COLUMBIA U. GAME SET FOR TONIGHT

Willamette university will play Columbia university of Portland on the local floor tonight. A preliminary game between the Freshmen and Grant high school has been arranged. The first game will start at 7:30 o'clock.

By Victor D. Carlson
PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, Forest Grove, Ore., Jan. 20.—(Special.)—Two ancient rivals met on the marble court here tonight. Willamette, maintaining its athletic supremacy, tucked away its first conference basketball victory, but in doing so had no cause for riotous celebration.

The final score stood 34 to 24 after a hectic last-half battle in which the Badgers unloosed every piece of scoring artillery they could muster. The attack was effective—but not effective enough to overcome Willamette's nine point first-half lead. The Bearcats even managed to eke out one more point than did the Badgers in this frame, but there was plenty of fear of defeat throughout.

Emerson was the Badger who started Pacific's rally. The Bearcats held a thirteen point lead shortly after the second half opened when this chap began to run wild on a scoring spree. Scarcely two minutes had elapsed before he had roped in four neat goals. This sudden contribution, together with a basket by Dreezen brought Pacific to within three points of Willamette's total. The din in the gymnasium was terrific.

Coach Leo Frank sent in Mills to replace Emerson, when the Bearcats tightened the defense, with instructions to take the ball down the middle of the floor, apparently the Bearcats' weak spot. The strategy failed, for Mills was promptly covered, and Cardinal, Litchfield, Flesher, and Hauk collected points enough to make it a ten point victory.

It was a ragged game and but for the startling Pacific rally and occasional bursts of brilliancy by the Bearcat aggregation, would have been a dull affair.

The playing of Reginald DePoe in the first three minutes was a marvel to watch. This lithe, agile Indian, working with cat-like precision, stretched the net four times from difficult side-line shots to put his team in an eight point lead right at the start. He was ill in the second half and almost was retired by Coach Keene, but kept up his good floor work, although connecting but once in the second half. Hauk played a wonderful defensive game. Cardinal was decidedly "off" but at that counted ten points on push shots.

Over-confidence from reading press reports that the Pacific team was a "pipe," caused the Bearcats to play carelessly, and without much teamwork. The men who took the floor tonight are as class as aggregation of players as ever wore Willamette suits, but they will have to co-ordinate and play a smoother, machine-like game to give Whitman any trouble when they play the conference title. The players have the ability if it can be brought out.

Willamette converted a much better percentage of shots than did Pacific, with fourteen out of forty-six tries. Pacific made only ten out of fifty-six.

Name	Tries	Conversions
Litchfield	4	0
DePoe	11	5
Cardinal	19	5
Hauk	7	0
Leadbetter	0	0
Glass	4	0

Willamette capitalized on six out of eleven free throws while Pacific counted five out of nine.

The summary:

Willamette (34)	Pacific (24)
DePoe 10	Fleming 10
Litchfield 2	Walker 6
Cardinal 2	Dreezen 3
Hauk 5	Miller 4
Leadbetter 1	Coon 1
Glass 4	Mills 3
Flesher 2	Scoman 1

Steamship Operators Hold Sixth Annual Gathering

PORTLAND, Jan. 20.—(AP) —One hundred members of the Portland Steamship Operators' association and their guests attended the sixth annual banquet of the association tonight aboard the steamer Rose City.

Although the affair was largely a social event, several speakers expressed ideas on port improvement and on the proposed Longview bridge.

H. A. Sargent, secretary of the port of Portland said: "If the Longview bridge is built with approximately 200 feet vertical clearance and 1100 feet horizontal clearance, the shipping of Portland will not be impeded."

Only 19, But—

This young lady isn't 20 yet, but she once held the world's record for the 220-yard breast stroke, she tied the world's record for the 100-yard breast stroke, and held the central breast stroke championship of her city for four years. She is Peggy Williamson, of Milwaukee, Wis. And that isn't all—she plays hockey, soccer, basketball, baseball and tennis, and hopes to get in on the Olympic games.

Sports Done Brown

ROUND 12—DECEMBER
Sport fans faced December and another turkey day with a feeling of having over-indulged in sport turkey. Over 30,000 of them journeyed to Atlanta, Ga., however, to watch Georgia's "wonder and dream" team go down to defeat mainly through its own ambitions in its closing game with Georgia Tech.

The Golden Tornado, trounced by Notre Dame, was given but an outside chance by outside critics, but it swept the champions of the south off their feet, winning 12 to 0.

