

SIDELIGHTS OF THE STAGE

Elsinore Theater
 "Ben Hur" showing at the Elsinore, has proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the ultimate, as concerns the motion picture, has not been reached.
 The statement is not prescient stuff. The declaration is made advisedly.
 The management wishes to explain that, in effect, this is what has been said by many hundreds already. Their laudation was not solicited; it was voluntary. The gist of their remarks—and there was not one unfavorable to the picture—was this:

"D. W. Griffith has done some wonderful things with the photoplay. For instance when he offered up 'The Birth of a Nation,' we concluded that the zenith had been approached. Subsequently there appeared 'Intolerance.' Then we knew no more could be done. Since then there have been a score of real successes—'Quo Vadis' among them, and we were greatly impressed.
 "But that is not the point. 'In our opinion there never has been a photoplay which has rivaled 'Ben Hur.' It stands alone of Henry once said, 'If I were to live a thousand years I might come close enough to romance to touch the hem of her garment.'
 "But Ben Hur, with Raymond Novarro as the lead, has approximated what to plagiarize—Don Marquis has said is the 'nearly perfect photoplay.'
 Here there shall be no words such as a stupendous, awesome, splendid nor shall there be any figures as to what the producers spent.
 The management asks the public to judge. And the management, with a sore hand from shaking congratulatory hands, is willing to leave it there.

Capitol Theater
 Bligh's Capitol will offer another wonderful Association vaudeville bill today, matinee and evening. Every week the Association shows have been improving. The five snappy acts consist of the Four Italian Serenaders, featuring Pietro Centanino the accordionist De Luxe. Each member of the quartet is musically talented. Marlon and Jerry Ross will appear in a humorous skit entitled "At the Party." It is punctuated with clever dancing and song hits. Ina, Lori and Scott offer an array of entertaining bits. They plunge right into music, song and dance. John Orren and company will present their original novelty "Mike at the Phone." It is a unique comedy classic. The trio furnish a quarter of an hour of the most delightful entertainment of mirth provoking amusement one would wish to see. Helen Bach and company close the show with a program of remarkable feats of skill and strength. Miss Bach does most of the heavy work. On the screen the Capitol will offer a program of short film subjects consisting of the famous Collegian series, a good funny comedy, topics of the day and Asopos fables, latest news events. Viola Vercler Holman and her Capitol orchestra will offer another novelty musical number.

Oregon Theater
 Kaleb, the master mentalist, who is touring the western states is appearing at the Oregon theater today with a stage presentation of Oriental and American mental wonders that are holding those who see him in amazement. There is a happy mixture of side-splitting comedy, engrossing mystery and mental phenomena in Kaleb's routine.
 There is a strain of oriental music drowning the sounds of the distant temple bells and mixed with the tom-tom of the dancer's drums. Then the fragrance of the eastern incense burning floats into the open and casts a spell upon those who wait. The music stops, and the eyes rest upon a colorful scene wherein Kaleb

CREAM FOR CATARRH
OPENS UP NOSTRILS
 Tells How To Get Quick Relief from Head-Colds! It's Splendid!

In one minute your clogged nostrils will open, the air passage of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh will be gone.
 Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.
 It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed up with a cold or nasty catarrh—Relief comes so quickly.

stands, ready to astound and amuse.
 Figuratively, he steps from the land of mystery—India—where the turbaned and long cloaked men glide about the narrow streets, where the Yogi priests philosophize and where the clustered minarets cast their spell. He answers questions for those he never seen and performs mental tests that to the average mind seem impossible.
 Kaleb's parents were American and he has devoted his life to the study of the mind. In his demonstrations of phenomenal psychology there is no long discourse on theory, everything is thoroughly practical and presented in such a manner so that those who see may draw their own conclusions. Scientists from higher institutions of learning have put Kaleb to various tests but it is said that they have gone from his presence convinced that he was not an ordinary so-called spiritual medium, but is instead a psychologist of the order that he claims.

