ROZELLA BUNCH

Bridge Tea at Halik Home an Event of the Week

One of the loveliest affairs of the past week was the eight-table bridge tea for which Mrs. F. E. Halik, Mrs. T. P. Mesch, and Mrs. George Dunsford were hostesses Tuesday afternoon in the Halik home on Saginaw Street.

Baskets of holly, mistletoe, fir boughs, and glowing red tapers carried out the Christmas motif in the decorations of the living rooms.

High score prize for the afternoon's play was won by Mrs. Harold Irish of Silverton. Mrs. Alice Hoff won second prize and Mrs. Clair Vibbert, third.

In the group were: Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. P. A. Elker, Mrs. Clair Vibbert, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., Mrs. R. W. Hans Seltz, Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, Mrs. W. F. Buchner, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Lucille Sweeney, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. G. L. Newton, Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. W. J. Liljequist, Mrs. Charles Pratt, Mrs. C. G. Miller, Mrs. Lloyd Patty of Silverton, Mrs. Fred Evenson, Mrs. Harold B. Irish of Silverton, Mrs. Bert Flack, Mrs. Albert C. Smith, Mrs. John Steelhammer, Mrs. Lorena Burnett, Mrs. W. V. Crandall, Mrs. Alice Hoff, Mrs. F. E. Shafer, Mrs. M. C. Petters, Mrs. Lloyd LeGarie, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. J. Boyd, Mrs. Glenn Niles, and the hostesses, Mrs. Dunsford, Mrs. Mesch, and Mrs. Halik.

Mrs. Niles and Mrs. Boyd assisted in serving at the tea hour.

Annual Christmas Ceremonial of White Shrine a Lovely Affair

One of the loveliest affairs given in the entire year by Williamette Shrine, No. 2, Order of White Shrine of Jerusalem, was the annual Christmas ceremonial held Monday evening in the Masonic temple.

The degree of the order was bestowed upon Mrs. Anna S. Kantner, W. C. Kantner, Mrs. Edna F. Butler, Mrs. Mary Bayne, Mrs. Mona Yoder, Mrs. Helen E. Bohannon, Mrs. Della Burkholder, Mrs. Jennie E. Hogmire, Mrs. Ora Henjum, Charles L. Hogmire, Mrs. Ruby E. Irvine, and Mrs. Hatlie Busick.

The degrees were conferred by worthy high priestess, Winifred Herrick, and watchman of the shepherd, William Neimyer.

Assisting with the ceremony were noble prophetess, Grace Balcock; worthy shepherdess, Zella Niemeyer; worthy guide, Hazel Gillette; worthy chaplain, Maude Scott; the three wise men, William F. McCall, Charles Radcliff, and Julius Alm; the three handmaidens, Betty Smith, Lana Beecher, and Margaret Montgomery; worthy herald, Merle Ramp; the king, Glenn Niles; the queen, Pearl Pratt; and the worthy organist, Gladys Adams.

A group of delightful vocal duets were given by Mrs. Percy Cupper and Mrs. Rose Babcock.

An informal social hour followed the service with luncheon served in the dining room. The tables were very attractive with glowing tapers, and miniature Christmas tree.

The entertainment committee included: Sojourners, Marian Darby, Carrie M. Chase, William Oglesby, Bertha McMahan, Julius Alm, Willetta Mott, Minnie McDougall, Julia Lytle, and Henry E. Morris.

Miss Grace Osborne Complimented With Delightful Bridal Shower

Perhaps the most delightful affair of the kind given this winter in Salem was the pre-nuptial shower for which Mrs. Mark McCallister was hostess Tuesday afternoon in her home on South Liberty Street, honoring Miss Grace Osborne, whose marriage to Jay Morris will be an event of the holiday season.

The living rooms of the McCallister home were very lovely with dozens of red cyclamen, poinsettias, and lighted tapers.

Mrs. Harry Harms, dressed as Santa Claus, removed the lovely gifts from the laden Christmas tree and presented them to Miss Osborne.

