Answer in Water Suit—Answer was filed in circuit court yesterday in the suit brought by the Riverview school against Apkar Minasian, Kasper Minasian and Mary Azadian. The school district brought suit some time ago to prevent the defendants from using certain water rights which it is claimed belong to the district. The water is used to supply the school. The answering defendants assert that they bought the property on which the spring is located from one George E. Colby without knowledge of any conflicting rights of any kind. They indicate in their answer that they do not want all the water coming from the spring, but object to the Sophomore Wins Debate—Harold Tomlinson, representing the sophomore class, won the second interclass debate at Willamette university Tuesday, defeating Roy Currier of the freshmen. The debate was decided by a vote of the neutral classes. The subject was, "Resolved, that tradition is a hindrance to progress." Tomlinson upholding the negative, stressed the steady values of tradition, while the freshman speaker contended that tradition was the cause of wars, the evils of liquor, and of the once prevalent custom of putting cows in the university chapel.

Infant Dies Here—Walter Hitchman, young son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hitchman, died at a hospital here yesterday as a result of burns sustained when he fell into a pool of scalding water up to his waist on Sunday of this week. The father of the child is connected with the railroad yards at Reedsport, and it was there that the accident took place. A quantity of fine ashes had gathered on the surface of a pool of hot water, with the result that the child did not know the pool was there until he had plunged to the bottom of it. He was immediately taken aboard a train and rushed toward Portland. By the time he reached

Salem, however, his condition had become so much worse that he was taken to a hospital here. Death occurred a short time after his arrival at the hospital.