NEWS OF THE WEEK AT INDIAN SCHOOL

The Going and Comings of the Great Big Family Five Miles Out

(The current issue of the Chemawa American, published at the Salem United States Indian Training school, has the following news items:)

Robert Perkins, our Totem Pole specialist, has sent out a large number of totem poles to different parts of the country, most of them being sent to Seattle.
 Robert Peratrovich spoke to the sophomore class during his recent visit to Chemawa. He is now a student at the University of Washington. His talk was an inspiration to all of us.
 Alfred Bernard, a former student at Chemawa, is now employed in constructing a large garage in Taholah, Wash.
 The hospital staff and all the in-patients and out-patients have been made very happy by the installation of the school radio in the hospital by Mr. Klein and some of the boys. It is surely a great joy and much appreciated by us all. Come over and "listen in" some afternoon or early evening.
 The sophomore boys' class is preparing a booklet on Benjamin Franklin to send to Miss Unita Lippis. The sophomore boys are studying Franklin's Autobiography and Miss Lippis teaches it. Myron Anderson was in Miss Lippis' English class in Browning and is the prime mover in making the book to send to his home town high school.
 During chapel last Sunday evening Supt. Lippis spoke most impressively and inspiringly of Indian achievements and possibilities. We doubt if any person in the Indian Service is better informed on the history of the race than is Supt. Lippis and he is amply able to express himself.

Yesterday Chemawa said "Good-bye, good luck, and God bless you" to Mrs. Georgiana Woods. Mrs. Woods was employed at Chemawa for twenty-four years. By her sunny disposition and kind spirit Mrs. Woods made and held friends with all with whom she was associated. Mrs. Woods retires from Chemawa and her departure marks the close of a long and faithful service to the Indian. Not only Chemawa, but a host of friends scattered throughout the entire Indian Service, will rejoice that she can yet enjoy life to its fullest measure, living with her daughter in San Francisco, and that this blessing is granted her by the government she served cheerfully and efficiently for so long a period.

OLSEN PLAYERS FACE HARDSHIPS

Company Forced To Maintain Schedule At Cost of Physical Comfort

The Moroni Olsen Players who will appear at the Capitol on Tuesday night, January 17th with "The Detour" by Owen Davis, have a proud record behind them.
 In five years touring through the northwest, subject to all kinds of bad roads, wrecks, etc., they have never missed a date. The hardships caused considerable suffering and suffering all day and often meant traveling all day and night with no rest between performances. Trains and boats have been held, special buses have been chartered for hurried cross country jumps, the players have often tarried to the train removing make up on route, but they have always managed to pop up at their destination in time for the scheduled curtain.
 Gordon Nelson who will be seen in the forthcoming production as the frank but kindly sophisticated New York artist, tells of one such harrowing experience. Mr. Nelson spent a Sunday visiting friends in a town not far distant from where they had played on the Saturday night, intending to join the rest of the company as they passed through Monday morning on their way to the next engagement. To his dismay when attempting to board the train, he was informed by the conductor that being a through train, no passengers were allowed to board at that particular station, and that his company was not on the train. Frantic long distance phoning revealed the fact that the play had gone on the night before but had left word with the stationmaster to wire for permission for Mr. Nelson to board that train. These instructions had been overlooked. There were no buses going in the direction that would reach his destination on time and no more trains. After more frenzied phoning that consumed valuable time, he managed to find a man who would drive him for a consideration. Then he rode the blood curdling ride around curves on two wheels, speed laws defied on brinks of what seemed fathomless chasms, cold wind and sleet in an open car, punctures where every minute was priceless in the race against time, until eventually, worn, hungry and more or less of a nervous wreck, he arrived at the theater in time to make a dignified entrance. This is but one incident of the many that reveals the determination of the company to keep their faith with the playgoing public and as Mr. Nelson says, is a part of the game.

