexander of Georgia Tech., the Dixie team will go through a brief drill on Denny field, Alabama stadium, before they entrain tomorrow for California.

MANDELL WINS BOUT

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Dec. 16.—(AP)—Sammy Mandell, Rockford, Ill., lightweight champion of the world, easily outpointed Johnny O'Donnell, St. Paul, in ten rounds here tonight. The title was not at stake, as both men were over the lightweight limit of 135 pounds. Mandell weighed 136 3/4 and O'Donnell 134 1/2.

Morgan carefully outboxed the challenger in the fourteenth round and Glick was swinging wildly. Morgan counted heavily with both hands to the challenger's face. Another left sent Morgan down, but the blow was a foul and Glick was disqualified.

The champion forced the fighting in the early part of the tenth round, but Glick's savage body attack slowed him up. A brief rally sent Glick to the ropes as the bell rang.

The champion met Glick's rushes in the eleventh with sharp straight lefts. Glick took a few rights on the chin, but they did not seem to bother him much. Just before the bell the champion staggered Glick with a fast, accurate right to the point of the chin.

The twelfth round showed Morgan still on the offensive and Glick holding on. The champion, however, could find no defense against Glick's lefts to the stomach. The bell found them in a clinch. They mixed it furiously at the

CHRISTMAS GIFTS OF MERIT

That will carry your good wishes for many months to come

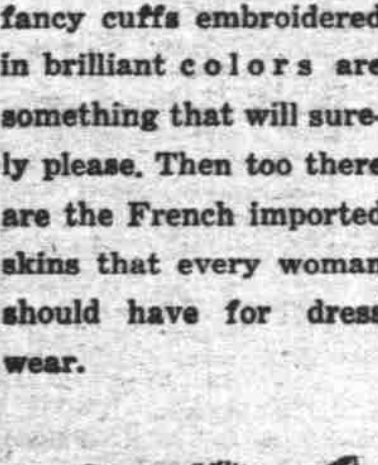

Purses make a very appropriate gift and we have a very large selection. Every woman should have three and at least two. Daytime purses of leather and evening bags are here in abundance.

Umbrellas for kiddies and grown-ups. Gior'a or silk in ten and sixteen rib quality steel frames. Handles, tips and ferrules to match are carved of wood, amberett and other colorful compositions.

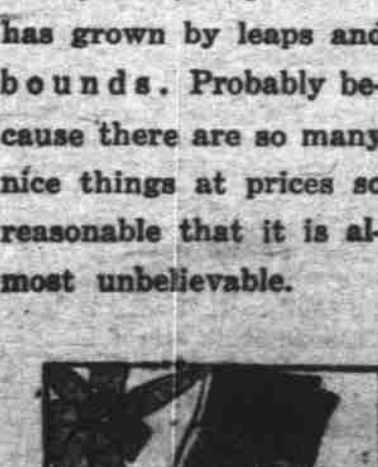

Vestees, lace collar and cuff sets and silk scarfs are packed in holiday boxes and make an ever acceptable gift. From dainty little collars to imported sets are all in a class of their own.

Gloves of fabric with fancy cuffs embroidered in brilliant colors are something that will surely please. Then too there are the French imported skins that every woman should have for dress wear.

And "Oh 'Bess," the kerchiefs. Hand tinted georgettes and Crepe de Chines, just the daintiest, loveliest things you ever looked at. Yes, and there are some to use, too—lawns, linens 'n everything.

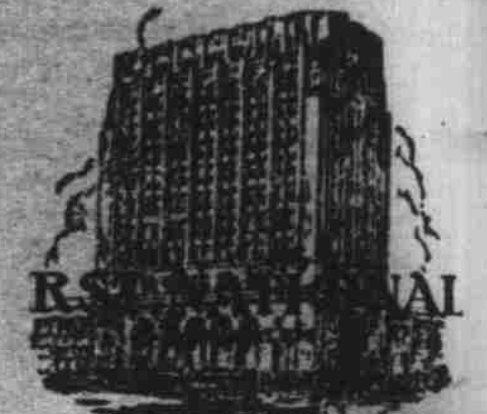

Our jewelry department has grown by leaps and bounds. Probably because there are so many nice things at prices so reasonable that it is almost unbelievable.

Why, Hosiery, of course—why in the world didn't we think of that before. Nice sheer chiffon or service weight, full fashion all put up in gift boxes. One or three pair to the box just as you desire.

There are hundreds of other things here too that just fit into that Christmas list