The baseball stove league was given its first big "chaw" when Paul Waner, brilliant young Pirate outfielder, was chosen most valuable player to his team in the National league. And oddly enough one of the most formidable contenders for this honor next year may be his little brother Lloyd, who played in the outfield with him.

Roger Peckinpah, one of the game's greatest shortstops and headiest players, returned to his home town of Cleveland as manager of the Cleveland club under its new owners. Peckinpah was disposed of as a youngster by the Cleveland club because he couldn't hit, only to become one of the game's most dangerous hitters with the Yankees and later to star with Washington and then serve a term with the White Sox.

The middle of the month saw Harry Rice and Elam Van Gilder, outfielder and pitcher respectively, with the St. Louis Browns, traded to Detroit for First Baseman Lou Blue and Outfielder Heinie Manush. George Sisler, Brown's first baseman, and at one time the only man qualified to carry the title of "Second Ty Cobb," was sold to Washington.

The later days of the month saw the athletic officials of the Army and Navy at loggerheads over the Navy's action in putting into effect a three-year eligibility rule, which automatically bars men who have played three years on college teams before entering the service and shortens their careers at Annapolis in proportion to the years they have played previously.

Many of the outstanding football stars of the east headed west to participate in the charity game promoted by the Shrine at Berkeley, Cal. Dec. 26. And the University of Pittsburgh and Stanford prepared to lock horns in an inter-sectional game to top off the year.

And the closing days of the year also found Tex Rickard hard put for heavyweights with which to drum up interest in another big battle. It would take more than a long count to make most of the battles he could stage the least bit interesting. The two he had at Chicago just about make up the list whether or not you like either of them.

Santa Claus brought back to Jake Schaefer the 18.2 ball line billiard championship he had held in 1921 and again in 1925. In the closing days of the month Jake, Jr., defeated Walker Cochran, defending champion, 1,500 to 1,304.

AGGIE FIVE WINS OVER IDAHO QUINT

CORVALLIS, Jan. 20.—(AP)—The Oregon State Aggies defeated the Vandals of Idaho 31 to 23 in the opening conference basketball clash of the season here tonight after Idaho's fast-breaking offense had grabbed the lead and held it until the final minute of the game when the Vandals faltered.

Bill Burr, Aggie captain, received a tremendous ovation when with but one minute to play he put the Aggies into a one point lead. Then, to make victory doubly certain, he tossed in one of his famous backhand single shots a few seconds later.

Red Jacoby and Darwin Burgher played stellar ball for the invading Vandals.

The Orange offense functioned smoothly at times but the playing was a bit ragged in the aggregate. Idaho will play Oregon at Eugene tomorrow night.

TEX RICKARD MUM ABOUT FIGHT PLANS

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Tex Rickard and Gene Tunney "already understand each other," and there is little prospect of an important agreement relative to the heavyweight title fight prospects for 1928, during the promoter's stay here, he declared tonight.

Although newspaper reports heralded Rickard's trip here as being the final step in completing the promoter's recently announced plans to match the champion and Jack Dempsey for a title fight in June or July, Rickard declared that his visit was for a "rest" and that he didn't "want to see a boxing glove or even talk about one."

Rickard, accompanied by his wife and child, arrived here today and registered at the hotel at which Tunney is staying.

Tunney and the promoter will attend a banquet tomorrow night given in the champion's honor.

He declined to reveal his plans but it was considered probable that his tentative selection recently of Jack Dempsey as the logical man for the next match with Tunney, and next June or July, as the date would form the basis of the opening negotiations.

Tunney publicly expressed pleasure as the prospect when Rickard's announcement was made, but it was emphasized that the action was not final and the matter of terms still must be agreed upon before any signing on the dotted line takes place.

Tunney has been undergoing light training on the links and in the surf here for several weeks.

LINFIELD BEATS CHEMAWA FIVE

McMINNVILLE, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Linfield college added its fifth consecutive victory to the string of basketball wins when the Wildcats defeated the Chemawa Indians 38 to 25 here tonight. The game was the most ragged seen here this season.

At half time the score was 17 to 16 for Linfield, with the locals showing a woeful lack of co-ordination, coupled with inability to hit the basket. The Chemawa five showed excellent team work but like their opponents, seldom found the hoop.

Montana State Wins Another
PROVO, Utah, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Montana State defeated Brigham Young university tonight in the first conference encounter here this season, 43 to 41 in a contest which saw the Bobcats within an ace of defeat time after time at the hands of the fast passing Cougars.