MRS. MIX WANTS MORE
 Divorced Wife of Movie Star Claims He Has Fortune
 LOS ANGELES, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Tom Mix of the movies was declared here by his divorced wife, Mrs. Olive S. Mix, to have accumulated an estate of $5,000,000 since she divorced him in 1917. On this basis she petitioned the superior court for an increase to $1,500,000 of an allowance for the support of their daughter, Ruth, now 16 years of age.

FARM SALES MANY NEW FAMILIES

FAIRVIEW COMMUNITY GETS NEW FAMILIES

FAIRVIEW COMMUNITY, Jan. 12.—(Special).—Ranches in this community have been changing hands rapidly within the last few weeks, and many new families are being welcomed here. The following is a list of sales and exchanges:
 Mr. Turner of Nebraska bought the Twin Hill prune ranch.
 M. Hart, formerly of Jefferson, has purchased the Leskovar ranch and will develop it into a dairy ranch.
 Mr. Semster of Salem bought the Giddings home ranch and expects to add new buildings.
 Dr. Olson of Salem recently purchased one of the Jory farms. Mr. Jones of this community bought the Birdsall ranch and is replacing the old buildings with new ones.
 Chris Hjalmsen of Washington bought the Walter Jory ranch. This is a large grain and dairy ranch.
 Mrs. Moses of Turner bought the MacFarlane prune ranch.
 The recent extension of the market road together with the cutting through of the new grade, places the Fairview community in a most desirable location with respect to Salem. The Fairview school is situated on the crest of Ankeny hill.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dent, who have been visiting at the home of their sons, Wilbur and Ralph, have returned to Washington. Mr. Dent is examiner for federal farm loans in Washington, California and Oregon.
 Mr. Downs left for Sale Lake City, Utah, last Saturday. He will be gone for some time.
 Interdenominational services are being conducted at the schoolhouse by the Misses Pickett and Speers. The meetings will continue until January 16.
 W. Y. Dent and B. Simpson transacted business in Salem Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brownlee have moved to their new home in Salem.

OREGON HOGS ARE WINNERS AT OGDEN

Our Salem District Breeders Score Big On Durocs and Chesters

Much credit is due to A. N. Doerfler of Silverton and Cass Nichols of Salem for the fine showing which they made in the Duroc Jersey and Chester White division at the Ogden livestock show January 8 to 14.
 All should feel mighty proud that Oregon hogs in the ring at this great show walked away with grand champion and other top awards. The show at Ogden brings entries from all over the United States, and consequently competition is keen. Breeders competing there know that they must have quality to show.
 The Doerfler Durocs
 To A. N. Doerfler of Silverton with his fine type Duroc Jerseys goes the honor of winning the champion boar under one year. Doerfler has been a purebred Duroc breeder for a number of years. For four years he had the grand champion boar at the Oregon state fair and for five years the same award at the Pacific International.
 Nichols' Chester Whites
 On the Chester Whites, Cass Nichols of Salem proved conclusively that it was no camouflage that in Oregon they produce real quality Chesters. It was his honor to receive the award for grand champion boar and sow, champion boar over and under one year, champion sow under one year. Cass didn't stop here, however, for he did real credit to Oregon by having the grand champion boar of the entire show. Cass is an old pig club member, starting in 1919 with Chester Whites. His fine progress has certainly proved the value of club training.
 In real sickness, call a physician. But many physicians urge only Castoria for those little childish disorders that need nothing more. You need never be afraid to give pure Castoria. It is safe and perfectly harmless, for it contains no paregoric, no opiates, no dope of any kind. At least, this is true of the genuine Fletcher's Castoria—and that is the kind doctors tell you always to buy. Fletcher's Castoria is fine for

Infant Care

Mothers, you can't start too early to establish a child's serene and tranquil disposition. Even an infant can have a happy, fretless state of uninterrupted health. What will help do this? A simple, purely vegetable product as old as you are: plain Castoria.
 A few drops of Castoria will settle all uneasiness in a jiffy. Will dispel colic or ward off constipation; and just as surely check diarrhea.
