LONG FIGHT SUCCESSFUL

West Side Suburb To Be Part of Salem So Far As Mail Delivery Concerned; Effort To Include Under way

West Salem is to have city mail delivery, beginning with the first of the new year. That territory is to be taken into the free delivery system of the city of Salem, just as the sections served in the main city. One new carrier will be required to serve the residents of West Salem. There has so far been no decision as to the carrier to be named to serve the west side of the river. He may be one of the present regular carriers, in which case a vacancy in the main force will have to be filled; perhaps by stepping up some one in line of priority.

Long, Winning Fight

This marks the end of a long, winning fight on the part of the enterprising people of the suburb on the west side of the Willamette river. There was fear and indication of failure attending the initial efforts. But the help of United States Senator Chas. L. McNary was enlisted, resulting in the victory that is now recorded.

CITY ATTORNEY RACE BROADENS

C. P. PHILLIPS MENTIONED AS POSSIBLE CANDIDATE

Friends Believe He is Right Man to Smooth Troubled Political Sea

Sensing a probable deadlock, or so close a vote that factional feelings in the city council would work to the detriment of municipal affairs in the case of the choice of either the incumbent, Fred Williams, or Ray L. Smith, for the office of city attorney, a number of prominent Salem citizens are commencing a boom to secure the election of C. B. Phillips.