SIEGMUND ON WILD SCORING RAMPAGE

With young Don Siegmund tossing the ball into the basket from all angles of the floor and running up a total of 21 counters for himself, Salem high galloped over the Albany high basketball team here last night by the one-sided score of 36 to 12. The visitors were badly handicapped without the aid of their star forward, Earl Stone, who was cut off the lineup with a sprained ankle.

HEAD OF IRELAND AMAZED ON VISIT

Exclamations Drawn From President William Cosgrave At Sights

ABOARD TWENTIETH CENTURY Limited, Albany, N. Y. Jan. 20.—(AP)—Speeding westward for a 24 hour visit in Chicago William T. Cosgrave, head of the Irish Free State, today expressed amazement at things American as he had taken mental note of them since setting foot on United States soil for the first time today.

As he talked to an Associated Press correspondent in the private car assigned him and fellow members of his cabinet, the president of the executive council of the Irish Free State showed all the excited interest of an immigrant in the landscape flashing past his window.

"This is an amazing country," he said, "Already I've gathered any number of impressions, even though I've been in your United States only a few hours. Those immense buildings in New York, that great harbor, the signs of prosperity everywhere are some of the things that have impressed me so far."

"I was stirred also at the enthusiasm and kindness of the people. Your prosperity in this country has not interfered in any way with your kindness."

Eager to "see everything," Mr. Cosgrave and the members of his party stepped out to the platform in the railroad yards at Harmon, N. Y., where they watched the huge steam locomotives replacing the electric engines that had pulled their train out from New York.

"Those big engines took my breath away almost," said Mr. Cosgrave afterward. "Such efficiency! You don't waste a minute when it comes time to take the electric off an dpt on the steam ones."

ST. PAUL QUINT BEATS PARRISH

ST. PAUL, Ore., Jan. 20.—(Special).—The St. Paul high school basketball team defeated the Parrish junior high quintet of Salem 13 to 9 on Wednesday evening. The game was fast and full of thrills and spills. Close checking by both teams prevented a great amount of scoring.

Both boys' and girls' teams of St. Paul high school will play Grays high teams January 27 on the local floor.

The lineup for Wednesday's game was:
St. Paul Parrish
Van de Weile, F. Burns
Hansen, F. James
R. Gooding, C. Dietz
Berhorst, G. Pettit
E. Gooding, S. Seguin
G. Satchers

CALIFORNIA FIVE BEATS TROJANS

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 20.—(AP)—A rejuvenated University of California basketball team scored its first conference victory of the season here tonight when it defeated University of Southern California 28 to 18.

A close California defense limited the Trojans to five field goals, all of which were scored by Mortensen, sophomore forward. Corbin and Stevens played in brilliant fashion for the winners.

California led 14 to 12 at half time.

HUDKINS WINNER OVER TENDLER

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Ace Hudkins, the Nebraska wildcat won a mauling ten round bout from Lew Tendler, Philadelphia southpaw veteran in the main go tonight at Madison Square Garden boxing show. Tendler lasted through the last three rounds with difficulty after taking a count of eight in the seventh. Hudkins scaled 149 3-4 pounds; Tendler 151.

CONTESTS SPEEDY IN CHURCH LEAGUE

Three fast and interesting games were played last night at the "Y" in the church basketball league and a large crowd, numbering over 200, turned out to see the various teams in action.

"Each quintet showed a decided improvement over their playing last week," said Bob Boardman, Y. M. C. A. physical director, "and competition was much stronger last night."

In the first contest, the First Methodist squad dropped a hard-fought game to the Bungalow Christians by the score of 18 to 9. The strong Presbyterian five, led by H. Colgan, defeated the First Christian church quint 24 to 15. The last game featured a closely contested game between Jason Lee and Leslie Methodist, which the Lee boys won by a score of 18 to 11.

The score by quarters is as follows: first quarter—Salem (5), Albany (3); second quarter—Salem (8), Albany (3); third quarter—Salem (22), Albany (7); fourth quarter, Salem (36), Albany (12).

The lineup and summary:

BELGIAN CHAMPION LOSES TO DELANEY

BOSTON, Jan. 20.—(AP).—Jack Delaney of Bridgeport, Conn., scored a technical knockout over Jack Humbeck, Belgian heavy-weight champion here tonight when the referee stopped the bout in the sixth round to spare the Belgian further punishment. Humbeck's left eye was completely closed and with the right fist closing, Delaney weighed 178 pounds as against Humbeck's 199.