The guest group included: the honor guest, Miss Grace Osborne, Miss Oda Chapman, Mrs. M. N. Chapman, Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Miss Margaret Cosper, Mrs. E. L. Donnell, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., Mrs. H. C. Fox, Mrs. Bert Flack, Mrs. W. E. Hansen, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mrs. M. F. Hurlbert, Mrs. F. D. Kibbe, Mrs. W. C. Kantner, Miss LaVerne Kantner, Miss Constance Kantner, Mrs. John Bayne, Dr. Fannie A. Brown, Mrs. E. L. Gray, Mrs. Roberta Zinn, Mrs. Harry Harms, Mrs. Bertha Compton, Mrs. Poling Mrs. Taft, Mrs. B. Jork, Miss Bertha Magness, Miss Nedham, Mrs. Julia Webster, Mrs. Charles E. Ward, Mrs. E. A. Miller, Mrs. S. L. Minard, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., Mrs. Francis E. Neer, Miss Leora Morris, Mrs. H. M. Mead, Mrs. G. L. Newton, Mrs. Carrie Rowland, Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. Fred Steusloff, Mrs. Vera Shattuck, Mrs. Ivan Stewart, Miss Cora Talkington, Mrs. Josephine Taylor and the hostess, Mrs. McCallister.

Miss Doris McCallister and Miss Betty Mae Hartung assisted the hostess at the tea hour. Mrs. Vera Shattuck and Miss Leora Morris assisted about the rooms.

Daughters of the Nile Have Annual Christmas Party

Members of the Daughters of the Nile club enjoyed their annual Christmas party yesterday at the Masonic temple.

An attractive luncheon was served at one o'clock in the club dining room. Clever favors marked covers at the luncheon tables, each having a centerpiece suggestive of the season, for Mrs. L. F. Knowlton of Portland; Lucille Sweeney, Gladys Irish, Louise Patty, Ruby Seltz, Monnie Hauser, Val Mesch, Esther Kuhn, Ada Steelhammer, Cora Laughlin, Martha LeGarie, Clara Olsen, Anna Rottle, Louise Flack, Elma Kennedy, Ole Miller, Maude E. Williams, Adeline Dunsford, Mersa Liljequist, Lena Beecher, Fay Alexander, Grace Crater, Lula Newton, Eva McGilchrist, and Fay Wright.

Following the luncheon the group went to the club rooms where they each received a gift from the elaborately-lighted Christmas tree. Mrs. William Mc-

CHRISTMAS GIFTS OF MERIT

That will carry your good wishes for many months to come

Purses make a very appropriate gift and we have a very large selection. Every woman should have three and at least two. Daytime purses of leather and evening bags are here in abundance.

Umbrellas for kiddies and grown-ups. Gloria or silk in ten and sixteen rib quality steel frames. Handles, tips and ferrules to match are carved of wood, amberett and other colorful compositions.

Vestees, lace collar and cuff sets and silk scarfs are packed in holiday boxes and make an ever acceptable gift. From dainty little collars to imported sets are all in a class of their own.

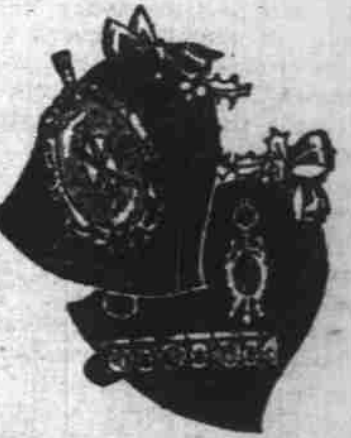

Gloves of fabric with fancy cuffs embroidered in brilliant colors are something that will surely please. Then too there are the French imported skins that every woman should have for dress wear.

And "Oh Bess," the kerchiefs. Hand tinted georgettes and Crepe de Chines, just the daintiest, loveliest things you ever looked at. Yes, and there are some to use, too—lawns, linens 'n everything.

Our jewelry department has grown by leaps and bounds. Probably because there are so many nice things at prices so reasonable that it is almost unbelievable.

Why, Hosiery, of course—why in the world didn't we think of that before. Nice sheer chiffon or service weight, full fashion all put up in gift boxes. One or three pair to the box just as you desire.

There are hundreds of other things here too that just fit into that Christmas list
