Roy Romaine Arrested—Another page in the financial history of Roy Romaine, who formerly operated a cigar store on State street, was written yesterday when Romaine was arrested in Portland on a bad check charge. He was arraigned in justice court here late yesterday, released on $500 bail and granted time in which to consult an attorney. The case was continued until Saturday at 10 a. m. and he was also given until then to produce $500 additional bail. Romaine recently went through bankruptcy proceedings, naming the holders of the checks in question among his creditors. The district attorney's office declares, however, that this fact will not serve as a defense in a criminal prosecution.
