

First Christian Church

Elects Officers
At the annual meeting of the First Christian church on Tuesday evening the following officers were elected: Elder Emeritus: Clarence A. Miller; Elders: O. J. Full, E. W. Cooley, F. W. Ryder, D. Cornett, J. W. Arnett; Deacons: Virgil Hack, I. R. Utterback, P. Volkel, Arthur Flint, J. E. Douglas, Lewis Dunn, Thomas Clark, T. C. Crabtree, T. D. LaDuke, Leo Gronke; and Trustees: A. M. Hansen.

The entire board, consisting of twelve elders and twenty-eight deacons, will meet Monday evening for re-organization and adoption of the program for the year. The reports from various departments of the church were very gratifying, substantial gains having been made in several ways. The church is planning a far-reaching, constructive program for spiritual progress which is the constant aim of the officers.

Sunday, January 8th, at two o'clock the "Every member campaign" will be completed. All members are asked to be at home to meet the canvassers.

The present minister, D. J. Howe, has been with the church only four months. In that time, however, forty-four members have been added to the church roll, and the largest audiences in recent years are attending the services.

All-Day Meeting of R. N. A. Sewing Society Will Be Held Tuesday
