WASHINGTON HIGH INVADES TONIGHT

Salem high school will have its first taste of Portland competition tonight when Washington high school, rated as a leading contender for the Portland title, appears on the local floor. The game is scheduled to start at 7:30 p. m. Coach Louie Anderson will start his usual line-up, unless he decides on a last minute change, sending in Ferrine and Siegmund instead of Kelly and Schafer.

So far this season, Salem high school, playing practically a green team, has been undefeated in interscholastic competition. Antonio was wiped up in two games and University high of Eugene was the next victim.

Salem lost only to its alumni who sent an array of college and professional stars against the Red and Black, before Coach Anderson has perfected his line-up. Washington high school recently defeated the Willamette freshmen in Portland 36 to 29. Dolp is the scoring ace for the Colonials but Lewis, Washington center, is equally agile on the floor and skillful in spreading the net.

Salem high handed the Colonials a bad defeat last year, winning 36 to 18.

Probable starting lineups:
Salem High Washington High
Schafer F Dolp
C. Kelly F Inman
Lyons C Lewis
R. Kelly G Helkenen
Ecker G McCartney

BEARKITS MEET LINCOLN TONIGHT

The Willamette university yearlings will journey to Portland tonight to tangle with Lincoln high school. The Hallsplitters are said to have a strong aggregation this year, coached by Paul Heller. Coach Leslie Sparks will take ten men along and may make several changes in the lineup before the game ends.

In the starting combination, probably will be De Harpport and Troxel, at forward; Weddell at center; and Marsters and Page, at guard. So far this season, the Bearkittens have won only one game, that from Dallas high school.

SCIO HIGH GIRLS BEAT CHEMAWA

CHEMAWA, Jan. 12.—(Special)—Although defeated, the Chemawa Indian school girls' basketball team showed promise of future improvement in its first game here last night. The Chemawa sextet lost to the Scio high school girls' team 20 to 19. The score at half time was ten all, and during the second half the lead passed from one team to the other repeatedly, and the winning basket was made 16 seconds before the final whistle.

An outstanding performance was that of A. Morigeau, a recent arrival at Chemawa, who made 14 points for the Indian girls' team. The team as a whole showed the necessity for acquiring better teamwork and accuracy in passing. The coach, Mrs. R. G. Downie, is optimistic as to the future improvement of her squad.

INDIANS DEFEAT GUARDSMEN FIVE

CHEMAWA, Ore., Jan. 12.—(Special).—The Chemawa Indians added to their basketball laurels here tonight by handing the Dallas Company L team the short end of a 42 to 26 score. It was in the nature of revenge for the redskins as Company L had previously defeated them at Dallas.

The Chemawas have shown almost a complete reversal of form over that displayed early in the season when they lost three straight games. They are now becoming a dangerous outfit. George, Chemawa forward, was the star of last night's contest. He collected 18 points.

DUCKS TAKE WIN OVER ATHENIANS

The Ducks surprised the Athenians last night by slipping over 22 to 19 victory to win the first round of the house league tournament. The Athenians couldn't find the hoop, and apparently had not recovered from the strain of the game against Albany college the night before. Flake and Adams tied for high point honors with eight each.