In the fifth round, Humbeck began to feel the full weight of Delaney's attack. In this round Delaney closed Humbeck's left eye with a series of stinging left jabs and knocked him down with a right smash to the jaw for a count of eight.

MAT SQUAD HAS GOOD PROSPECT

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Jan. 20.—(Special).—Wrestling enthusiasts at the Monmouth normal school will receive expert training from Errol C. Rees former O. A. C. athlete and heavy weight wrestler, who is coaching this popular sport this winter. According to Coach Rees, more than 25 men have already turned out for training and out of this number eight men show outstanding ability and speed and will assure the Normal a strong six-man squad.

The American Legion post at Monmouth is sponsoring a meet next Thursday night and the elimination trials will be held for the first tripart team. Coach Rees has been in the wrestling game

FOOTBALL LETTERS PRESENTED AT W.U.

Prediction that 1928 will be Willamette university's big season on the gridiron, was made by Coach Roy S. Keene when he presented 1927 season awards at the student body meeting Friday.

Only three of the men who received certificates will fall to turn out next fall. These are Woodworth, Zeller and Winslow, all of whom have played their allotted four years.

Only two "W" sweaters were presented to players. These went to Emmons and French. Keene made particular mention of these two players. Emmons, a lineman, had worked hard for three years and finally in the past season played enough time to win a sweater.

French, the coach declared, was the "hard luck kid" of the squad. A year ago while chopping wood at home, he cut his foot and missed winning a letter; in the season just past, he broke his shoulder in practice after the second conference game, but he had played enough already to entitle him to the award. Ivan White manager, also received a sweater.

Second year certificates were awarded to Ruch, Versteeg and Cranor; a third year certificate to Mumford. First year certificates, entitling the athlete to a sweater after he has acquired sophomore standing, were presented to C. De Poe, Eaton, Rogers, Ackerman, R. DePoe, Haldeane and Deetz. Hauk won a football letter for the first time but already had a sweater for basketball and baseball.

EDWARDS ON TRAIL OF TWO PITCHERS

Two top notch pitchers, both well known to Salem fans, are in prospect for the Salem Senators for the impending season. It was made known by Manager Leo "Frisco" Edwards yesterday; but since they are not definitely signed up, Edwards would not divulge who the men are.

The Senators, well supplied with talent in every other department, are badly in need of mound assistance, as Wayne Barham, regular pitcher for several seasons past, has announced his intention of quitting baseball, and Johnny Beck, the other chucker who finished the 1927 season with the local team, is slated for allegedly faster company—the coast league.

It was reported yesterday that Jerry Goleman, who played center field for the Senators last season and is signed up for the coming season, will move to this city to make his home.

PARRISH BEATS ST. MARY'S FIVE

Parrish junior high moved a notch closer to the state championship for junior high schools last night when it defeated the strong St. Mary's quintet here 18 to 15. St. Mary's is one of the strongest junior high fives in the valley and has scored wins over Corvallis and Eugene junior high teams.

Coach Frank Brown's tossers jumped into an early lead when Burgess, Parrish forward, dropped in a long shot from mid-floor. The

NORMAL BEATS SALEM QUINTET

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Jan. 20.—(Special).—Salem Athletic club quintet lost a fast practice game to the Monmouth normal squad last night with a one-sided score of 55 to 24. The Teachers outclassed the Salem boys in weight and experience. Duffy, Salem forward, was high point man with 14 markers. Monmouth center, W. Schunk, scored high for the local team with 29 points.

The lineup:

MacDonald Smith, Great Neck; Tommy Armour, last year's winner; Al Espinosa, Bobby Cruickshank; "Wee Willie" Hunter, "Wild Bill" Mehilhorn; John Rogers and more than a score of other pros are assembled here and ready to start play for the $3,200 prize money. The winner will receive $1200.

Play will be on the El Paso club course. Players will get 72 holes medal play to decide the winner.

BANQUET ENJOYED
OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Jan. 20.—(Special).—Annual ladies night banquet was given by the Monmouth commercial club Wednesday night with Dr. Edwin T. Reed of the Oregon State college as speaker of the evening. Dr. Reed spoke on the topic of "Experts." Music was furnished by Robert Loucks, trombone soloist, and a local orchestra. Seventy five business men, their wives and other ladies enjoyed the banquet.

The new Paris fashions indicate a strong inclination for Spanish motifs in evening wear for women, according to Mary Brush Williams, fashion expert in an article in Liberty.
