

PRICE WAR RAGING BETWEEN OIL FIRMS

Standard Oil and Royal Dutch Shell Parties To Great Conflict

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—(AP)—The "price war" raging between the Royal Dutch Shell group and the Standard Oil company of New York in India will be extended at once if the American company offers Russian oil for sale in other countries.

This was made clear here last night by Richard Alrey, American representative Sir Henri Dederding, head of the Shell interests.

"I do not anticipate a price war in any other country," Mr. Alrey said, "but this is entirely in the hands of the Standard Oil company of New York if they ship Russian 'stolen goods' to any other country, the Royal Dutch Shell group will fight it."

He declared frankly when questioned that the object behind the fight was to make the marketing of Russian oil unprofitable with the view of forcing the Soviet government to make compensation for petroleum lands confiscated without payment. To this end the former foreign producers who operated in Russia have formed an association with headquarters in Paris, to carry on a concerted campaign against the marketing of Russian oil. Included in this association are British, French and Dutch interests, as well as a few small groups with headquarters in other European countries.

A loss of $4,000,000 annually which the Standard Oil company of New York declared in its statement was the cost to it of the oil price war in the Indian market. Mr. Alrey ascribes to a "lack of foresight."

will be presented while the scenes are being changed.

Entertaining stunts will consist of dances, tumbling, by the boys' gym classes, a one act play and various other things.

The vaudeville is being sponsored by the Nine A's of Parrish. A part of the money is to be used for a present which will be given as a farewell gift, to Parrish by the graduating class. The rest is to be used by the student body for various expenses which they must pay.

COMMUNISM EYED

RUSSIAN AND ITALIAN GOVERNMENTS DISCUSSED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Fascism and communism were picked as offering the United States the "moving force of a great ideal" by James G. McDonald, chairman of the foreign policy association in discussing last night before the conference on the cause and cure of war, the relationship of empires and dictatorship to the organization of world peace.

The movement for universal peace, he said, offers to Americans just such an ideal.

"Fascism and communism have much in common," he declared, "in that both are dictatorships contemptuous of democratic principles."

But as regards their position in foreign affairs, he said, they differ. Contrary to the usual assumption, Mussolini has changed the foreign policies of his country "not in kind but merely in degree; the tone is only more strident."

The Soviet regime however, he said, placed Russia in an anomalous position; the government sincerely advocates peace on all fronts while the communist party supports the third international in still adhering to the program of world revolution.

University of Oregon Now Has 3041 Students

EUGENE, Jan. 18.—(AP)—With the addition of 151 students this term, the enrollment on the campus of the University of Oregon here has now reached a total of 3,041. This number does not include the 223 students in the medical school in Portland, nor extension school of social work, or correspondence school students.

A few more students are expected to register yet this term, and the total will be swelled by entering students in the spring term, which starts in April.

TAX BILL SHELVED

DEMOCRATS EXPECT TO BRING MEASURE UP EARLY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—(AP)—The $290,000,000 tax reduction bill, passed before Christmas by the house, was laid on a shelf in the senate finance committee on Tuesday until after March 15 but democrats announced their intention to ask the senate to bring it out at an earlier date.

An effort by Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, ranking democrat on the committee, to obtain immediate consideration of the bill today by the committee was turned down by the republican majority on a strict party vote, 11 to 9.

Informed by Chairman Smoot of the committee that the administration desired to learn more about the tax returns for this year, which will be revealed partially when first payments are made on March 15, before having a reduction bill enacted into law, Senator Simmons replied "upon defeat you will hear more from us later."

In the senate late in the day, Harrison of Mississippi, a democratic member of the finance committee, intimated the attack planned by democrats would be to have the senate discharge the committee and take up the bill meanwhile, in the house, members indulged in another argument over the advisability of delay.

DORMITZER LAYS ATTACK TO KLAN

ATTORNEY OBJECTS TO JUDGE BRAND AS REFEREE

Disbarment Proceedings Wanted In Some County Other Than Coos

Paul Dormitzer, attorney, who recently was paroled from the state penitentiary after serving his minimum sentence for obtaining money by false pretenses, Monday asked the state supreme court to remove Judge J. T. Brand of Coos county as referee in disbarment proceedings filed against him by the Coos County Bar association.

Dormitzer alleged in his petition that the grievance committee of the Coos County Bar association is a creation of the ku klux klan.

Special mention was made in the petition of Arthur K. Peck, who Dormitzer alleged was grand giant of the klan and a law partner of Mr. Brand. Other Marshfield attorneys attacked by Dormitzer in his petition were J. F. Anderson, W. T. Stoll and J. W. McInturff.

The petition requested that a new referee be appointed and that the proceedings be transferred to some county other than Coos.

Dormitzer practiced law in Portland for a number of years and later located at Marshfield. It was while in the latter city that he was arrested and convicted of kiting checks. He is now located at Lakeview.

He blames his incarceration in the penitentiary and the disbarment proceedings and activities of the ku klux klan.

3000 Mark Passed By U. D. In Student Registration

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Jan. 18.—(Special)—The 3000 mark has been passed in the total number of students now registered on the Eugene campus it is announced by Earl M. Pallett, registrar.

New students this term number 191, and this added to the total of 2850 registered during the fall term, makes a total of 3,041 for the year so far. Registration is not entirely finished for the winter term, and at the beginning of the spring term in April the registration figures will again be given a considerable boost, it is stated.

The grand total given above does not include the more than 200 students in the medical school in Portland, nor any of the students registered in the extension division, school of social work, or those taking correspondence courses.
